Mr. Curt Pedersen, Chair
Boundary Review Committee
500 West Temple Street, Room 383
Los Angeles, California 90012

Dear Mr. Pedersen:

The City of La Mirada requests to remain in the Fourth Supervisorial District. The Fourth Supervisorial District staff understands our community interests and needs, and has been highly responsive to the City. Continuing this relationship is critical to La Mirada as we continue providing quality services while facing a variety of challenges.

The City of La Mirada is a vibrant community in Southeast Los Angeles County, and we work closely with neighboring cities on significant economic, transportation, water, and air quality projects distinctive to our region. We have existing partnerships with other cities in the Fourth District including Norwalk, Downey, Commerce, Whittier and Cerritos. Having similar supervisorial representation with our regional partners is extremely helpful in accomplishing our shared endeavors.

On behalf of the City of La Mirada, I respectfully request the Committee consider these regionally significant relationships with other cities when drawing the final boundaries and keep the City of La Mirada within the Fourth Supervisorial District.

Sincerely,

CITY OF LA MIRADA

Steve Jones
Mayor
