Summary of Letters Received by July 13, 2011

This document summarizes letters received by July 13, 2011, the last meeting day of the Boundary Review Committee. These letters were reviewed and grouped into the general categories below for each Supervisorial District. An author of a letter may have submitted written comments on several issues, resulting in the letter being counted in more than one category. The County of Los Angeles continues to receive written correspondence from the public on the County's 2011 Decennial Redistricting process. All letters received to date are posted on the County's Redistricting website under "Summary of Public Comments/Letters".
