

Redistricting Fact Sheet

A first in Los Angeles County history! An independent Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC) will redraw the supervisorial districts for the next 10 years.

What You Need to Know

How This Redistricting Process Differs From Past Practices

In the past, the Board of Supervisors had the final say before adopting the final redistricted boundaries. The LA County CRC is independent from the influence of the Board and representative of the County's diversity.

Redistricting Overview

Redistricting involves rebalancing districts so they are about equal in population – about 2 million people per supervisorial district, based on U.S. Census 2020 data. Other considerations are race and ethnicity; contiguity; cities, neighborhoods, and communities of interest; and compactness.

Why Redistricting Matters

At the local level, periodic redistricting and redrawing of the boundaries are important to:

- Ensure the Board of Supervisors fairly reflects the county's diverse population
- Meet the constitutional principal of “one person, one vote” so you can vote for the supervisor of your choice

Board of Supervisors should be responsive to the preferences and needs of residents:

- Public policies to improve lives
- Services provided and resources in your community (e.g., public health and public medical centers, tax assessments, public social services, sheriff, municipal services to unincorporated areas and contract cities...and many other public services)

We want a transparent and inclusive process. Have your voice heard by:

- Attending our regular meetings
- Sharing your thoughts at our Public Forums and Public Hearings
- Submitting written public comments
- Preparing and submitting maps for consideration
- Letting others know about redistricting
