

Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission

Final Report

December 15, 2021

Revised
December 30, 2021

December 15, 2021

On behalf of the inaugural County of Los Angeles Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC), our staff, and the many people and organizations who took part in this process, we are pleased to present our final report on the 2021 Los Angeles County supervisorial redistricting process and maps.

We are the first redistricting body to draw new supervisorial district maps for Los Angeles County in a process that is completely independent of the Board of Supervisors (BOS). As such, the 14 members of the CRC were selected without input from the BOS. Our final map cannot be altered or rejected by the elected Supervisors. The Commission reflects a fair representation of the County's demographic diversity, based on race, ethnicity, gender, age, and political party. There were multiple Commissioners from each of the existing supervisorial districts and we reasonably represented most areas of our vast County. Despite our varying backgrounds, the Commissioners were united in our commitment to serve the County's population as we began our collective journey on January 13, 2021.

Among our first orders of business were to adopt bylaws and core values by which to govern ourselves. We created Ad Hoc Working Groups to focus on key issues, which evolved and changed as we dove deeper into the redistricting process. Our early efforts focused on public outreach and education for ourselves and the communities. We provided numerous presentations to a variety of organizations. We also relied on the expertise of Commission-selected consultants in key critical areas, such as the Federal Voting Rights Act and demography.

Limited by the impact of COVID-19, our meetings and hearings were held virtually on Zoom and recorded for on-demand playback on YouTube. To try to bridge the digital divide, we also held in-person public hearings in every supervisorial district to gather testimony directly from residents of the County, making those hearings also available online in a hybrid manner. We also held a public hearing in the Spanish language, a first of its kind for the County.

Our accountability to the 10 million residents of Los Angeles County is to create maps that allow them to have fair representation and increase the likelihood that their needs would be recognized and addressed by their elected County representatives. Because the LA County CRC could draw only five districts with approximately two million residents each, this process was not easy. In conducting our work, the Commission leaned on its values of inclusion and equity while pursuing our mission with transparency and integrity.

We believe that as a Commission, we have done our best to address important but often conflicting public input. There were tradeoffs that had to be made, and we approached those tradeoffs judiciously. Any tweak to a proposed District had an impact on another part of the County. Fashioning a map that has to take into consideration the needs of 88 cities, 122 unincorporated communities, more than 100 Los Angeles City neighborhoods, and dozens of Communities of Interest (COIs) identified during public hearings was truly daunting. But it also presented a unique opportunity and challenge that this independent Commission relished.

As with any complex journey of this magnitude, we experienced serious and unanticipated issues along the way. The long delay of the release by the U.S. Bureau of the Census of its 2020 census data, issues with the mapping software, and other challenges required the Commission to be nimble. These challenges significantly truncated our timeline for developing maps.

We thank the Commissioners and staff for their dedication and willingness to meet almost daily in the final two weeks to complete our mission by the December 15, 2021, statutory deadline.

We hereby submit the Commission's final map and accompanying final report documenting in detail this unique endeavor. It has been a great privilege for us to serve as Co-Chairs of this first-ever County of Los Angeles Citizens Redistricting Commission.

Sincerely,

A.1 – OVERVIEW

In 2016, the California Legislature passed Senate Bill 958,[1] requiring the County of Los Angeles to assemble the Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC) following the 2020 Federal Census. The LA County CRC's role is to establish the boundary lines of five single-member Supervisorial Districts (SDs) of the County of Los Angeles Board of Supervisors (BOS), following each Federal decennial Census.

The LA County CRC is to be independent from the influence of the BOS and reasonably representative of the County's diversity. As an independent commission, the LA County CRC's approved map is the final map and cannot be redrawn by the BOS.

This Final Report is pursuant to Elections Code Section 21534, subdivision (d) (4. This report is divided into three parts:

- Part A (this part) – provides an executive summary, presents the final supervisorial map, and shares lessons learned for future LA County CRCs
- Part B: Year in Review – documents the process, starting with the formation of the LA County CRC and how it was organized. It outlines public outreach efforts, community of interest (COI) Public Hearings during the summer, the mapping database and software, selection of mapping options for Public Hearings, and Public Hearings on the map options that led to the adoption of the final map.
- Part C: Appendices – presents additional background information and reports on the process, such as LA County CRC-approved documents (e.g., Public Outreach Plan, calendar); racially polarized voter (RPV) analysis performed; lists of the Census tracks and blocks assigned to each SD; and assigned staff support.

REDISTRICTING CONTEXT

Los Angeles County is the most populous county in the United States with a population greater than 10 million people. It is home to 25% of California's population and has a population greater than 41 individual U.S. states. It is the largest non-state level government entity in the United States, and the third largest metropolitan economy in the world. It covers 4,000 square miles and consists of 88 cities and 122 unincorporated areas that include 10% of the County's population. The City of Los Angeles alone has 4 million people and is divided into 35 planning areas, 99 Neighborhood Councils, and 15 City Council Districts.

California is one of eight states that uses a non-partisan approach to redistricting. The California Citizens Redistricting Commission (California CRC) proved this approach could work in 2011 and implemented it again in 2021. The County of Los Angeles is one of at least 10 local jurisdictions in California using this approach for the first time in 2021 and is the largest county in the nation to adopt this independent approach at the local level. Thus, the LA County CRC's approach can serve as a model for other local and state jurisdictions in the coming years.

Population shifts over time may result in unequal district populations. Therefore, every 10 years, the district lines must be redrawn to make each SD reasonably even in population again, based on the latest Census data. In Los Angeles County for 2021, this requirement translates into about 2 million people per SD. Drawing the boundaries is called "redistricting."

CHALLENGES

The difficulties and growing pains that come with 2021 being the first year a LA County CRC was created were only compounded by further challenges of historic proportion.

2020 Census Data Delays

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the U.S. Bureau of the Census (U.S. Census Bureau) conducted the 2020 Census online for the first time in U.S. history and could not conduct the usual in-person follow-up surveys to capture the current population count more accurately. Moreover, the COVID-19 pandemic caused the U.S. Census Bureau to extend the deadline to complete the Census survey to October 2020, which affected its timeline for delivering the Census data.

In December 2020, the U.S. Census Bureau reported that it would "…continue to process the data collected and plan to deliver a complete and accurate state population count for apportionment in early 2021, as close to the statutory deadline as possible."[2] The U.S. Census Bureau added the caveats that the reporting schedule was not "static" and that "projected dates [were] fluid."

The U.S. Census Bureau did not release the 2020 Census data until August 2021, however. The late arrival of the Census data delayed much of the work of the LA County CRC, including delays with inputting the data into the County of Los Angeles software program. The County of Los Angeles finally uploaded this Census data into the mapping software so that the LA County CRC could train the public on the software and so the public could submit preliminary draft maps in August 2021.

California Census Data Adjustments for In-State Incarcerated Individuals

Another first was the implementation of a new statute (Elec. Code § 21003) that requires Census data be adjusted for the in-state incarcerated population. Specifically, if incarcerated individuals were in-state residents before incarceration, they are to be counted based on their last known place of residence, and not in the location of their incarceration. The State did not release that adjustment – referred to as the Public Law (P.L) Census data – until September 20, 2021. In a typical decennial redistricting cycle, such data would have been released no later than 90 days following the release of the Census data, which is July 1 in a year in which the Census data is released on April 1. The deferred release, more than 11 weeks late, caused further delays in drafting potential redistricting maps.

Elections Code sections 21534, subdivision (d)(1) and 21508, subdivision (d)(3) required the LA County CRC to wait a minimum of one week after the Public Law Census data was released before it could release its own draft maps. Because of the delay in the release of the Census data, described next, this wait period was not possible.

Mapping Software

Another first was the use of more user-friendly mapping software that was cloud-based and accessible electronically using a browser. This software allowed users to simply create a username and password and have access to both the free software and datasets required for redistricting purposes. A decade ago, this technology was not possible. Users would have had to have larger computers that could handle downloading the redistricting software and large data files. Typically, they would have had to have a background in Geographic Information Systems (GIS).

Instead, the cloud-based software permitted many more interested members of the public to participate in LA County CRC training workshops, view online training videos, and build their own redistricting maps without the need for sophisticated software or hardware. In total, 113 maps were submitted as of December 11, 2021, when the LA County CRC selected their Final Map, pending Formal Resolution.

The LA County CRC identified refinements and upgrades needed to the mapping software. By the time the Public Law Census data was uploaded into the upgraded software, the launch date of the official mapping software with the official datasets for redistricting purposes was October 7, 2021, leaving little time before the final map had to be submitted by December 15, 2021.

COVID-19 Pandemic

The LA County CRC also had to perform its mission in the midst of the worst health pandemic in a century. On December 11, 2020, when the LA County CRC was being formed, Los Angeles County reported 20,671 cases in the prior 7 days. Residents were on edge about the potential spread of COVID-19.

Therefore, the COVID-19 pandemic required that the majority of LA County CRC meetings and Public Hearings be held virtually (i.e., access via the "Zoom"[3] webinar program). The LA County CRC held 56 meetings virtually, including 5 in a hybrid format where the public could attend either in person or virtually. Both the virtual and hybrid formats were "firsts" for any commission in County of Los Angeles history.

Exacerbating the challenges was that a number of the Commissioners, staff, and their family members contracted COVID-19. Moreover, the Commissioners had limited opportunities to interact with each other in person – an important factor in building working relationships and working efficiently.

Despite these challenges, the Commissioners soldiered on, working overtime with staff, and were able to meet their deadlines.

Commissioner Workload

When the Commissioners applied to serve on the LA County CRC, they anticipated a 6-month process with possibly meeting twice a month. In addition to their career and family obligations, and stress associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, these dedicated Commissioners embarked on a 12-month process with many more meetings and Public Hearings than anticipated.

For example, between November 1, 2021, and December 12, 2021, approximately 1,676 individuals attended the 14 meetings/Public Hearings held via webinar while another 1,587 watched the Public Hearings and meetings on YouTube[4], for a total of 3,263 viewers. The Commissioners and staff listened to 599 members of the public make oral presentations and reviewed 3,800 written comments submitted during that same period.

Time Periods for Public Input and LA County CRC Deliberations

Based on the delay in the release of the Public Law 2020 Census data, both the public and the LA County CRC had a truncated timeline to submit and review official maps, using that official data. Despite the shortened timeline, the public submitted 31 official maps between October 7, 2021, and October 28, 2021. The LA County CRC identified four map options for the initial Public Hearings by October 28, 2021.

The public continued to submit maps and refinements to the map options during the Public Hearings that started on November 7, 2021. Before the final map was adopted, the LA County CRC had reviewed 113 maps and promoted 18 maps for public input at Public Hearings and subsequent regular and special meetings.

Finally, the LA County CRC had a short timeframe after the last Public Hearing on December 7, 2021, to submit the final map by December 15, 2021.

Public Interest in County Supervisorial Redistricting Overshadowed by Other Redistricting Efforts

The level of public engagement was not as robust as desired. Residents were confused by redistricting efforts being conducted by various jurisdictions. Within Los Angeles County during 2021, there were four major, concurrent redistricting commissions operating: the City of Los Angeles, Los Angeles Unified School District, the City of Long Beach, and the BOS. Simultaneously, the California CRC was focused on its statewide redistricting efforts, which included drawing districts within Los Angeles County for the U.S. Congress, California State Senate, and California State Assembly. Simultaneously, other smaller cities in Los Angeles County (e.g., Bellflower and Downey) were performing their own redistricting.

As a result, residents who were aware of the importance of redistricting had to set priorities regarding on which redistricting process to focus. In addition, the LA County CRC routinely received comments meant for the City of Los Angeles redistricting boundaries for the City Council Districts. Staff took the time to help redirect such members of the public to the right venue so they could make their voices heard.

Despite the importance of the SDs to the residents of Los Angeles County, supervisorial redistricting often took second place to local City Council Districts. Specific community-based organizations (CBOs) were intimately involved throughout the process. Their staff and stakeholders attended meetings, gave public testimony, and monitored the work of the LA County CRC to ensure transparency. Some also submitted maps.

The non-independent commissions garnered significant media attention because of some of the controversial steps in their process. For example, the City of Los Angeles redistricting efforts were performed by an advisory and non-independent commission. This commission had high turnover, received considerable public input (and outrage), and became even more politicized when the Los Angeles City Council rejected the commission's maps and decided to appoint its own ad hoc redistricting committee to redraw the Los Angeles City Council Districts, which they approved on December 8, 2021.

In light of that media attention, the LA County CRC was not in the limelight, but nevertheless conducted its work in a transparent way. Moreover, the LA County CRC worked hard to ensure the lines were drawn to keep COIs together.

MAJOR COMMISSIONER WORK EFFORTS

Public Engagement Process

Despite these challenges, extensive public input led to the adoption of the Final Map. The unpaid Commissioners devoted hundreds of hours to the redistricting efforts, which entailed:

- 56 regular and special meetings and Commissioner workshops, including 16 Public Hearings and 1 press conference (see website for meetings)[5]
- 9 Ad Hoc Working Groups working on various issues, involving public outreach, Bylaws and values development, and selection of a replacement Commissioner (see Part B, Chapter B.2 that describes the Ad Hoc Working Groups' charters and memberships)
- 12 COI Public Hearings, exceeding the minimum of 7 required COI Public Hearings by more than 60%
- 4 Public Hearings to review map options, doubling the minimum of the 2 statutorily required Public Hearings (does not include time preparing and reviewing public input for the Public Hearings)
- Dozens of workshops and presentations made
- Hundreds of pages of written public comment read, including:
    - Many hours of public oral comments from LA County CRC meetings
    - Thousands of written public comments, emails, and letters submitted throughout the year on agenda items or as general comments
    - Formal written letters from CBOs, Chambers of Commerce, governments (e.g., city councils, Councils of Governments (COGs)), and others
- Review of 113 Official District Draft Maps submitted after October 28th, 2021, and using the datasets uploaded to the mapping software with the official Public Law Census datasets

COI Maps

A COI is a contiguous population that shares common social and economic interests that should be included within a single district for purposes of its effective and fair representation. COIs shall not include relationships with political parties, incumbents, or political candidates.

After completing 12 COI Public Hearings between June and September 2021, the LA County CRC developed three different maps that displayed COIs, based on public input to date. These COI map models were an effort to codify the major communities described during the 12 Public Hearings. Because the LA County CRC received conflicting viewpoints at times, three COI models were necessary. Appendix C.6 contains more details about the process for developing these COI models.

Community of Interest (COI) Groupings: Models A, B, C

COI Model A: Presented on 10/13/21

COI Model B: Developed on 10/18/21

COI Model C: Developed on 10/18/21

These COI models were useful reference tools as the LA County CRC began to consider draft SD maps and make the final SD map selection.

Subject Matter Experts and Staff Resources

KH Consulting Group (KH) was retained to provide support services for the LA County CRC, including an Executive Director, GIS/Technical support, media strategy, and contracting services for demographer, mapping, and RPV analysis.

The LA County CRC selected subcontractors for KH to retain to provide the following services:

- Subject matter experts in the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (VRA) and RPV analysis
- ARCBridge to provide mapping and demography services

The final SD map is described next in Chapter A.3.

A.2 – U.S. CENSUS DATA AND COUNTY TRENDS

As already discussed in Chapter A.1, the nation experienced significant delays in the delivery of the 2020 Census data because of the COVID-19 pandemic. The LA County CRC had two sets of U.S. Census data to work with:

- Unadjusted Census data, based on Federal Public Law 94-171
- Adjusted Census data, based on California's new statute (Elec. Code § 21003) that affected 2020 Census data, discussed later

2020 AND 2010 UNADJUSTED CENSUS DATA COMPARISONS

This section compares the unadjusted Census data for 2020 with 2010. There was no requirement to adjust the 2010 Census data for in-state incarcerated individuals as there was for the 2020 Census data. Therefore, unadjusted Census data were used for making consistent comparisons in this section of the Final Report.

Table A.2-1 presents the County's unadjusted Total Population, Voter Age Population (VAP) who are 18 years and over, and Citizen Voter Age Population (CVAP), by race and ethnicity, for 2020 and 2010.

- Unadjusted Total Population. Overall, the County's unadjusted Total Population increased slightly – almost 2% or 196,641 residents.
    - Latinos represent the largest segment of the Total Population (47.98% or 4.80 million).
    - The next larger segments of the Total Population are Non-Hispanic White (25.60% or 2.56 million) and Asian (14.72% or 1.47 million).
- Unadjusted VAP. The VAP increased proportionately at a higher rate – 6.84% or 544,455 residents. VAP increased from 75.5% in 2010 to 79.5% in 2020. This difference indicates a slightly older population in 2020.
    - The Latino VAP percent increased as a percent of the total VAP population – from 43.14% or 3.19 million to 44.76% or 3.56 million.
    - The next largest VAP populations are Non-Hispanic White (27.96% or 2.23 million) and Asian (15.82% or 1.26 million) in 2020.
- Unadjusted CVAP. CVAP is based on the American Community Survey (ACS) and lacks the granularity of the Total Population and VAP data. The CVAP increased at an even higher rate – 14.41% or 897,490 residents.

- The number of Latino CVAP residents increased – from 33.37% or 1.78 million to 39.37% or 2.45 million.
- The next larger CVAP segments are Non-Hispanic White (34.42% or 2.14 million) and Asian (15.77% or .98 million).

The light green boxes in Table A.2-1 identify positive growth areas.

- Asian (148,790 or 10.09%) and Mixed Race (118,156 or 37.74%) increased the most in terms of Total Population.
- Latino Total Population, VAP, and CVAP increased the most in terms of numbers:
  - 116,953 (2.43%) for Total population
  - 363,395 (10.20%) for VAP
  - 673,378 (27.46%) for CVAP
- Asian VAP and CVAP also experienced noteworthy increases:
  - 162,104 (12.87%) for VAP
  - 262,999 (26.79%) for CVAP

2020 ADJUSTED CENSUS DATA

As also discussed in Chapter A.1, the State of California passed a new statute (Elec. Code § 21003) that requires Census data be adjusted for the in-state incarcerated population. This dataset is different from the data that the U.S. Census Bureau provides in that it has reallocated data from incarcerated persons that were enumerated in facilities under the control of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to their last known residential address. This dataset is released on 2020 Census Block Geography and referred to as the Adjusted Redistricting Data.

[11] Sources: 2020 CVAP data obtained from the 2015-2019 American Community Survey (ACS); 2010 CVAP data obtained from the California Statewide database. Data only available for Latino, White, Black, and Asian.

The Adjusted Redistricting Data are a tabulation from the decennial census that includes counts at the census block level of:

- Population by race and ethnicity (Latino or Latino origin)
- Voting Age Population
- Housing occupancy status
- Group quarters population

The California Citizens Redistricting Commission and many local jurisdictions, including the County of Los Angeles, are required by law to use the official Adjusted Redistricting Data, provided by the Statewide Database.

Adjusted Total Population, By Race and Ethnicity

As shown in Table A.2-2, in Los Angeles County, the population change is slight as a result of the Adjusted Redistricting Data. Total population increased by 33,917 after adjustment, which is 0.34% more than the unadjusted Total Population from the U.S. Census Bureau. Specific groups that had larger increases in Total Population, based on the largest increase in number of residents, are:

- 113,855 Asians (an increase of 7.17%)
- 62,142 Black (an increase of 7.55%)
- 39,776 Other (an increase of 40.40%)
- 30,806 Native American (an increase of 62.54%)
- 16,940 Latino (an increase of 0.35%, which is comparable to the overall average increase)
- 5,117 Hawaii/Pacific Islander (an increase of 19.96%)

Adjusted VAP, By Race and Ethnicity

As shown in Table A.2-3, in Los Angeles County, VAP increased by 33,922 or 0.42% after adjustment. This increase in VAP is comparable to the increase of the Total Population.

The Latino VAP changed little – from 3.56 million to 3.58 million or .47%. Races and ethnic groups affected the most in terms of the impact on VAP were:

- 69,166 Asians (an increase of 5.21%)
- 46,332 Black (an increase of 6.95%)
- 31,763 Other (an increase of 43.09%)
- 26,446 Native Americans (an increase of 63.13%)

One race/ethnicity group experienced a decrease in VAP; Mixed Race decreased by 162,832 – from 217,824 to 54,992.

Adjusted Total Population and VAP, by City

Given that each supervisorial district is approximately 2 million residents, the Adjusted Redistricting Data for 2020 had a minor impact on the overall final map and little impact on most cities and unincorporated areas.

Adjusted Total Population Impact

The impact of the adjustment on Total Population was minor – 0.34% increase overall or 33,917 additions to an adjusted Total Population of 10 million. Cities' populations of 9 million increased by 0.33% increase and unincorporated areas' populations of 1 million increased by 0.41%.

Table A.2-4 displays the cities with the greatest impact on their adjusted populations; highlights are.

- City of Los Angeles had the biggest impact – an addition of 13,368 out of a Total Population of approximately 3.9 million. City of Long Beach had an increase of 2,152. Together, the City of Los Angeles and City of Long Beach accounted for 45.7% of all adjustments.
- The other cities had little change – 91% had fewer than 499 residents added, as displayed in Table A.2-5; for example, 18 cities (20.5% of the 88 cities) had adjustments between 250 and 499 residents, for a total of 6,457 residents or an average addition of 359 residents per city.
- The City of Lancaster had a negative loss of 2,028 residents. Its dip in population is likely attributed to the State Prison that is located within the City of Lancaster; those prisoners would have been redistributed to each of their last known residential addresses – some within other parts of Los Angeles County or the State.
- The 122 unincorporated areas gained 4,170 residents with the Adjusted Redistricting Data – an average of 34 residents per unincorporated area.

Adjusted VAP Impact

The impact on the adjustment of VAP was minor and reflected the impact of the adjustments on the Total Population. Overall, the County had an increase of 0.43% or 33,922 additions on an adjusted VAP population of a little more than 7 million. Cities' VAP increased by 0.33% or 29,748; unincorporated areas' VAP increased by 0.53% or by 4,174.

Seven of the 88 cities had VAP increases greater than 500 and accounted for 65% of the VAP increases, as displayed in Table A.2-6:

Table A.2-6: Cities with the Greatest Impact with Adjusted and Unadjusted VAP: Greater than 500 VAP

Cities With >500 VAP Increases	VAP

Pasadena	116,019	116,574	555	0.48%

The other 81 cities had little change – 45% had fewer than 499 residents added; 37 cities added less than 100 VAP each.

The City of Lancaster had a negative loss of 2,028 VAP, which matched its negative loss in Total Population. This loss was -1.6% and, again, likely attributed to the State Prison that is located within the City of Lancaster.

Overall Summary of Impact on Total Population and VAP

Adjusted Census Tract Impact

Table A.2-8 displays the Census Tracts with large population changes after adjustment in the order of percent difference. All of the Census Tracts lost population after the adjustment. The possible reason could be caused by the prison population reallocated to other locations.

A.3 – FINAL SUPERVISORIAL DISTRICT MAP

The Commission adopted its final map on December 15, 2021, by Resolution No. 21-04. The final map had to provide for five Supervisorial Districts (SDs), reasonably equal in size or about 2 million people per SD. The Commission had no authority to change the number of SDs. Any such change would require voter approval in the future.

REDISTRICTING CRITERIA

This chapter explains how the Commission achieved compliance with the criteria specified in Elections Code section 21534, subdivisions (a) and (b). The LA County CRC used the following criteria in order of priority:

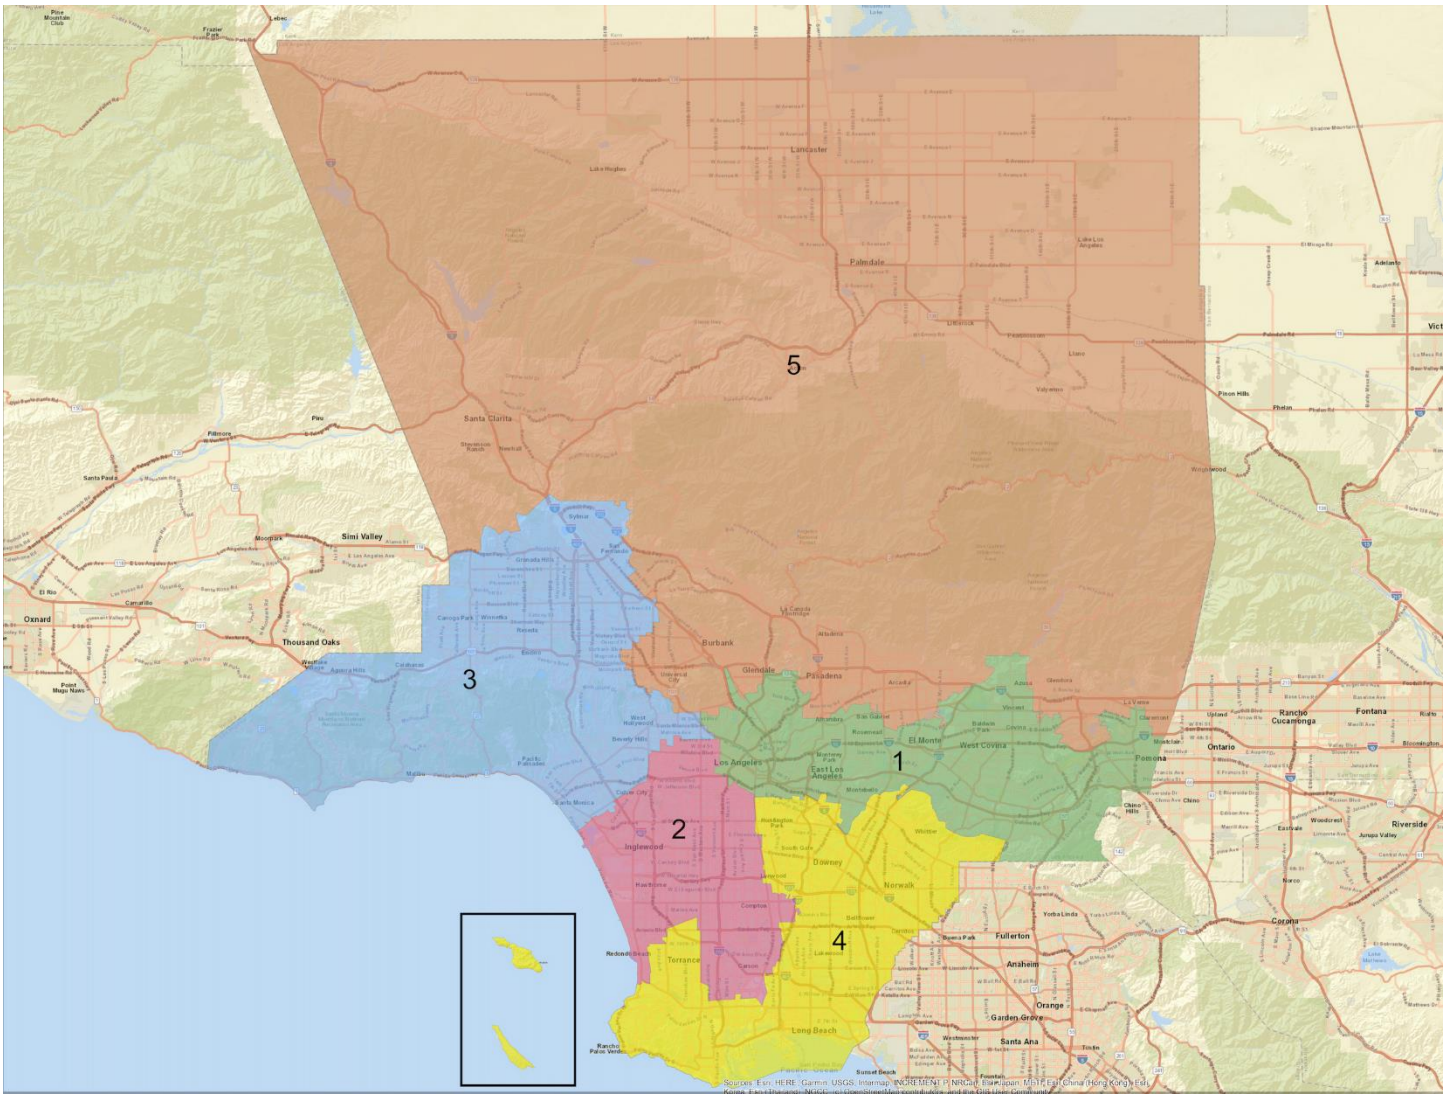

1. Districts shall comply with the United States Constitution and each district shall have a reasonably equal total population with other districts except where deviation is required to comply with the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965.
2. Districts shall comply with the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 (52 U.S.C. § 10101 et seq.).
3. Districts shall be geographically contiguous.
4. The geographic integrity of any city, local neighborhood, or local community of interest shall be respected in a manner that minimizes its division to the extent possible without violating the requirements of paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive. A community of interest is a contiguous population that shares common social and economic interests that should be included within a single district for purposes of its effective and fair representation. Communities of interest shall not include relationships with political parties, incumbents, or political candidates.
5. To the extent practicable, and where it does not conflict with paragraphs (1) to (4), districts shall be drawn to encourage geographical compactness such that nearby areas of population are not bypassed for more distant areas of population.

Additionally, the place of residence of any incumbent or political candidate shall not be considered in the creation of a map. And districts shall not be drawn for purposes of favoring or discriminating against an incumbent, political candidate, or political party.

FINAL MAP

The map is based on the GIS shapefile approved by the Commission, which can be found on the Commission's website at https://redistricting.lacounty.gov/final_map_and_submissions/.

NOTE: If there are any discrepancies between the GIS shapefile approved by the Commission and this Report, the GIS shapefile controls.

Reasonably Equal Population

The LA County CRC established five SDs reasonably equal in Total Population, with a total deviation between the highest and lowest population districts of 9.32% (maximum deviation). Table A.3-1 displays the deviation, by SD.

Constitutional and VRA Compliance

Before drawing any maps, the Commission retained experts to conduct an analysis of racially polarized voting in County of Los Angeles supervisorial elections. In summary, the analysis revealed no legally cognizable racially polarized voting in supervisorial elections. The full report of such analysis is included in Appendix C.9

Additionally, the Commissioner's VRA subject matter expert analyzed the final map, including SD1, and concluded it complied with constitutional requirements and did not violate the VRA. The full report of such analysis is included in Appendix C.10.

Geographic Contiguity

All five SDs are geographically contiguous. No territory is interrupted by other land or water, except for Santa Catalina Island and San Clemente Island in SD 4. Santa Catalina is connected to Los Angeles County by ferry lines via San Pedro and Long Beach, both of which are in SD 4. San Clemente Island is owned and operated by the United States Navy and public access is restricted as a result. From its station on Santa Catalina Island, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department provides law enforcement services to San Clemente Island. Based on this connection, San Clemente is included in the same SD as Santa Catalina Island.

Geographic Integrity of Communities of Interest

Geographic Units Used

As elaborated on further in Part B, Chapter B.5, the LA County CRC used two geographic devices to minimize the splitting of cities and unincorporated areas.

Countywide Statistical Areas (CSAs). The Countywide Statistical Areas (CSA)[15] project was developed to provide a common geographic boundary for reporting departmental statistics for cities and unincorporated areas. The City of Los Angeles' neighborhoods were identified by the City of Los Angeles Bureau of Engineering. CSAs differ from the more informal "Community" geographies because:

- They represent geographies comprised of Census block groups split by cities.
- They must cover the entire unincorporated and incorporated areas of Los Angeles County.
- There can be no holes or overlapping areas.

The CSAs originally were created using Census Block Groups split by cities (e.g., "Split Block Groups") as a geographic building block. A full listing of the 348 CSAs[16] is posted on the LA County CRC website. They include the 87 cities, 139 CSAs within the City of Los Angeles,[17] and the 122 unincorporated areas.

Redistricting Data Units (RDUs). The County developed and used RDUs for redistricting to:

- Reflect the administrative and governmental jurisdictions within the County
- Align with U.S. Census Bureau geographies, which is required to provide population figures for the redistricting process
- Bring clarity to city and unincorporated area boundaries

RDUs[18] are primarily census tracts, split along city boundaries, from which data have been compiled for use in the redistricting software.

The tract, block group, block, and RDU geographies are nested. The totals for each level of geography add up to the Total Population of the County.

Census data Levels	Actual	Rounded
Blocks	91,626	92,000
Block Groups	6,591	6,600
Tracts	2,498	2,500
RDU at Block Group level with CSAs	7,029	7,000
RDU at Tract Level with CSAs	2,957	3,000
CSAs	348	350

Split CSAs and Neighborhood Councils in Los Angeles City

Throughout the process, the Commission worked to minimize splitting communities of interest in the final map. The SD map drafted in 2011 split 25 CSAs, or about 7% of the 348 CSAs in the County and split 25 of the 99 neighborhood councils. The final adopted map improves over the base map and reduces the CSA splits to 11, or about 3% of all CSAs, and splits 17 Neighborhood Councils, as displayed in Table A.3-7.

Table A.3-7: Number of Split Cities/CSAs and LA City Neighborhood Councils

Splits	County Statistical Areas (CSAs)		Los Angeles City Neighborhood Councils (NCs)
	Number	Percent	Number	Percent
Total Number	348		99
Number Split in 2011	25	7%	25	25%
Number Split in 2021	11	3%	17	17%

The Commission could not avoid splitting the City of Los Angeles, which contains a population of about 4 million, too many to include in one SD. As a result, the Commission placed the City of Los Angeles in multiple SDs, based on public testimony regarding communities of interest (COIs) and other factors including, but not limited to, geographic, demographic, socio-economic, cultural, and environmental factors to list but a few. CSAs within the City of Los Angeles that are split are described later, by SD.

The LA County CRC also evaluated the Final Map option against the COIs identified during the 12 COI Public Hearings held, described further in Part B, Chapter B.4. Because of conflicting viewpoints presented by the public during the Public Hearings, the Commissioners developed three COI models. In all three COI models, the 2021 Final Map outperforms the 2011 SD map, as displayed in Table A.3-8.

Table A.3-8: Number of Split Cities/CSAs, LA City Neighborhood Councils, and COIs

COI Alignment	COI Model A		COI Model B		COI Model C
	Number	Percent	Number	Percent	Number	Percent
Total Number of COIs	27		27		27
2011 Not Aligned with COI Model	13	48%	11	41%	13	48%
2021 Not Aligned with COI Model	9	33%	8	30%	10	37%

Geographic Compactness

Of the five criteria enumerated in Elections Code section 21534, subdivision (a), geographic compactness has the lowest priority. Geographic compactness is to be achieved "to the extent practicable" where it does not conflict with the first four criteria.

The Commission's demographer evaluated submitted maps using the Polsby-Popper Compactness Score. The Polsby–Popper test is a widely used mathematical compactness measure of a geographic shape that measures the degree of compactness – or gerrymandering – of districts. A district's Polsby–Popper score will always fall within 0 to 1, with a score of 0 indicating complete lack of compactness and a score of 1 indicating maximum compactness. The supervisorial map drafted in 2011 had three SDs with a score of at least .2. The Commission's adopted map has three SDs with a score of at least .3 (SD 2, SD 3, and SD 5).

The Final Map achieves such compactness by not bypassing nearby populations to reach more distant areas of population, except where doing so conflicted with other, higher-priority criteria.

Incumbents/Candidates/Political Parties

The Commission did not consider the residence of any incumbent or candidate in drawing SD 1. Nor did it draw any SDs for purposes of discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party. For example, the Commission was not presented with any data regarding the political affiliation of registered voters in any proposed SD. Similarly, the Commission neither asked for nor was presented with any maps depicting the residences of incumbents or candidates. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss the residences of incumbents other than to note that such consideration was prohibited by the Elections Code. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party other than to note that the Elections Code prohibited such considerations in drafting the map.

Constitutional and VRA Compliance

Before drawing any maps, the Commission retained experts to conduct an analysis of racially polarized voting in County of Los Angeles supervisorial elections. In summary, the analysis revealed no legally cognizable racially polarized voting in supervisorial elections. The full report of such analysis is included in Appendix C.9

Additionally, the Commissioner's VRA subject matter expert analyzed the final map, including SD1, and concluded it complied with constitutional requirements and did not violate the VRA. The full report of such analysis is included in Appendix C.10.

Geographic Contiguity

SD 1 is geographically contiguous as its territory is not interrupted by other land or water.

Note: The only RDU split is RDU0529, which is split in SD 1 and SD 3. It has 2 blocks in Census tract 190510 – Block number 1000 and 1003. The area is bounded by N. Serrano Avenue on the right, West Sunset Boulevard on the south, North Western Avenue on the left, and Hollywood Boulevard on the north.

That portion of the City of La Verne south of Bonita Avenue, which is nearest to and most impacted by the Fairplex, was assigned to SD 1 to keep it with the remainder of the Fairplex complex in a single SD. The reason for the split was based on the public's input that one supervisor should represent the Fairplex. The portion of the City of La Verne was added because of traffic problems affecting the nearby residences and businesses. In this way, a single supervisor could address those concerns as well.

Almost all of the Hollywood neighborhood in the City of Los Angeles is in SD 3, with only a small portion of the neighborhood on its eastern border that is part of historic Thai Town placed in SD 1 to keep historic Thai Town mostly whole.

The Los Angeles neighborhood of Pico-Union was split to keep two RDUs that are part of historic Koreatown in SD 2 to keep Koreatown whole. The portion that is north of West Pico Boulevard and west of South Hoover Street is assigned to SD 2. The remainder of Pico-Union is assigned to SD 1.

Unincorporated Northeast San Gabriel is actually two discontiguous areas labeled as Northeast San Gabriel North and Northeast San Gabriel South. That portion known as Northeast San Gabriel North is adjacent to San Marino, East Pasadena, Arcadia, and Temple City, all of which are in SD 5. For that reason, Northeast San Gabriel North is placed with them in SD 5. That portion known as Northeast San Gabriel South is placed in SD 1 with San Gabriel and Rosemead, its neighbors to the south and east.

The City of Whittier, assigned to SD 4, owns a portion of the Whittier Narrows, which is not contiguous with the City of Whittier or within its corporate boundaries. This Whittier Narrows area is assigned to SD 1 to keep it whole with the remainder of the Whitter Narrows complex in SD 1.

Geographic Compactness

SD 1 achieves compactness by not bypassing nearby populations to reach more distant areas of population.

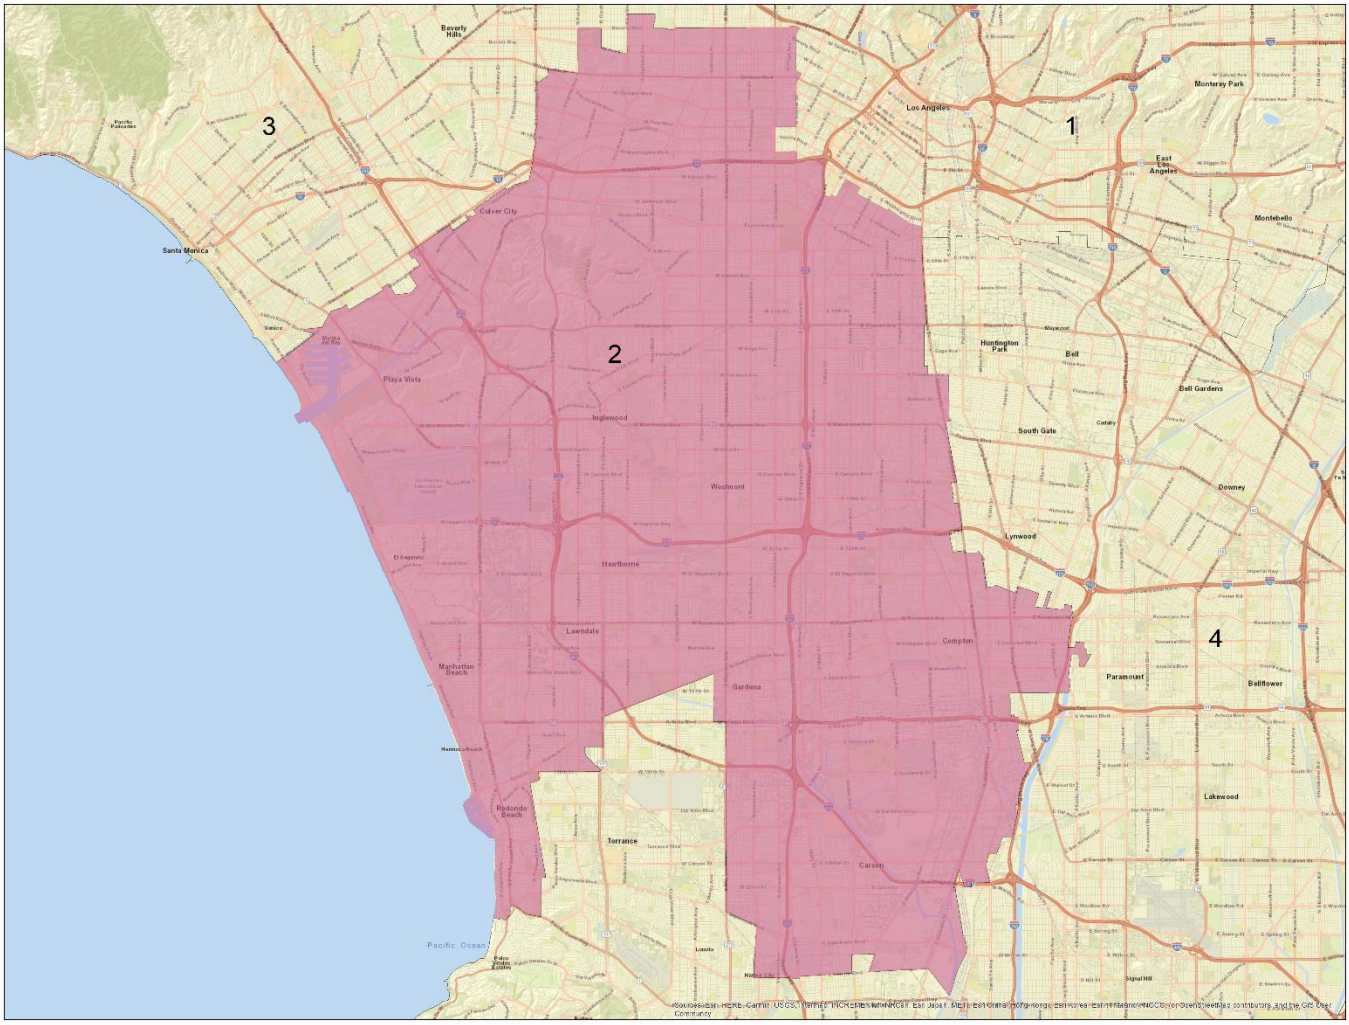

Incumbents/Candidates/Political Parties

The Commission did not consider the residence of any incumbent or candidate in drawing SD 1. Nor did it draw SD 1 for purposes of discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party. For example, the Commission was not presented with any data regarding the political affiliation of registered voters in any proposed SD. Similarly, the Commission neither asked for nor was presented with any maps depicting the residences of incumbents or candidates. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss the residences of incumbents other than to note that such consideration was prohibited by the Elections Code. The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Pico-Union was split to keep two RDUs that are part of historic Koreatown in SD 2 to keep historic Koreatown whole. The portion that is north of West Pico Boulevard and west of South Hoover Street is assigned to SD 2. The remainder of Pico-Union is assigned to SD 1.

The initial Map F, submitted by the People's Bloc, included the Los Angeles County Museum of Art as part of SD 2. Considerable public testimony was provided in support of the northern extension of SD 2. As a result:

- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Crestview was divided along La Cienega Boulevard. The portion east of La Cienega was assigned to SD 2 and the part west of La Cienega was assigned to SD 3.
- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of South Carthay was divided along La Cienega Boulevard. The portion east of La Cienega was assigned to SD 2 and the part west of La Cienega was assigned to SD 3.

The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Venice was divided so that the southeastern portion of the neighborhood nearest the Ballona Wetlands was kept whole with the Ballona Wetlands area in SD 2. The remaining portion of Venice was assigned to SD 3 to remain with its neighboring beach city to the north, Santa Monica.

Geographic Compactness

Incumbents/Candidates/Political Parties

The Commission did not consider the residence of any incumbent or candidate in drawing SD 2. Nor did it draw SD 2 for purposes of discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party. For example, the Commission was not presented with any data regarding the political affiliation of registered voters in any proposed SD. Similarly, the Commission neither asked for nor was presented with any maps depicting the residences of incumbents or candidates. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss the residences of incumbents other than to note that such consideration was prohibited by the Elections Code. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party other than to note that the Elections Code prohibited such considerations in drafting the map.

Splits Less than 5%
Los Angeles - Hollywood	3	>95%	1	<5%
Los Angeles - Sherman Oaks[19]	3	>95%	5	<5%

Note: The only RDU split is RDU0529, which is split in SD 1 and SD 3. It has 2 blocks in Census tract 190510 – Block number 1000 and 1003. The area is bounded by N. Serrano Avenue on the right, West Sunset Boulevard on the south, North Western Avenue on the left, and Hollywood Boulevard on the north.

The initial Map F, submitted by the People's Bloc, included the Los Angeles County Museum of Art as part of SD 2. Considerable public testimony was provided in support of the northern extension of SD 2. As a result:

- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Crestview was divided along La Cienega Boulevard. The portion east of La Cienega was assigned to SD 2 and the part west of La Cienega was assigned to SD 3.
- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of South Carthay was divided along La Cienega Boulevard. The portion east of La Cienega was assigned to SD 2 and the part west of La Cienega was assigned to SD 3.

Almost all of the Hollywood neighborhood in the City of Los Angeles is in SD 3, with only a small portion of the neighborhood on its eastern border that is part of historic Thai Town placed in SD 1 to keep historic Thai Town mostly whole.

The Commissioners evaluated various economic "engines" within proposed districts when evaluating map options. An outgrowth of that discussion was an interest in grouping communities with significant entertainment industry activity together so that more of the entertainment industry could be combined into a supervisorial district. In creating such a district, the following geographic alignments were made:

- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Hollywood Hills was divided along the Mulholland Drive and Outpost Drive. The area southwest of Mulholland Drive and west of Outpost Drive is assigned to SD 3. The area east of Mulholland Drive and Outpost Drive is assigned to SD 5 alongside neighboring Universal City, Burbank, and Studio City.
- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of North Hollywood was divided with its southeastern portion assigned to SD 5 to be kept with other areas with entertainment industry activity such as Universal City, the part of Studio City containing the CBS Radford lot, and Burbank. The northwest portion was assigned to SD 3.
- A small portion of the City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Sherman Oaks is assigned to SD 5 to be kept with other areas with active entertainment industry activity, including such as portions of North Hollywood, the part of Studio City containing the CBS Radford lot, and Burbank. The portion assigned to SD 5 is bounded on the north by Riverside Drive, on the south by Moorpark Street, on the east by Laurel Canyon Boulevard, and on the west by Whitsett Avenue. The remainder of Sherman Oaks is assigned to SD 3.
- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Studio City is divided along Laurel Canyon Boulevard. The portion east of Laurel Canyon Boulevard is assigned to SD 5 to be kept with other areas with active entertainment industry activity such as Universal City, portions of North Hollywood, and Burbank. The portion west of Laurel Canyon Boulevard is assigned to SD 3.

The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Sun Valley was divided such that most of its area west of San Fernando Road is assigned to SD 5. The Commissioner received repeated public input from the foothill communities, abutting the Verdugo Mountains, Angeles National Forest, and Big Tujunga Wash, including Lake View Terrace, Shadow Hills, and La Tuna Canyon. They shared interests in horse-keeping in an agrarian setting and had worked to develop mitigation and response plans for fire protection and flood evacuation. The area generally west of San Fernando Road is assigned to SD 3 to be kept with the neighboring communities of interest of Pacoima and San Fernando.

The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Venice was divided so that the southeastern portion of the neighborhood nearest the Ballona Wetlands was kept whole with the Ballona Wetlands area in SD 2. The remaining portion of Venice was assigned to SD 3 to remain with its neighboring beach city to the north, Santa Monica.

Geographic Compactness

SD 3 achieves compactness by not bypassing nearby populations to reach more distant areas of population.

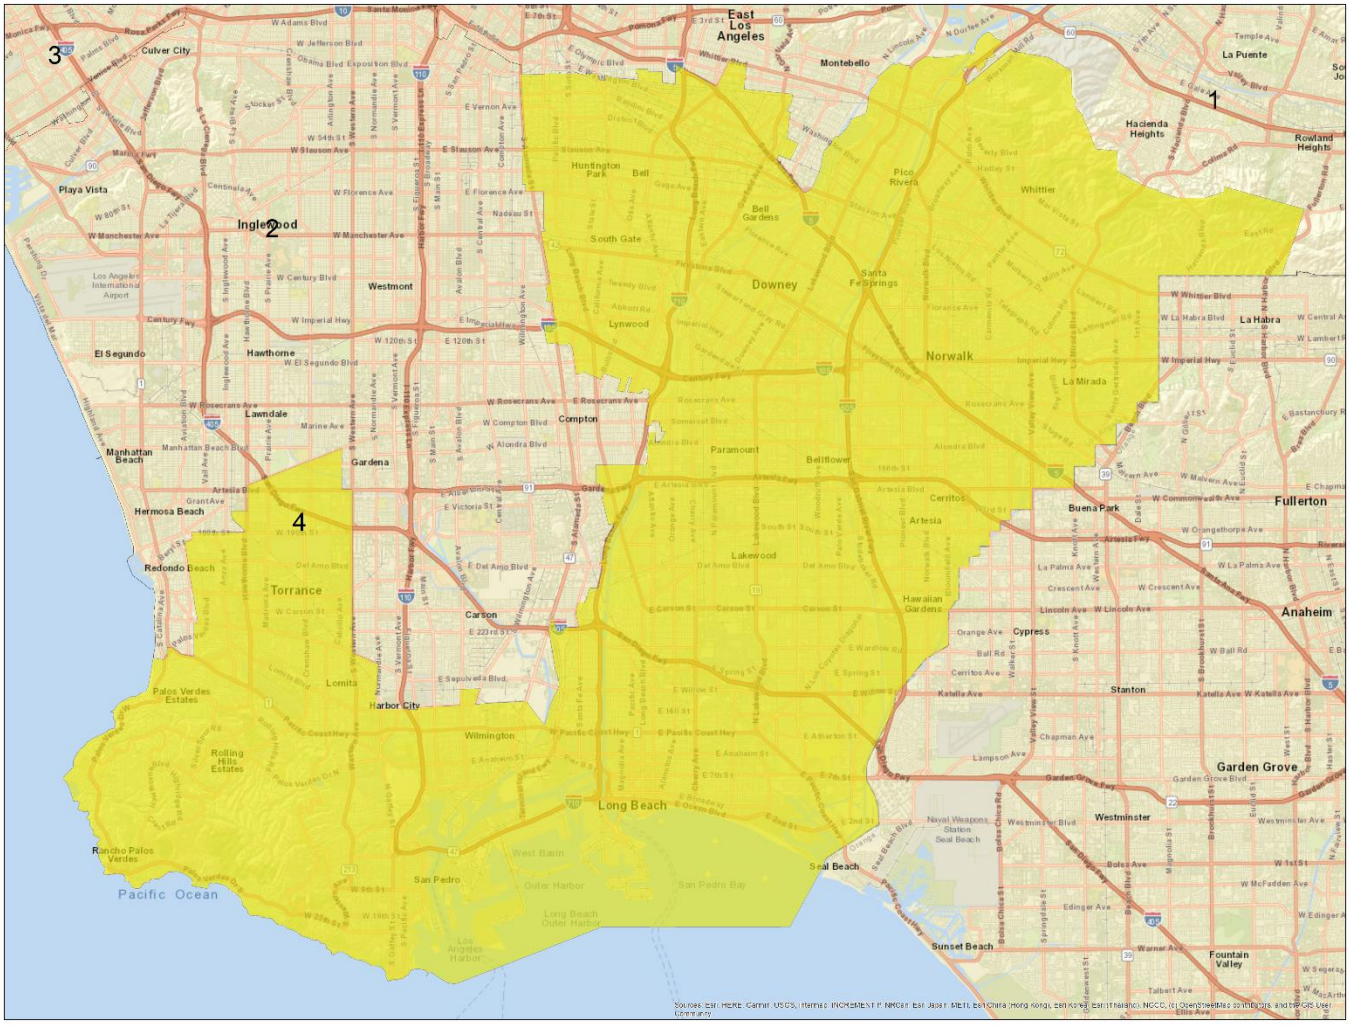

Incumbents/Candidates/Political Parties

The Commission did not consider the residence of any incumbent or candidate in drawing SD 3. Nor did it draw SD 3 for purposes of discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party. For example, the Commission was not presented with any data regarding the political affiliation of registered voters in any proposed SD. Similarly, the Commission neither asked for nor was presented with any maps depicting the residences of incumbents or candidates. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss the residences of incumbents other than to note that such consideration was prohibited by the Elections Code. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party other than to note that the Elections Code prohibited such considerations in drafting the map.

Constitutional and VRA Compliance

Before drawing any maps, the Commission retained experts to conduct an analysis of racially polarized voting in County of Los Angeles supervisorial elections. In summary, the analysis revealed no legally cognizable racially polarized voting in supervisorial elections. The full report of such analysis is included in Appendix C.9

Additionally, the Commissioner's VRA subject matter expert analyzed the final map, including SD1, and concluded it complied with constitutional requirements and did not violate the VRA. The full report of such analysis is included in Appendix C.10.

Geographic Contiguity

Except for Santa Catalina Island and San Clemente Island, SD 4 is geographically contiguous as its territory is not interrupted by other land or water. Santa Catalina is connected to Los Angeles County by ferry lines via San Pedro and Long Beach, both of which are in SD 4. San Clemente Island is owned and operated by the United States Navy and public access is restricted as a result. From its station on Santa Catalina Island, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department provides law enforcement services to San Clemente Island. From its station on Santa Catalina Island, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department provides law enforcement services to San Clemente Island. Based on this connection, San Clemente is included in the same SD as Santa Catalina Island.

This Whittier Narrows area is assigned to SD 1 to keep it whole with the remainder of the Whittier Narrows complex in SD 1.

That portion of the City of La Verne south of Bonita Avenue, which is nearest to and most impacted by the Fairplex, was assigned to SD 1 to keep it with the remainder of the Fairplex complex in a single SD. The reason for the split was based on the public's input that one supervisor should represent the Fairplex. The portion of the City of La Verne was added because of traffic problems affecting the nearby residences and businesses. In this way, a single supervisor could address those concerns as well.

Unincorporated Northeast San Gabriel is actually two discontiguous areas labeled as Northeast San Gabriel North and Northeast San Gabriel South. That portion known as Northeast San Gabriel North is adjacent to San Marino, East Pasadena, Arcadia, and Temple City, all of which are in SD 5. For that reason, Northeast San Gabriel North is placed with them in SD 5. That portion known as Northeast San Gabriel South is placed in SD 1 with San Gabriel and Rosemead, its neighbors to the south and east.

The Commissioners evaluated various economic "engines" within proposed districts when evaluating map options. An outgrowth of that discussion was an interest in grouping communities with significant entertainment industry activity together so that more of the entertainment industry could be combined into a supervisorial district. In creating such a district, the following geographic alignments were made:

- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Hollywood Hills was divided along the Mulholland Drive and Outpost Drive. The area southwest of Mulholland Drive and west of Outpost Drive is assigned to SD 3. The area east of Mulholland Drive and Outpost Drive is assigned to SD 5 alongside neighboring Universal City, Burbank, and Studio City.
- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of North Hollywood was divided with its southeastern portion assigned to SD 5 to be kept with other areas with active entertainment industry activity such as Universal City, the part of Studio City containing the CBS Radford lot, and Burbank. The northwest portion was assigned to SD 3.
- A small portion of the City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Sherman Oaks is assigned to SD 5 to be kept with other areas with active entertainment industry activity, including such as portions of North Hollywood, the part of Studio City containing the CBS Radford lot, and Burbank. The portion assigned to SD 5 is bounded on the north by Riverside Drive, on the south by Moorpark Street, on the east by Laurel Canyon Boulevard, and on the west by Whitsett Avenue. The remainder of Sherman Oaks is assigned to SD 3.
- The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Studio City is divided along Laurel Canyon Boulevard. The portion east of Laurel Canyon Boulevard is assigned to SD 5 to be kept with other areas with active entertainment industry activity such as Universal City, portions of North Hollywood, and Burbank. The portion west of Laurel Canyon Boulevard is assigned to SD 3.

The City of Los Angeles neighborhood of Sun Valley was divided such that most of its area west of San Fernando Road is assigned to SD 5. The Commissioner received repeated public input from the foothill communities, abutting the Verdugo Mountains, Angeles National Forest, and Big Tujunga Wash, including Lake View Terrace, Shadow Hills, and La Tuna Canyon. They shared interests in horse-keeping in an agrarian setting and had worked to develop mitigation and response plans for fire protection and flood evacuation. The area generally west of San Fernando Road is assigned to SD 3 to be kept with the neighboring communities of interest of Pacoima and San Fernando.

Geographic Compactness

SD 5 achieves compactness by not bypassing nearby populations to reach more distant areas of population.

Incumbents/Candidates/Political Parties

The Commission did not consider the residence of any incumbent or candidate in drawing SD 5. Nor did it draw SD 5 for purposes of discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party. For example, the Commission was not presented with any data regarding the political affiliation of registered voters in any proposed SD. Similarly, the Commission neither asked for nor was presented with any maps depicting the residences of incumbents or candidates. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss the residences of incumbents other than to note that such consideration was prohibited by the Elections Code. At no point during any of the Commissioners' deliberations did they discuss discriminating against or favoring an incumbent, candidate, or political party other than to note that the Elections Code prohibited such considerations in drafting the map.

A.4 – LESSONS LEARNED

Los Angeles County is large, complex, and diverse, and has a greater population than most U.S. states. It is the hope that the LA County CRC can serve as a role model for future independent redistricting commissions by demonstrating that citizens can successfully redistrict the five Supervisorial Districts (SDs) of Los Angeles County. The LA County CRC hopes that the success can lay the groundwork for independent redistricting to become the prevailing practice throughout the country, not just California.

The LA County CRC was successful despite the COVID-19 pandemic and Census data delays, pioneering new ways of performing redistricting analysis, including new technologies. The LA County CRC had to adjust to virtual and hybrid meeting formats, interpret new State legislation with little guidelines, and develop new protocols for implementing redistricting efforts. The LA County CRC humbly proffer some lessons learned, which are presented in two groupings:

- Lessons learned for future LA County CRCs or other redistricting commissions
- Lessons learned for the County of Los Angeles governmental agencies

Lessons Learned for Future LA County CRCs

Lesson 1. Future LA County CRCs should retain subject matter expertise for performing RPV analysis.

The LA County CRC retained expertise early in the SD mapping process to perform RPV analysis to establish a baseline assessment of the current SDs and review the SD final map before it was adopted. Future LA County CRCs should continue this practice.

Lesson 2. Future LA County CRCs should modify the public COI input format by asking the public to define the geographic areas before describing the nature of the COIs. They should also explore new surveying techniques to gather more quantitative data on COIs.

The LA County CRC used COI questions that the California CRC used in 2011 and 2021 for consistency. The LA County CRC too often found that residents went to great lengths to describe the social, culture, and economic aspects of their COIs – both in writing and oral public comments – but dedicated little time to precisely defining the geographic locations of their COI.

On the basis of these LA County CRC's experiences, these requests should be reordered and consolidated as follows:

- Clearly describe the geographic location of the COI being described (city names, streets bordering it, significant locations in the neighborhood, etc.)
- List the other COIs that are most similar to your COI and with which you would like to be in the same SD with; explain why or why not
- Describe the resources (e.g., universities, fairgrounds, ports, airports, commercial areas, parks) that your COI shares with the COIs that are similar
- List the nearby COIs that are most dissimilar to your COI and that you would prefer not to be in the same SD with; explain why or why not
- Describe your COI, including:
    a. The economic and social interests that bind your COI together
    b. Why your COI should be kept together for fair and effective representation
    c. How your COI comes together to advocate for important services, better schools, roads, or health centers in your neighborhood

In addition, during the coming years, new and better ways to collect quantitative data on COIs will become available. For example, some organizations are using geospatial mobility data to analyze interactions among people who live near each other at various times of the day. Researchers can then apply algorithms to define COIs. Future redistricting commissioners should explore this approach and others for gaining more robust COI information versus relying on the testimony of a small percent of the public who have the incentive and time to attend and speak.[20]

Lesson 3. Future LA County CRCs should revisit and update LA County CRC values and Bylaws.

The LA County CRC created not only values, but also strong Bylaws by which to govern itself. Both were useful throughout the process regarding Commissioner conduct and adherence to both. The LA County CRC values are:

- Accountability: We are accountable to the process and each other to serve all the constituents of Los Angeles County.
- Transparency: We are committed to openness in all aspects of the redistricting process.

[20] https://electionlawblog.org/?p=126158

- Objectivity: We are careful, intentional, fair-minded, and impartial and will actively resist undue influence in establishing SD boundaries in an equitable manner.
- Integrity: We are honest, truthful, ethical, principled, respectful, and professional.
- Inclusion & Equity: We seek to create and foster a true sense of belonging and eliminate potential barriers by being purposeful, deliberate, and effective in comprehensive public outreach, engagement, and feedback.

The Bylaws were particularly useful and guided the LA County CRC on such issues as filling vacancies, communications, conduct, and meeting protocol (see Appendix C.1).

Lesson 4. Future LA County CRCs should implement a robust outreach and engagement plan, and strongly consider hiring an outreach and engagement coordinator/manager.

The importance of outreach and engagement is inherent in the LA County CRC value of "Inclusion and Equity." In addition, engagement underlies the entire redistricting process. A county-level commission of this importance should have more resources and County of Los Angeles support to:

- Implement a robust outreach plan
- Communicate the process and relevancy of redistricting to the public and key community organizations and groups
- Ensure outreach efforts are early and that ongoing contact with the public is sustained
- Launch a media campaign earlier in the process, starting with the COI Public Hearings
- Use social media texting to reach more individual residents

In February 2021, the LA County CRC approved an Outreach Plan, building on the approach for outreach developed during the 2020 Census. This approach focused on CBOs, cities and governmental agencies, and other organizations so that they would in turn reach out to their stakeholders.

In December 2020, at that start of the LA County CRC, there were 50 individuals who had signed up on the email distribution list. By December 2021, the distribution list had grown to 9,500 emails, still a small number given the population of Los Angeles County. Routine bulletins were sent out to these individuals and organizations, and the LA County CRC was reliant on them to spread the word. Some organizations did a better job than others.

The LA County CRC outreach efforts evolved into three phases. These phases should be integrated into the next Outreach Plan:

- Phase 1. In the beginning, the Commissioners must focus on education – what is redistricting and how it impacts communities.

- Phase 2. As organizations and community groups become increasingly interested in redistricting, they need to learn more about how to communicate and provide public input to the LA County CRC.
- Phase 3. A final phase should focus on community input and understanding of the mapping reiterative process. The community's understanding of how to stay current as the process and maps evolve is important.

An outreach plan should also go beyond simply using media and find ways that are effective in all five SDs, taking into consideration the diverse ethnic communities in Los Angeles County.

During 2021, most groups in the process represented business groups (e.g., chambers) or community-based alliances. A few of these groups developed and submitted their own maps, including the People's Bloc, a coalition of 27 CBOs. The LA County CRC observed that many organizations and individuals who might have an interest were not involved, possibly because they did not understand the importance of engagement or knew how to engage in the process.

To be most effective, future LA County CRCs should hire an outreach coordinator/manager to provide outreach to key communities, CBOs, and other groups to ensure more engagement throughout the redistricting process. Although Commissioners participated in a number of discussions and workshops, additional staff resources are needed. This staff position would be responsible for working directly with CBOs and other groups to coordinate presentations and support for workshops. The intended outcome is to increase engagement by helping more people understand the importance of SD redistricting and their role in the process.

The County of Los Angeles could help support this outreach effort further by routinely putting banners across its website about upcoming LA County CRC Public Hearings, reaching out to other cities to request that they promote residents to sign up, etc. The City of Los Angeles could also do more to help get the word out to its Neighborhood Councils through EmpowerLA.

Lesson 5. Future LA County CRCs should continuously educate the public regarding the VRA and redistricting criteria.

At the start of each COI Public Hearing, the LA County CRC provided a 10-minute overview of the redistricting process, including a summary of the VRA and redistricting mapping criteria. This overview was important because the public needed to understand the redistricting criteria for establishing SD boundaries. Repeating it was important because new people were attending each Public Hearing.

As time progressed and the LA County CRC began reviewing submitted maps, more members of the public became engaged. Many of these members of the public had not attended the COI Public Hearings and were not schooled in redistricting. As a result, many public comments were couched in racial terms with specified racial targets, instead of COI descriptions. This situation drove home the need for ongoing education of the public about the redistricting criteria.

Lesson 6. Future LA County CRCs should establish a process for discussing and refining map options before final map adoption.

The LA County CRC was new and different approaches were tried in developing and discussing map options. Commissioners and staff reviewed the maps submitted by the public and other Commissioners. Commissioners submitted revised maps to capture modifications that they wanted to put before their colleagues and the public. When the LA County CRC was focused on one and only one map after Public Hearing No. 4, the Co-Chairs used a round robin approach where Commissioners described their suggested map modifications.

At the second to last meeting (December 12, 2021), the LA County CRC made modifications to the draft final map that were adopted by motions. Some Commissioners believe it would have been helpful to have clearly defined the process at the outset so that adequate discussions could take place. Moreover, more time should have been given for public comment on the modifications proposed; however, given the challenges with the timing of this redistricting year, such time had to be truncated.

Having an agreed upon process well in advance of the meeting to finalize the draft final map for submission as the final map, pending resolution, is important to ensure that all voices are heard.

Lesson 7. The current LA County CRC should continue to meet to develop guidelines for future LA County CRCs.

With hindsight and experience, the current LA County CRC should continue to meet and improve the redistricting process by incorporating lessons learned to develop a more effective and efficient redistricting process. These meetings can help the next and successive LA County CRCs to get a head start and move more effectively to implement their redistricting plans, while continuing to improve the redistricting process each time.

Lessons Learned for the County of Los Angeles Departments

Lesson 8. The County of Los Angeles should ensure the Commissioners have adequate staffing, budget, and technological support.

Staffing Decisions

The County of Los Angeles and the LA County CRC should determine how to staff future LA County CRCs – either with County of Los Angeles staff, outside expertise selected by the County of Los Angeles, outside expertise selected by the Commissioners, or some combination of both, which was the case in 2021.

As background, the LA County CRC needed staff to get established – to develop Bylaws, prepare meeting agendas, coordinate training programs, prepare public outreach plans, etc. It would have been useful if the Commissioners had had greater input regarding the firms and individuals selected to staff the LA County CRC. That said, other CRCs in the State that solicited such input relied on county staff to get set up and took much longer to get established.

Prior to the formation of the LA County CRC, the County of Los Angeles decided not to staff the LA County CRC with County staff to reinforce its independence. County staff wanted to build an arms-length relationship between the LA County CRC and the County of Los Angeles. Therefore, the County of Los Angeles retained the services of two private firms:

- County of Los Angeles County Counsel retained Colantuono, Highsmith & Whatley, PC to provide legal services for the LA County CRC.
- The County of Los Angeles's Executive Office used a master list of pre-approved consulting firms maintained by the Chief Executive Officer to retain the services of KH. KH responded to a Statement of Work (SOW).

Both firms were brought on in early December 2020 and informed that the full LA County CRC had to be put into place by December 31, 2021. This late start necessitated a compact schedule of 4 meetings with the 8 randomly selected Commissioners, including one on December 26 and 28, to select the other 6 Commissioners from the remaining 52 highly qualified applicants (see Chapter B.1 on the "Formation of Independent Commission" for details).

When the full LA County CRC met for the first time on January 13, 2021, an Agenda item was "Consent Under California Professional Rule of Responsibility No. 1.8.6 to Independent Legal Counsel's Representation of the Commission" regarding approval of Holly O. Whatley, Esq., as the LA County CRC's Independent Legal Counsel.

KH's President, Gayla Kraetsch Hartsough, Ph.D., presented her firm qualifications in February 2020, outlining the firm's work with performing management audits and performance reviews on behalf of various county and city agencies (e.g., County of Los Angeles Civil Grand Jury). Her team resources included:

- Gayla Kraetsch Hartsough as the Executive Director
- Thai V. Le for his Geographic Information System (GIS) and technical expertise (Note: The Commissioners later appointed him as the LA County CRC Clerk.)
- Carlos De Alba for marketing media strategy
- KH support staff

At that same meeting, the Project Manager from the Executive Office reviewed the budget with the LA County CRC Commissioners.

Additional Subject Matter Experts

The Commissioners reviewed the proposals and credentials of the other subject matter experts and had KH contract with them on their behalf, including:

- ARCBridge Consulting & Training Inc., Priti Mathur, Mapping and Demographic Analysis and ESRI Mapping Software Consulting Services
- Bruce Adelson, Esq., Federal Compliance Consulting LLC, for VRA expertise
- Dr. Jonathan N. Katz, California Institute of Technology, for RPV Analysis

Budget

KH established the budget, based on the SOW and requirements outlined in California Senate Bill 958. The actual work scope far exceeded the expectations outlined in the SOW – both in terms of time, frequency of meetings, number of Public Hearings, technical GIS support required of the Commissioners and public, and related matters. The staffing budget should have been greater and included an individual devoted to outreach, described in Lesson 4.

In addition, the $100,000 media budget should have been increased significantly, given the highly competitive media market in Los Angeles County.

The County of Los Angeles developed a budget for providing internal support for the LA County CRC, including the website, mapping software, and email services, among other services. The email system was clunky for Commissioners to access, and its use became burdensome. Consequently, emails were distributed via both their @crc.lacounty.gov email and personal emails for effective (but not efficient) communication. The County of Los Angeles should address this shortcoming.

Technological Support

Some of the Commissioners struggled with the technology necessary to participate in webinars and analysis of maps. The County of Los Angeles should consider providing increased technology support to future LA County CRCs, including possibly the loan of County equipment, to enable Commissioners to participate fully. Moreover, efforts should be made to ensure Commissioners have adequate bandwidth to participate fully.

Lesson 9. The County of Los Angeles should draw the names of the initial eight Commissioners earlier (in the year in which the decennial Federal Census is taken), especially if the Commissioners are to select their own Executive Director and/or Independent Legal Counsel

Despite the challenges and limitations faced by the LA County CRC, the Commissioners successfully developed the SD map for 2021-2030. An earlier swearing in, however, is needed. If the Commissioners could be onboarded earlier, it would allow the time required to:

- Establish the new Commission
- Consider its selection of its Legal Counsel and Executive Director
- Receive additional critical training, elaborated on later in this lesson
- Evaluate consultants, including a demographer and a subject matter expert with knowledge of the VRA and RPV
- Schedule Public Hearings based on a reasonable timeline
- Review map options and hone the final map

Earlier Swearing In and Selection of Legal Counsel and Executive Director

The County of Los Angeles should draw the names of the initial eight Commissioners no later than September 1 in the year in which the decennial federal Census is taken (e.g., for the 2031 redistricting cycle, by September 1, 2030). If the LA County CRC is to select its own Executive Director and/or independent Legal Counsel, then the County of Los Angeles should draw the names no later than June 1 (e.g., for the 2031 redistricting cycle, by June 1, 2030).

From the time the original eight names were drawn on November 24, 2020, the LA County CRC took approximately three full months to accomplish the initial tasks necessary for formation including, but not limited to, selection of the remaining six Commissioners; approval of Bylaws and values; selection of Co-Chairs; training on the Brown Act, conflict-of-interest laws, and Public Records Act; formation of Ad Hoc Working Groups to tackle discrete tasks.

This time, while necessary, deferred the LA County CRC's start on the core task of redistricting. The deadline should be no later than June 1 if the LA County CRC is permitted to select its Executive Director and Independent Legal Counsel. That process will likely entail preparation of a Request for Proposal (RFP), evaluation of proposal responses, interviews with finalists, and negotiation of the contract. As a result, the process will increase the time required to establish a fully staffed and functioning LA County CRC by an estimated 90 to 120 days.

As it was, the County of Los Angeles retained the Independent Legal Counsel and Executive Director with her team of a GIS technical expert, marketing and media strategist, and support staff in early December 2020 with the mandate to convene the eight randomly selected Commissioners immediately so they could select the other six Commissioners by December 31, 2020.

Additional Training

Having an earlier swearing-in date will enable Commissioners to receive additional critical training to:

- Understand Los Angeles County and COIs, including the many political jurisdictions and boundaries for cities, unincorporated areas, and communities within the City of Los Angeles, including Neighborhood Councils.
    - In addition, such training will increase the Commissioners' awareness of what it means to live in an unincorporated area versus a city in Los Angeles County.
- Understand the implications of changing district lines on COIs
- Interpret data (e.g., VAP, CVAP, and socio-economic, environmental, other demographics metrics)
- Understand the social determinants of health and health outcomes throughout Los Angeles County
- Build a knowledge base of the community assets in the various SDs

Additional Time for Analyzing Maps

This additional time will also be vital for reviewing map options and selecting the final SD map. The LA County CRC would have benefitted from more time to consider different map iterations before selecting a final SD map.

Lesson 10. The Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) should inform Commissioner applicants about the time commitment and consider some form of compensation given the demands on their time.

The RR/CC should make sure applicants understand the time commitment for serving as redistricting commissioners, as it is considerable. The LA County CRC Commissioners were dedicated and made the time, despite the added responsibilities of family, work, and health during the COVID-19 pandemic. A Commissioner should anticipate devoting between one to two days per month to redistricting. For this redistricting effort:

- During the first six months, Commissioners averaged two meetings per month, combined with Ad Hoc Working Group meetings in between. This effort equated to approximately one full working day per month.
- During the next three months, Commissioners dedicated approximately three hours for each of the 12 COI Public Hearings. Each of the Public Hearings required preparation time to review the agenda and public comments submitted.
- During the last three months, Commissioners' workload increased as they reviewed the 103 maps submitted, conducted four additional Public Hearings, and met to hone the final map. The Commissioners' meetings lasted four or more hours and increased in frequency to meeting five times in the last week.

The County of Los Angeles should assess what other state redistricting commissions or grand juries are paid and develop plans to cover meeting time, mileage, and parking for meetings.

Lesson 11. The County of Los Angeles should work with the redistricting mapping software vendor to develop software enhancements that meet the Commissioners' and public's needs well in advance of the redistricting process.

The County of Los Angeles Internal Services Department (ISD) should issue a Request for Qualifications (RFQ) from multiple vendors to see what features are available. ISD should work with the selected vendor ahead of time to ensure the needed enhancements are built into the software well in advance of the redistricting process, including such important software features as:

- User-friendly software
- Multiple levels of user-sophistication options for the public, ranging from novice to sophisticated demographer (e.g., a simplified version without all of the bells-and-whistles, as well as a "pro" version with multiple data layers and capabilities)
- Improved visuals on par with other GIS maps (e.g., Google, Waze, MapQuest) that display streets, terrain, and landmarks with clarity
- Provision of software earlier in the process to work out kinks ahead of time
- The ability for users to start with either Census blocks or RDUs
    - The current software only allows one of the two options.
    - Moreover, while using RDUs as the basic geographic unit facilitates initial map drawing, the software should also include lower-level geographies, including Census blocks and tracks.

Lesson 12. The County of Los Angeles should negotiate with the California Senate to modify the conflict-of-interest restrictions so that a broader pool of potential bidders who can provide mapping and consulting services.

The California Senate Bill's conflict-of-interest provisions narrowed the pool of demographers who could bid on the mapping and demographic consulting services Request for Proposal (RFP), prepared by the LA County CRC. Although there were multiple qualified firms that could do the work, the LA County CRC only received three bids.

It is critical that the demographer have intimate knowledge of the communities in Los Angeles County, which is important for redistricting. Demographers need to understand the complexities of Los Angeles County's historic COIs, Neighborhood Councils, unincorporated areas, and geography and topography.

Lesson 13. The County of Los Angeles should adopt new technological advancements for conducting hybrid public meetings.

The County of Los Angeles and the LA County CRC should continue to adopt new technological advancements in conducting hybrid public meetings – an anticipated trend in the coming years. Hybrid meetings allow the public to attend either remotely (via webinar or other platforms) or in person.

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, this LA County CRC pioneered new approaches out of necessity, including convening both virtual and hybrid meetings in compliance with the Brown Act, expanding access to meetings through multiple platforms and social media, and holding the first press conference in front of the Hall of Administration since the COVID-19 pandemic started in March 2020. Some future considerations are to:

- Adopt a hybrid meeting format which allows:
  - Individuals who cannot drive or do not want to drive to in-person meetings to still have access to meetings
  - Individuals to use their phones to call in and provide their public comments
  - Individuals to attend in person
  - Individuals and communities, who struggle with the digital barrier, to attend in person or at other sites
- Continue to record live meetings on YouTube or other similar channels because many individuals who could not attend the meetings later viewed the recorded meetings

- Select sites for the in-person/hybrid meetings in communities where there may have been substantial technological barriers to access the meetings virtually

Lesson 14. The County of Los Angeles should approach the California Legislature to establish an integrated approach with shared software and databases across the State.

During the redistricting process, LA County CRC staff became involved in forming a coalition of GIS redistricting experts from other California cities and counties who were experiencing similar challenges with the software. Together, they were able to resolve shared problems with the software vendor.

On a statewide level, the California Legislature should consider the development of an integrated database and common software for redistricting purposes across the State. In this way:

- It would be more cost-effective than having every city, county, school district, water district, and other governmental jurisdiction procure their own software, build databases, train the public in its use, etc.
- It would be easier for the public to learn one mapping tool for all California redistricting initiatives versus learning multiple GIS systems that are used frequently in the same geographic vicinity (e.g., most recently, redistricting efforts for the County of Los Angeles, City of Los Angeles, City of Long Beach, and Los Angeles Unified School District.)
- It might bring greater clarity about the differences among the various redistricting initiatives, many of which overlap.

Lesson 15. The County of Los Angeles should explore a ballot measure and legislative changes to increase the number of Board of Supervisors

Although beyond the scope of the LA County CRC, the Commissioners received frequent input regarding the size of the SDs and the benefits of increasing the number of County Supervisors. Editorials on this topic appeared in the media throughout the year.

The currently large SDs of two million residents are extremely heterogeneous. The concerns of smaller COIs are easily overwhelmed by the concerns of larger COIs. It is difficult to manage a SD of two million people, particularly given the diversity of Los Angeles County in terms of COIs, geography, and infrastructure. Members of the public indicated that they thought increasing the number of SDs would enable:

- Supervisors to be more responsive to their communities' needs
- Individual COIs to have greater opportunities to have their voices heard

B.1 – FORMATION OF INDEPENDENT COMMISSION

PAST PRACTICES

In the past, the BOS appointed an advisory Boundary Redistricting Committee (BRC) to study proposed changes to the Supervisorial District (SD) boundaries. The BOS could make revisions before adopting the final redistricted boundaries. The five SDs established in 2011 are displayed in the map.

INDEPENDENT COMMISSION TODAY

Today, the LA County CRC is independent of the BOS. In 2016, the California Legislature passed Senate Bill 958 requiring the County of Los Angeles to assemble an independent citizens redistricting commission following the 2020 Federal Decennial Census.

Based on the U.S. Census Bureau 2020 population data and applicable legal requirements, the LA County CRC's responsibility is to define how the SDs will be drawn to account for population and demographic changes since the 2010 Census.

Selection of the Commissioners

The selection of the LA County CRC Commissioners was a three-phased process:

Phase 1:
Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk Identification of 60 Most Qualified Applicants

- 741 applications
- 533 qualified applicants
- 60 most qualified

Phase 2:
Auditor-Controller Random Drawing of 8 Commissioners

- 1 randomly drawn per Supervisorial District
- 3 randomly drawn from remaining 55 applicants

Phase 3:
Selection of 6 Additional Commissioners

- Ratings of all 60 applications
  - Holistic approach
  - Scale of 1-10
- List narrowed to reflect:
  - Political party affiliations
  - Diverse demographics
- Slate of 6

Phase 1. Applications to the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC)

During 2020, the LA County CRC was in the process of being formed. The County of Los Angeles Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) received 741 applications and identified 533 that were qualified (e.g., Los Angeles County residents and registered voters), which they then scored to establish a pool of 60 qualified applicants. The applications of these qualified applicants are available by candidates' first names at: LA County CRC Applications.[1]

Phase 2. Auditor-Controller Random Drawing of the 8 Commissioners

The County of Los Angeles Auditor-Controller (Auditor-Controller) conducted a random drawing at the BOS' meeting on November 24, 2020, selecting one Commissioner from each of the five existing SDs and three Commissioners randomly drawn from the remaining 55 applicants. The following Commissioners were selected through this random drawing:

- Commissioner Jean Franklin
- Commissioner David Adam Holtzman
- Commissioner Daniel Mark Mayeda
- Commissioner Nelson Obregon
- Commissioner Priscilla Orpinela-Segura
- Commissioner Hailes Horacio Soto
- Commissioner Brian Mark Stecher, PhD
- Commissioner John Patrick Kevin Vento

Phase 3. Selection of the Six Remaining Commissioners

The randomly selected eight Commissioners met at four posted special meetings during December 2020 to select the remaining six Commissioners from the remaining 52 most qualified applicants. The following Commissioners were selected through this process:

- Commissioner Mark Mendoza
- Commissioner Apolonio Morales
- Commissioner Saira Soto
- Commissioner Priya Sridharan
- Commissioner Carolyn Williams
- Commissioner Doreena Wong

[1] https://redistricting.lacounty.gov/wp-content/uploads/2021/05/CRC_Applications_Compressed.pdf

Effective December 28, 2020, the CRC had its full complement of 14 Commissioners to begin its work with the necessary quorum to meet, starting in 2021.

Appendix C.2 contains the report on the selection process[2] in 2020.

Replacement of a Commissioner Who Resigned

In April 2021, Commissioner Priya Sridharan resigned. Commissioner Mary Kenney was selected to replace her in May 2021. Appendix C.3 outlines the process for making the selection of her replacement. The report is also available at: LA County CRC Commissioner Replacement Process.[3]

COMMISSIONERS

The LA County CRC has two Co-Chairs – Daniel Mayeda and Carolyn Williams – approved by a quorum vote of the Commissioners. Their biographies and emails[4] are posted on the LA County CRC website. The 14 Commissioners today are:

Commissioner Jean Franklin
Commissioner David Holtzman
Commissioner Mary Kenney
Co-Chair Daniel Mayeda
Commissioner Mark Mendoza
Commissioner Apolonio Morales
Commissioner Nelson Obregon
Commissioner Priscilla Orpinela-Segura
Commissioner Hailes Soto
Commissioner Saira Soto

B.2 – COMMISSION ORGANIZATION

OATH OF OFFICE

The County of Los Angeles Executive Office led the swearing in ceremony for the Commissioners on January 13, 2021. Here is the Oath of Office they took:

> I, (state your name) , during such times as I hold the office of the County of Los Angeles Citizens Redistricting Commission do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter.

INITIAL TRAINING

During the January 2021 regular meetings, Holly O. Whatley, Esq., CRC Independent Legal Counsel, covered:

- Brown Act requirements
- Conflict of Interest
- Public Records Act (PRA)
- Requirement to complete AB 1234 Ethics training online within 60 days
- Election Code

BYLAWS

The LA County CRC developed its bylaws during January and February 2021 and decided to follow Rosenberg's Rules of Order.[5] The revised bylaws[6] were expanded to include social/interactive and non-interactive media on October 27, 2021. Resolutions passed, discussed later regarding virtual meetings, are also posted with the bylaws.

The Senate Bill 958 requires that the LA County CRC have a quorum of 9 members to conduct the business of the Commission; 9 members to vote on any official actions; and 9 "yes" votes to pass any action.

VALUES

The Commission adopted the following values:

- Accountability: We are accountable to the process and each other to serve all the constituents of Los Angeles County.
- Transparency: We are committed to openness in all aspects of the redistricting process.
- Objectivity: We are careful, intentional, fair-minded, and impartial and will actively resist undue influence in establishing SD boundaries in an equitable manner.
- Integrity: We are honest, truthful, ethical, principled, respectful, and professional.
- Inclusion & Equity: We seek to create and foster a true sense of belonging and eliminate potential barriers by being purposeful, deliberate, and effective in comprehensive public outreach, engagement, and feedback.

TIMELINE

Because of COVID-19, there was uncertainty regarding when the 2020 Census data would be released, so the target dates were in flux until May 2021 when the U.S. Census Bureau indicated it would release legacy data by mid-August 2021. Key milestones were:

Appendix C.4 contains the details of the Calendar of the Year.[7] The timeline was aggressive in light of:

- The delayed availability of the Census data
- The added delay in receiving the Census data adjusted for the incarcerated population on September 20, 2021

- The impact of COVID-19 restrictions and precautions necessarily throughout the redistricting process

The LA County CRC and its Ad Hoc Working Group on Legislation reached out to the California State legislation to extend the deadline beyond December 15, 2021, on multiple occasions:

- June 29, 2021: Letter to Senator Steven M. Glazer, State Capitol, regarding support for Senate Bill (SB) 594 (As Amended S/3/2021) if amended
- August 22, 2021: Letter to Senator Steven M. Glazer, State Capitol, Opposition to SB 594 (as amended 8/16/2021) unless amended
- August 24, 2021: Co-Chair Daniel Mayeda's oral testimony before the California Assembly Elections Committee on SB 594

The State legislation rejected all requests.

MEETING AND PUBLIC HEARING FORMATS

Virtual and Hybrid Meetings

Because of COVID-19 and for the safety of the public, the Commissioners, and staff, the LA County CRC meetings and business were conducted virtually, except for five Communities of Interest (COI) Public Hearings held in a hybrid format (a combination of virtual and in-person model) in August and September 2021 (see Chapter B.4 on the COI Public Hearings).

Governor's Executive Order

The meetings were conducted using video conferencing and electronic means, consistent with Governor Newsom's Executive Order N-29-20, regarding the COVID-19 pandemic. The Governor extended the Executive Order through September 30, 2021.

Resolutions

In September 2021, new legislation allowed legislative bodies to continue to conduct teleconference meetings after September 30, 2021, if certain criteria are met and findings are made regarding health and safety issues. The LA County CRC passed a total of three resolutions to continue remote teleconference meetings in accordance with Government Code section 54953(e) and other applicable provisions of the Brown Act.

Bob Hope Patriotic Hall

The LA County CRC identified Bob Hope Patriotic Hall; 1816 S. Figueroa St., Los Angeles, CA 90015 as the site for hybrid meetings and Public Hearings because of its central location, seating capacity, safety protocols in light of COVID-19, and access to public transportation. The LA County CRC held a special meeting at Patriotic Hall on September 14, 2021, and then decided to defer holding additional hybrid meetings for the balance of the year because of COVID-19 safety concerns.

Regular and Special Meetings

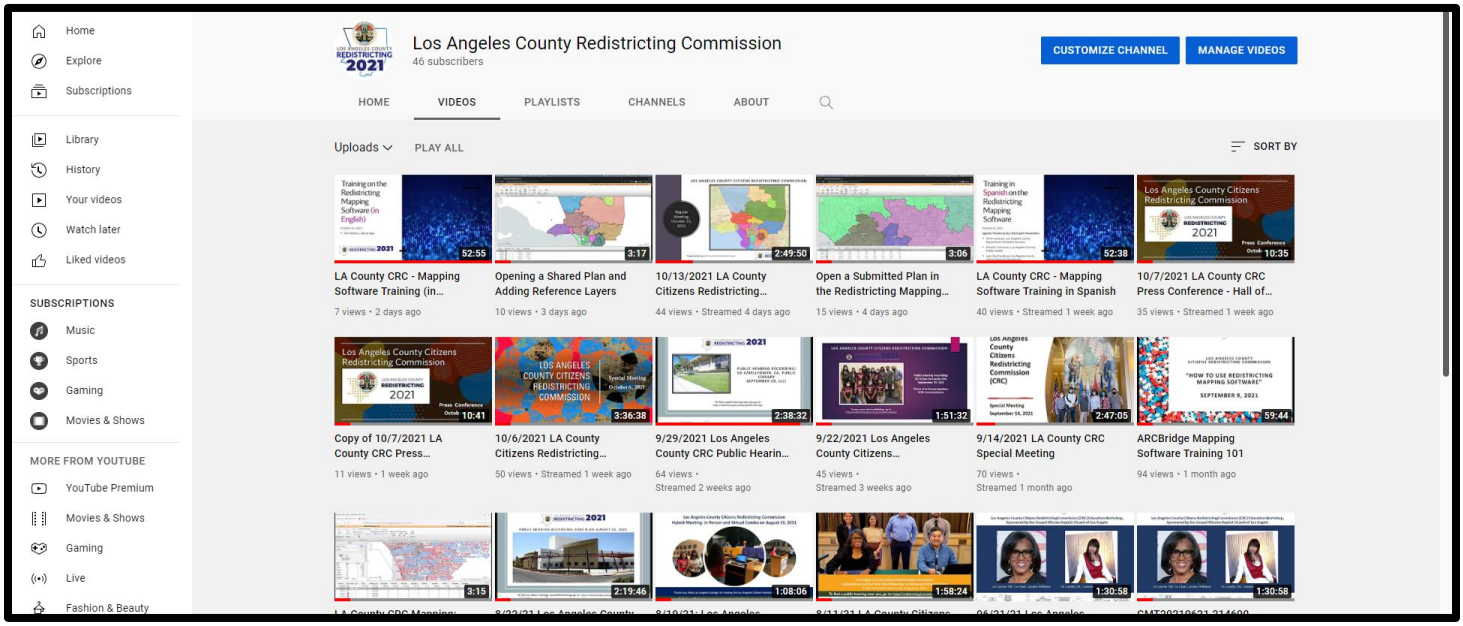

The LA County CRC regular meetings were scheduled for the second and fourth Wednesday of every month, starting at 7:00 p.m. By October 2021, the number of meetings increased to weekly meetings. By December 2021, the Commissioners held six meetings over a two-week period to deliberate on potential maps, map modifications, and the adoption of the final map.

The public had multiple means for accessing meetings.

Attention all participants: you must select your preferred language. Click on "Interpretation" at the bottom of your screen. Select English or Spanish. You then can choose to "mute original audio" for a clearer interpretation. If you do not choose a language, you will not hear the interpretation.

Atención todos los participantes: haga clic en la interpretación ("Interpretation") abajo en su pantalla a mano derecha Elija Inglés, o Español. Debe elegir el idioma que prefiere. B.3 – PUBLIC OUTREACH

PUBLIC OUTREACH PLAN

Appendix C.5 contains the Public Outreach Plan,[8] adopted in February 2021 and posted on the LA County CRC website. Its contents are:

I. Overview: Plan Purpose and Redistricting Overview

II. Public Access and Outreach: Website, Other CRC Communication Vehicles, Building on Existing Organizational Networks, Media Outlets and Media Buys

III. Public Involvement: Overview, Threshold Languages, Timetable, Redistricting Map Submissions, Metrics

Attachments: CBOs Potentially Interested in Redistricting

THRESHOLD LANGUAGES

Threshold languages are defined as: "a language for which the number of residents of the County of Los Angeles who are members of a language minority is greater than or equal to 3 percent of the total voting age residents of the county." As a result, the threshold languages in Los Angeles County are:

1. Armenian	7. Korean
2. Cambodian/Khmer	8. Russian
3. Chinese	9. Spanish
4. Farsi	10. Tagalog/Filipino
5. Hindi	11. Thai
6. Japanese	12. Vietnamese

During the course of the year, the California Secretary of State identified additional threshold languages (Arabic, Armenian, Hmong, Persian, Punjabi, and Syriac) for Los Angeles County as a result of a lawsuit.[9]

[9] Memo from Alex Padilla, Secretary of State, State of California Elections Division to All County Clerks/Registrars of Voters, "Additional Languages Required under California Elections Code Section 14201, Language Minority Determinations," May 21, 2020.

One in three Angelenos are foreign born.[10] In Los Angeles County, approximately 25% of the population is characterized as having Limited English Proficiency (LEP). These 12 threshold languages represent 96% of Los Angeles County's LEP population. The remaining 4% of the LEP population speak more than 100 different languages and represent approximately 97,000 residents.

County of Los Angeles commissions normally request 72-hours notification for interpreter services for regular and special meetings. The Election Code requires that the CRC provide interpreter services within 24-hours notification for the Public Hearings in the Summer 2021 and the Public Hearings in November-December 2021.

WEBSITE

The LA County CRC quickly put together a website that was launched in late January 2021, available at: https://redistricting.lacounty.gov/ The website was also tested to ensure ADA compliance and access on phones and tablets.

The major tabs on the homepage website are :

- About Us, Meetings
- Community Outreach
- Making a Redistricting Map
- Want to Know More?[11]

[10] University of Southern California, Dornsife, "State of Immigrants in L.A. 2020 Report," January 9, 2020: https://dornsife.usc.edu/csii/state-of-immigrants-la

[11] By law, the 2011 redistricting website had to be available through September 2021. The 2021 LA County CRC website had a link to the 2011 website to meet this requirement under "Want to Know More?".

Individuals can sign up on the website for alerts and bulletins about upcoming meetings and Public Hearings. Although the LA County CRC recognized the limitations of Google Translate, the LA County CRC used it to increase the accessibility to the website via more than 100 language options.

Branding

For consistency, meeting information, reports, PowerPoint presentations, and promotional materials carried the LA County CRC logo and website graphics. The logo and graphics were designed with a friendly motif that was less bureaucratic than other governmental entities.

GovDelivery

The LA County CRC relied on the County's GovDelivery system for disseminating bulletins about upcoming regular and special meetings, workshops, presentations, mapping options, and Public Hearings. Building the email database consisted of such contacts as:

- Los Angeles County 2020 Census
- CRC sign-ups
- City managers, clerks, mayors, and council members
- 2011 Border Redistricting Committee outreach

- Media outlets

The number of emails on our list serve grew from 50 in December 2020 to more than 9,500 by December 2021.

FACT SHEET AND OUTREACH TOOLKIT

The Ad Hoc Working Group – Outreach developed a one-page Fact Sheet and outreach toolkit,[12] which were available in English and most of the County's threshold languages.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY REDISTRICTING 2021

Redistricting Fact Sheet

A first in Los Angeles County history! An independent Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC) will redraw the supervisorial districts for the next 10 years.

What You Need to Know

How This Redistricting Process Differs From Past Practices

In the past, the Board of Supervisors had the final say before adopting the final redistricted boundaries. Today, the LA County CRC is designed to be independent from the influence of the Board and reflect the County's diversity.

Redistricting Overview

Our work involves adopting supervisorial districts that are about equal in population – about 2 million people per district – based on U.S. Census data. Other considerations are fairness regarding race and ethnicity; not splitting cities, neighborhoods, and communities of interest; and having compact districts.

Why Redistricting Matters

At the local level, periodic redistricting can help to:

- Ensure our County's diverse population and communities have opportunities to have their voices heard
- Enable voters to elect representatives of their choosing and not draw supervisorial districts in such a way as to dilute fair opportunities
- Have Supervisors be responsive to the preferences and needs of residents through:
    - Public policies to improve lives
    - Public services and resources (e.g., public health and medical centers, social services, parks, sheriff, municipal services to unincorporated areas and contract cities… and many more)

We want a transparent and inclusive process. Have your voice heard by:

- Attending our regular meetings
- Sharing your thoughts at our Public Forums and Public Hearings
- Submitting written public comments
- Preparing and submitting maps for consideration
- Letting others know about redistricting

WORKSHOPS

LA County CRC-Sponsored Workshops

The Ad Hoc Working Group – Outreach conducted two workshops in April 2021. The purpose of these workshops was to inform and engage organizations in outreach and redistricting. The workshops targeted the following groups:

- April 6 at 5:00-6:00 pm: CBOs & Faith Based Organizations (FBOs)
- April 20 at 5:00-6:00 pm: Cities, government agencies, educational systems

During the workshops, the Commissioners focused on how the organizations could participate and assist with outreach, particularly during the Public Hearings, to solicit input from COIs and later to provide input on the November-December Public Hearings on map options.

The Executive Director routinely met with CBOs to update them on the LA County CRC's activities and planned next steps to solicit input and help promote the Commission with their respective stakeholders. She also conducted a workshop in October 2021 about:

- The LA County CRC's timeline for the November-December Public Hearings
- Process for submitting maps for consideration by the LA County CRC

As elaborated on in Chapter B.5 on the mapping software and datasets, the LA County CRC also provided videos and workshops on how to use the mapping software. Virtual workshops were held on:

- August 2021 when the preliminary Census data were released
- October 2021 when the Public Law Census data adjusted for the incarcerated population and updated software were available
- October 2021 in Spanish, using the Public Law Census data and updated software
- October 2021 in English, using the Public Law Census data and updated software

Media Coverage and Outreach

As of December 12, 2021, more than 20 news articles that cite the LA County CRC are posted on the website under Redistricting in the News.[15]

Because of the limited size of the media budget, the media buy was deferred and used to promote the November-December Public Hearings on the map options. The media buys were combinations of on-air radio spots, social media Zoom interviews (KPWR-FM / KDAY-FM), one on-air interview (KIRN-AM), social media, digital banner ads, radio streaming, on-air radio spots, and print ads.

B.4 – COMMUNITY OF INTEREST (COI) PUBLIC HEARINGS

COMMUNITY OF INTEREST (COI) DEFINITION

According to the California CRC, "A community of interest is a contiguous population that shares common social and economic interests that should be included within a single district for purposes of its effective and fair representation. Communities of interest shall not include relationships with political parties, incumbents, or political candidates."

The LA County CRC asked the public to describe their communities, including:

- The economic and social interests that bind your community together
- Why your community should be kept together for fair and effective representation
- Where your community is located
- What nearby areas do they want to or not want to be grouped with

The LA County CRC provided additional guidance, based on the COI questions developed by the California CRC, for defining a COI; some suggestions were:

- Begin with your city or unincorporated area: Mention the street names and significant locations in your neighborhood to help identify the parameters of your community.
- What are your shared interests?
- What brings you together?
- What is important to your community?
- Are there nearby areas you want to be in a district with?
- Nearby areas you don't want to be in a district with? Why or why not?
- Has your community come together to advocate for important services, better schools, roads, or health centers in your neighborhood?

12 COI PUBLIC HEARINGS

Senate Bill 958 requires a minimum of seven Public Hearings with at least one held in each SD. Because of COVID-19, the LA County CRC was not required to do on-site Public Hearings; however, but to ensure the public had access to the Commission to present their public input, the Commissioners opted for the hybrid model.

In total, the LA County CRC conducted 12 Public Hearings, including:

- 1 hybrid (in-person/virtual) in each of the 5 SDs
- 1 in Spanish with interpreters for the English-speaking attendees

The LA County CRC designed and provided a form for the public to use to provide COI input: https://forms.gle/2SDZSxEuKNZ3ZU1KA.

Initial 10 Public Hearing Process and Format

The LA County CRC adopted a regional or zone approach for the initial 10 Public Hearings. In this way, the Commissioners could receive input from COIs that covered a smaller geographic area than the 5 SDs. The LA County CRC also wanted the geographical areas to differ from the existing SDs since the Commissioners wanted a fresh look at the districts.

Nine geographic zones were developed for the COI Public Hearings. The basis for the 9 zones were the County's 8 Service Planning Areas (SPAs), used primarily for planning, statistical tracking, and provision of health and social services.[19] Some adjustments were made to even the populations (e.g., San Fernando Valley and Santa Clarita Valley were assigned to separate zones). The LA County CRC provided an interactive zone map[20] to help interested attendees to find the location nearest their zip code.

Two Additional Hybrid COI Public Hearings

According to the statute governing our Commission in Elec. Code, § 21534 (2)(B):

> "(B) In the event any state or local health order prohibits large gatherings, the commission may modify the location of the hearings, including use of virtual hearings that use technology to permit remote viewing and participation, to the extent required to comply with public health requirements. If the commission modifies the location of a hearing, it shall provide opportunities to view and listen to proceedings by video, to listen to proceedings by phone, and to provide public comment by phone and in writing with no limitation on the number of commenters. The commission shall, to the greatest extent practicable, provide an opportunity for in-person participation for at least one hearing in each supervisorial district. Methods for providing in-person participation may include, but are not limited to, setting up multiple rooms with audiovisual connections to the hearing, allowing community members to make appointments to make public comment, providing personal protective equipment, or holding hearings in outdoor spaces."

In July 2021, the COVID-19 situation seemed to be in decline and the Commissioners requested the LA County CRC staff to design a hybrid approach to the Public Hearings scheduled for August 2021. The LA County CRC also decided to add 2 more Public Hearings for September 2021. In this way, the LA County CRC met the requirement of at least one in-person COI Public Hearing conducted in each of the current five SDs.

Care was given that the hybrid Public Hearing sites be accessible for the handicapped, parking, and public transportation. In addition, specific communities were identified where there were likely digital barriers for accessing Public Hearings virtually: El Monte, Bellflower, and San Fernando City. The other two locations were at community colleges – West Los Angeles College and Antelope Valley College – because they had the technology to handle hybrid meeting formats.

Health Safety Protocols

The L.A. County Health Officer Order was modified to align with the State on masking guidance, requirements for workplaces to adhere to Cal/OSHA standards, and sector-specific protocols that remained in place for indoor K-12 schools, day cares, camps, and high-risk congregate settings. Currently, Cal/OSHA standards continue to require distancing and masking for all employees.

The LA County CRC was the first County commission to conduct meetings in a hybrid format in history. To conduct such hybrid Public Hearings required special consideration, particularly since County facilities had not yet opened to the public at that time.

Steps were taken to ensure adherence to Los Angeles County Department of Public Health (LACPDH) protocols. Masks were required, and care was given to endure safe-distance seating of the Commissioners and the public. At the two public library settings, there were limitations on the number of Commissioners and public who could be in the space.

For your safety and others:

Wear a mask that covers your nose and mouth—INDOORS—regardless of vaccination status
Social distance from others who don't live with you
Wash your hands often with soap and water, or use hand sanitizer

The County of Los Angeles "re-opened" with the rest of the State on June 15, 2021. Changing conditions in the County due to the rapid spread of the Delta variant of COVID-19 prompted new LACPDH restrictions. Effective as of Sunday, July 18, 2021, LACPDH Health Orders required all persons, regardless of vaccination status, to wear masks/facial coverings at all indoor public settings.

At the start of each hybrid COI Public Hearing, the LA County CRC Clerk outlined the safety protocols:[31]

  - An individual who had unprotected contact with the patient's body fluids and/or secretions (e.g., being coughed or sneezed on, sharing utensils or saliva, or providing care without wearing appropriate protective equipment)

COI INPUT AND COI MAPS

Public COI Map Input

COI input through October 3, 2021 is posted in a sortable Excel Spreadsheet on the LA County CRC website on the orange bar: CLICK HERE TO VIEW COI INPUT[32] COI input received after October 3, 2021 was posted with the scheduled special and regular meetings and Public Hearings. The LA County CRC also posted input from the California CRC[33] so the public could review public testimony made before that commission that might pertain to the County of Los Angeles SDs.

Overall, the LA County CRC reviewed:

- Hundreds of pages of written public comment
- 500 submissions regarding COIs
- 50 formal written letters from CBOs, governments (e.g., city councils, COGs), and others

[33] https://www.wedrawthelinesca.org/data?utm_campaign=crc_database_launch&utm_medium=email&utm_source=ccrc

- 20 COI maps submitted by the public for the LA County CRC's consideration. They are displayed as "Public's Submitted Communities of Interest Maps"[34] on the LA County CRC website.

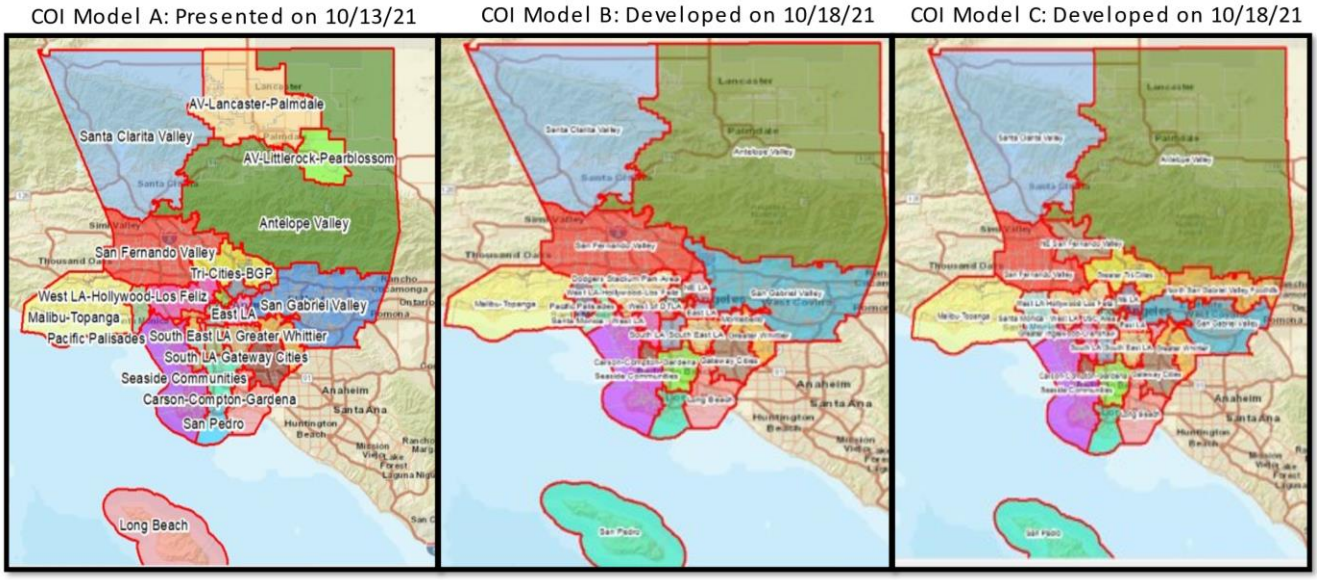

Commissioner COI Models

In October 2021, the LA County CRC formed five teams of two to three Commissioners each to analyze COI input and develop hypotheses about the COI patterns described in the written and oral public testimonies. Each zone was reviewed by two teams. The Commissioners' team meetings were recorded.

The Executive Director summarized the input from the COI teams in a report, "Summary of Community of Interest (COI) Hypotheses."[35] The report also includes links to the recorded team meetings; the report is posted on the website and appears in Appendix C.6.

On the basis of this input, the LA County CRC formed an Ad Hoc Working Group to create visualizations of the COI input. The full LA County CRC reviewed the models at two public meetings. The outcome was three COI Models that depicted public input:

B.5 – MAPPING DEMOGRAPHER, SOFTWARE AND DATABASES

SELECTION OF DEMOGRAPHIC AND MAPPING CONSULTING SERVICES

The LA County CRC issued a Request for Proposal/Statement of Work (RFP/SOW)[39] which is in Appendix C.7. The criteria for evaluating the proposal were:

Criteria for Evaluating Proposals	Weightings
Ethics Requirements (If the Proposer fails this requirement, the bid cannot be considered.)[40]	Pass/Fail
Proposers' Plans to meet RFP Objectives and Tasks
Task 1 – Redistricting Mapping Planning	10%
Task 2 – Public Involvement in Redistricting Mapping	10%
Task 3 – Review of Public-Submitted Maps	10%
Task 4 – Preparation of Line drawings of LA County	10%
Proposers' Proposed Timeline to Satisfy Redistricting Deadlines Realistically	10%
Proposers' Firm and Team Capabilities	30%
Proposers' Project Costs and Hourly Rates	20%

The LA County CRC received three proposals. The Ad Hoc Working Group – Demography evaluated the proposals and submitted two finalists for the full Commission's consideration: ARCBridge Consulting & Training Inc. and National Demographics Corporation (NDC). The Commission listened to oral presentations of both firms. NDC withdrew its proposal. The Commission selected ARCBridge.

CENSUS DATA

According to the U.S. Census Bureau:

> "The 2020 Census counted every person living in the United States and the five U.S. territories. It marked the 24th census in U.S. history and the first time that households were invited to respond to the census online."[41]

Delayed Release of 2020 Census

In December 2020, the U.S. Census Bureau reported that it would:

> "…continue to process the data collected and plan to deliver a complete and accurate state population count for apportionment in early 2021, as close to the statutory deadline as possible."[42]

Unfortunately, that was not the case. The release date of the 2020 Census was a moving target in 2021 because of a) COVID-19; and b) the extension of the Census deadline. The Census data were finally released in August 2021.

Official California Public Law (P.L. 94-171) Census

In 2012, the voters of California passed a proposition to adjust the Census data for the in-state incarcerated population. Specifically, if incarcerated individuals were in-state residents prior to incarceration, they are to be counted in their last known residences' district population (Elec. Code § 21003). This redistricting cycle was the first year for implementing P.L. 94-171. Specifically:

> P.L. 94-171 redistricting data is a tabulation from the decennial census that includes counts of population by race and ethnicity (Hispanic or Latino origin); voting age; housing occupancy status; and group quarter s population, all at the census block level. The California Citizens Redistricting Commission and many local jurisdictions, including cities and counties are required by law to use the official redistricting dataset provided by the Statewide Database. This dataset is different form the data that the U.S. Census Bureau provides in that it has reallocated data from incarcerated persons that were enumerated in facilities under the control of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to their last known residential address.

The LA County CRC had to wait for the official Census data to be adjusted for the incarcerated population by the Statewide Database at the University of California, Berkeley. It was released on September 20, 2021.

The GIS-Demography Team at ISD prepared a report on the impact of the adjusted Census data for the incarcerated population. This report is posted on LA County CRC website:[43] (pages 4-7).

Total Population, VAP, and CVAP Data

The 2020 Census data is the source to use for determining the total population to ensure the map options and adopted final map are within 10% population deviation among the five districts. Two other population data points are also used:

- Voter Age Population(VAP), based on 2020 Census data
- Citizen Voting Age Population (CVAP) based on the 2019 American Community Survey (ACS)

VAP and CVAP inform the analysis of whether a proposed map complies with the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 (VRA). Consideration of 2019 ACS is appropriate for that evaluation. Chapter B.7 elaborates further on the VAP and CVAP data sets, including limitations in the accuracy of the CVAP.

U.S. Department of Justice Ethnic Categories

The LA County CRC used the ethnic categories developed by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ):

Latino (LAT)	Everyone who responded affirmatively to Hispanic Origin question regardless of race

The following categories are Not Hispanic or Latino:

White (WHI)	Single race White alone
Black (BLK)	Single race Black and 2 race Black and White
American Indian (AIN)	Single race AIN and 2 race AIN and White
Asian (ASI)	Single race Asian and 2 race Asian and White
Hawaiian Pacific Islander (HPI)	Single race HPI and 2 race HPI and White
Other Race (OTH)	Single race Other and 2 race Other and White
Multi Minority Race (MMR)	All multi race categories except those assigned above.

The mapping software provides the DOJ ethnic categories for Adjusted Population (POP_A20), Adjusted Voting Age Population (VAP_A20), and unadjusted Citizen Voting Age Population from 2019 CVAP tabulation (CVAP_D19). The variable names combine the ethnic prefix and the universe suffixes.

CITIES AND UNINCORPORATED AREAS

Countywide Statistical Areas (CSAs)

The Countywide Statistical Areas (CSA)[44] project was developed to provide a common geographic boundary for reporting departmental statistics for cities and unincorporated areas. The City of Los Angeles' neighborhoods were identified by the City of Los Angeles Bureau of Engineering. CSAs differ from the more informal "Community" geographies because:

- They represent geographies comprised of Census block groups split by cities.
- They must cover the entire unincorporated and incorporated areas of Los Angeles County.
- There can be no holes or overlapping areas.

The CSAs originally were created using Census Block Groups split by cities (e.g., "Split Block Groups") as a geographic building block. These boundaries are subsequently updated as needed based on the cities' annexation/deannexation records.

CSAs are named according to the following recommended naming conventions:

- All names will be assumed to begin with "Unincorporated" (e.g., Unincorporated El Camino Village) for the unincorporated areas. They will not be part of the Statistical Geography Name (so the name of the Statistical Area would be "El Camino Village").
- Names will not contain "Island," referring to a small unincorporated area surrounded by incorporated cities. Such small unincorporated areas also begin their names with "Unincorporated" to distinguish them from any surrounding cities. There may be one or more exceptions for certain small areas (e.g., "Bandini Islands").
- A forward slash implies an undetermined boundary between two areas within a statistical geography (e.g., Westfield/Academy Hills or View Park/Windsor Hills).
- Certain established names may include hyphens (e.g., Florence-Firestone).
- Aliases may be defined in parentheses (e.g., Unincorporated Long Beach (Bonner/Carson Park)).

A full listing of the 348 CSAs[45] is posted on the LA County CRC website. They include the 88 cities, 139 CSAs within the City of Los Angeles,[46] and the 122 unincorporated areas.

Redistricting Data Units (RDUs)

County staff provided the Commissioners with an overview of the 2011 redistricting experiences and introduced the use of Redistricting Data Units or Redistricting Units (RDUs) at the May 29, 2021, LA County CRC meeting.[47] The County developed and used RDUs for the 2001 and 2011 redistricting to:

- Reflect the administrative and governmental jurisdictions within Los Angeles County
- Align with U.S. Census Bureau geographies, which is required to provide population figures for the redistricting process
- Bring clarity to city and unincorporated area boundaries

Today, County of Los Angeles departments use RDUs for regional planning, delivery of municipal services to unincorporated areas and contract cities, and County operations. RDUs also minimize the problem of cities and unincorporated areas being unintentionally split between two SDs.

RDUs[48] are primarily census tracts, split along city boundaries, from which data have been compiled for use in the redistricting software.

In addition to aligning census geographies with incorporated city boundaries, the RDUs also delineate the boundaries of the named unincorporated areas in Los Angeles County that represent about 1 million residents. The unincorporated areas in Los Angeles County cover more than 2,600 square miles, represent 66% of the County's land, and more than 1 million residents (10% of the county's population). The unincorporated areas are socially and economically diverse.[49] They can be small (a few blocks); large, such as East Los Angeles with more than 150,000 residents; or sparsely populated (high desert). Without RDUs, users of the software might unknowingly bifurcate unincorporated areas since the U.S. Census Bureau does not reflect certain unincorporated areas as contiguous names.

[48] https://redistricting.lacounty.gov/glossary/#1611252687287-0d6bbd2a-98dd
[49] https://planning.lacounty.gov/view/unincorporated_los_angeles_county/

The U.S. Census Bureau is obligated to protect the privacy of people. Blocks are the smallest unit of geography. In sparsely populated areas, such as North County in Los Angeles County, the blocks are large because few people live there. In densely populated areas, the blocks are small.

The tract, block group, block, and RDU geographies are nested. The totals for each level of geography add up to the total population of the County.

Census data Levels	Actual	Rounded
Blocks	91,626	92,000
Block Groups	6,591	6,600
Tracts	2,498	2,500
RDU at Block Group level with CSAs	7,029	7,000
RDU at Tract Level with CSAs	2,957	3,000
CSAs	348	350

The Ad Hoc Working Group for Demography further discussed the pros and cons of RDUs, including the complexities of manipulating 92,000 Blocks versus 3,000 RDUs during August 2021.

The County's demographer, David Ely of Compass Demographics, described the datasets built into the mapping software at the September 29, 2021, LA County CRC meeting.[50] He outlined the data sets, being built into the software, including the importance of each data set for redistricting purposes:

- RDUs, which reflect existing city and unincorporated area boundaries, including CSAs, and reduces the number of geographic areas to manipulate from 90,000 Census blocks to 3,000 RDUs
- Adjusted population and VAP total, presented based on DOJ categories
- Unadjusted CVAP by the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) categories
- 2020 Voter Registration Total and by surname matched categories
- Socio-Economic Data from the American Community Survey (ACS), 2019, including:
    - Language spoken at home, just Spanish, Asian Language, and Other
    - Renter/owner occupied
    - Income Categories
    - Education Categories
    - Poverty

The LA County CRC used the RDUs as the building block for redistricting. In the few instances where necessary to accomplish the Commission's intent, RDUs were divided at the Block level.

[50] https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eALiuxsOV2w (Note: David Ely's presentation starts at 6 minutes 20 seconds.)

Los Angeles City Neighborhood Councils

Corresponding to the City of Los Angeles Department of Neighborhood Empowerment (DONE), the 99 Neighborhood Councils[51] in the City of Los Angeles was another consideration. They lie within the City of Los Angeles but do not follow the CSA boundaries. Although most of the City of Los Angeles has a Neighborhood Council, there are some residential areas that opted not to be part of DONE. Based on the rules that a geographic unit should not have overlaps and gaps.

Therefore, for the City of Los Angeles, the Neighborhood Council file was overlaid on the Block Groups and boundaries assigned using the centroid of the block group; therefore, while the names of the CSAs in the City of Los Angeles match the neighborhood file, the boundaries are not the same.

MAPPING SOFTWARE

The County of Los Angeles contracted with Esri to supply the redistricting mapping software. The County provided this free, web-based, mapping software so that:

- Individuals and community groups could participate in the redistricting process.
- The public could prepare and submit Redistricting Map Plans for the CRC's consideration.

The software was first made available as a soft launch in August 2021 so users could become familiar with it and participate in training sessions.

Personalized help was made available in English, Spanish, Mandarin, Farsi, Hindi, Korean, and Vietnamese. Interpreters were provided for additional languages, as requested.

The official launch of the redistricting mapping software[52] and datasets was on October 7, 2021.

TRAINING ON MAPPING SOFTWARE

The LA County CRC developed a training plan for the launch of the mapping software.

- One workshop in English by ARCBridge
- One workshop in Spanish, conducted by GIS bilingual staff from the County of Los Angeles

B.6 – SELECTION OF MAP OPTIONS FOR PUBLIC HEARINGS

This chapter reviews the legal requirements and criteria for developing viable map options and describes the various maps submitted and reviewed by the LA County CRC.

CURRENT SUPERVISORIAL DISTRICTS

The map displays the current geographic boundaries for the five SDs, drawn in 2011.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS AND MAPPING CRITERIA

According to the U.S. Constitution, 52 U.S.C. § 10301, Cal. Election Code § 21534, the LA County CRC must adopt SD lines using the following criteria, listed in order of priority:

1. Each district shall comply with the United States Constitution and be reasonably equal in total resident population to the other districts, except where deviation is required to comply with the VRA or allowable by law.
2. Districts shall comply with the VRA.
3. Districts shall be geographically contiguous.
4. The geographic integrity of city, local neighborhood, or community of interest shall be respected in a manner that minimizes its division.
5. To the extent practicable, and where it does not conflict with numbers 1-4 above, districts shall be drawn to encourage geographic compactness.

Besides the above criteria, districts shall not be drawn for purposes of favoring or discriminating against an incumbent, political candidate, or political party.

PRELIMINARY MAPS AND COI MAPS

Prior to the release of the Public Law Census data, the public had submitted 7 preliminary maps for the 5 SDs and 20 COI maps,[58] which are posted on the LA County CRC website. In addition to the 20 COI maps are the three COI Models that the LA County CRC developed (see Chapter B.4 for details).

PUBLIC SUBMITTED OFFICIAL MAPS

In total, the public submitted 31 official redistricting maps that met the minimum requirements for redistricting purposes by October 28, 2021. These 31 redistricting maps[59] are posted on the LA County CRC.

COMMISSION REDISTRICTING INITIAL MAPPING OPTIONS

The LA County CRC reviewed the 31 public submitted maps, including maps prepared by Commissioners, on October 26, 27, 28, 2021. The Commissioners were able to build redistricting maps, having:

[58] https://redistricting-lacounty.hub.arcgis.com/
[59] https://redistricting-lacounty.hub.arcgis.com/

- Received extensive training on the mapping criteria, including the VRA
- Listened to and read the COI input during the 12 COI Public Hearings
- Reviewed more than a thousand public comments throughout the redistricting process at that point in time
- Completed the mapping software training

The Commissioner-prepared maps were not posted until October 25, 2021, to allow time for the public to submit maps without the influence of Commissioner-created maps.

ARCBridge completed a Scorecard that displayed metrics about each map option submitted (see final Scorecard at the end of this chapter).

Map Options Considered for Initial Public Hearing

On October 28, 2021, 31 maps had been submitted to the LA County CRC. The Commissioners focused on which map options to put forth as starting points for the November-December Public Hearings. Three Commissioner-prepared maps – Maps 020, 021, and 022 – were withdrawn from consideration. The Commissioners then could share up to three of their top map preferences. An "X" means they liked the map, but it was not among their top 3. No Commissioner had more than 3 ratings.

Maps 012, 015, 018, and 023 had the highest ratings initially. The Commissioners explained individually the logic behind their selected top 3 map choices and related considerations. The Commissioners discussed other maps that were comparable to each other.

The Commissioners made individual motions to adopt maps. Motions were made for six of the maps; four of the maps were approved by a quorum of the LA County CRC.

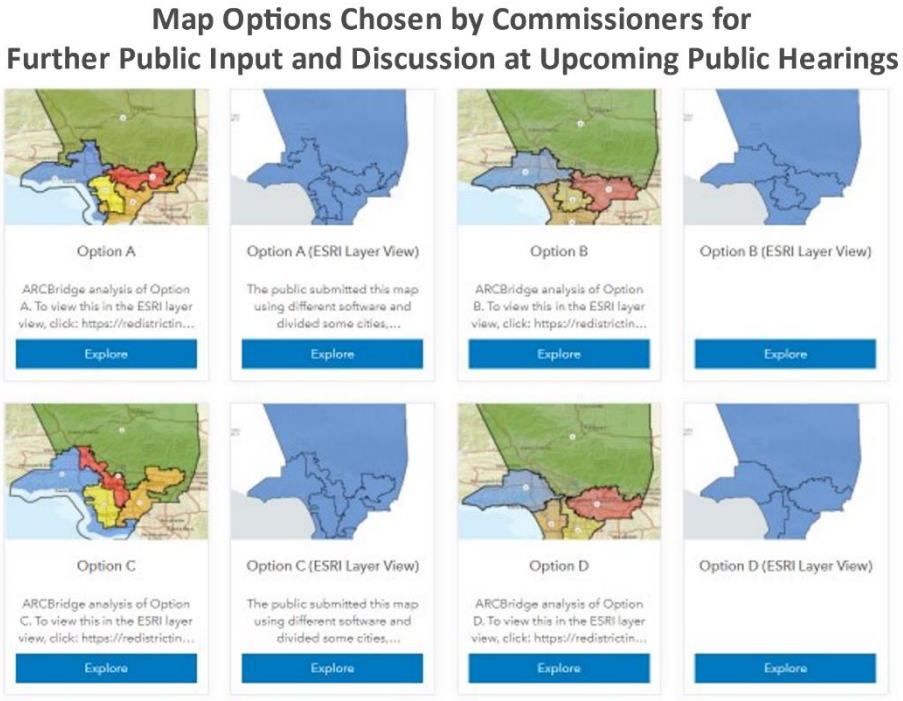

- Map 012 Prepared by the People's Block (Passed)
- Map 018 Prepared by Commissioner Brian Stecher (Passed)
- Map 023 Prepared by MALDEF (Passed)
- Map 015 Prepared by Faraz Aqil (Failed)
- Map 001 Prepared by Josh Rasmussen (Failed)
- Map 019 Prepared by Commissioner Brian Stecher (Passed)

The LA County CRC relabeled the initial maps options as Maps A, B, C, and D:

1. Map A (formerly Map 012)
2. Map B (formerly Map 018)
3. Map C (formerly Map 023)
4. Map D (formerly Map 019)

The four approved map options were posted on the map hub on the LA County CRC website at: CLICK HERE.[60]

Chapter B.8 describes the Public Hearings on map options.

RACIALLY POLARIZED VOTING (RPV) ANALYSIS

Other than constitutional compliance and ensuring a reasonably equal population among districts, compliance with the VRA has a higher priority than all other criteria listed in Elections Code Section 21534. Section 2 of the VRA prohibits electoral practices, including redistricting plans, that result in the denial or abridgment of the right of any citizen to vote on account of race or color, or membership in one of the language minority groups specified in Section 4(f)(2) of the VRA. Given the high priority placed on VRA compliance in establishing a map, the LA County CRC retained the services of Federal Compliance Consulting LLC (FCC) to perform RPV analysis. The team included:

- Bruce Adelson, Esq., Federal Compliance Consulting LLC; Instructor of Family Medicine, Georgetown University School of Medicine; Adjunct Professor of Law, University of Pittsburgh School of Law
- Dr. Jonathan N. Katz, Kay Sugahara Professor of Social Sciences and Statistics, Division of the Humanities and Social Sciences, California Institute of Technology

Dr. Katz and Bruce Adelson made multiple presentations to the Commission before it adopted the final map. The team's conclusions regarding racially polarized voting in Los Angeles County Supervisorial elections is set forth in their report in Appendix C.9. Mr. Adelson also opined on the final map's compliance with the VRA.

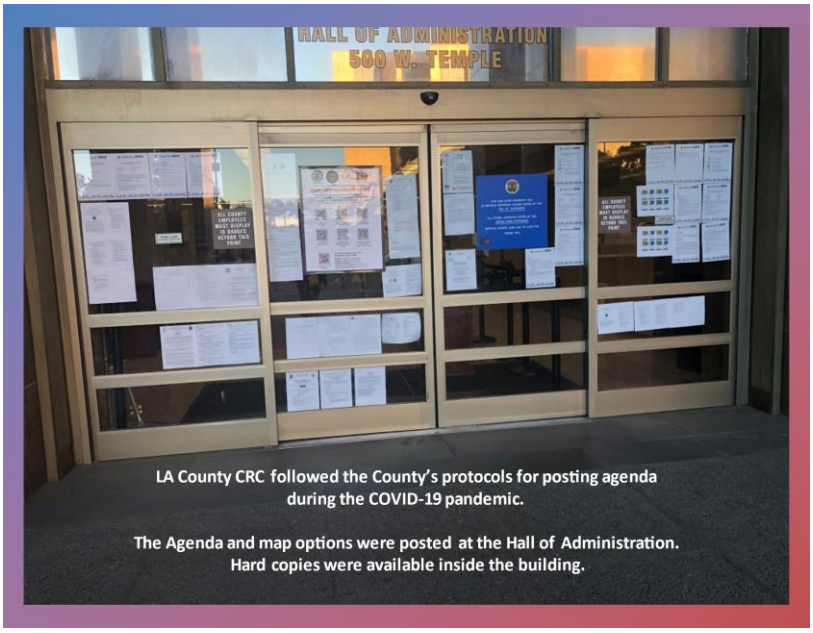

B.8 – PUBLIC HEARINGS ON MAP OPTIONS

PUBLIC HEARING REQUIREMENTS

The Elections Code requires that, after the LA County CRC draws a draft map, it must conduct at least 2 Public Hearings over no fewer than 30 days. The LA County CRC conducted 4 Public Hearings over a 30-day period.

In addition, the LA County CRC posted draft maps from the public as they came in. After each Public Hearing, the Commissioners made changes to some of the original proposed maps. The modified maps were posted in advance of any Public Hearings as they (or the one map if it is only one) evolved.

Throughout the year, in addition to posting all agenda on the LA County CRC website, the Executive Office posted agendas physically on the front doors to the Hall of Administration. The public could obtain hard copies of the agenda and maps inside the Hall of Administration.

LA County CRC followed the County's protocols for posting agenda during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Agenda and map options were posted at the Hall of Administration. Hard copies were available inside the building.

PUBLIC HEARING OVERVIEW

Public engagement and participation in the Public Hearings and meetings grew. Between November 1, 2021, and December 12, 2021, the LA County CRC held 14 meetings, including 4 Public Hearings. The LA County CRC conducted its special meetings similar to the Public Hearings in that the Commissioners continued to receive public input on map options under consideration.

Table B.8-1 displays participation rates during this time period for the 14 meetings for a total of 54 hours, averaging 4 hours in duration. Seven of the minutes lasted more than 3 hours; four meetings lasted more than 4 hours.

Approximately 1,676 individuals attended these 14 meetings/Public Hearings via the webinar and 1,587 watched the Public Hearings and meetings on YouTube, for a total of 3,263 viewers. The Commissioners and staff listened to 599 members of the public make oral presentations. The Commissioners and staff reviewed 3,800 written comments submitted during that same time period.

All maps being considered at Public Hearings were posted 7 days prior to the Public Hearing. The minutes[61] for all Public Hearings (and regular and special meetings) are posted on the LA County CRC website.

Public Hearing No. 1

The first Public Hearing was held labeled pm Maps A, B, C, and D on Sunday, November 7, 2021, at 1:00 p.m. Each of the four mapmakers provided an overview of their proposed maps and responded to Commissioners' questions. The Commissioners listened to public comments and then directed ARCBridge to make minor adjustments or "tweaks" to the maps, based on the public input.

Public Hearing No. 2

The second Public Hearing was held on Wednesday, November 17, 2021, at 6:30 p.m. The LA County CRC identified six map options, labeled Maps A-1, B-1, C-1, D-1, E, and F. Maps E and F were modifications of Map A-1. The Commissioners listened to public comments and then identified their top two map preferences (marked as "1"), including potential contenders (X) and the addition of other maps submitted (OP 044, OP 051, and OP 053).

The Commissioners discussed the rationale for their choices for continuation at a subsequent special meeting on November 22, 2021.

Public Hearing No. 3

Public Hearing No. 3 entailed the Commissioners listening to public comment – 100 public speakers – on the three maps under consideration. On the basis of the public testimony, the Commissioners agreed that the two Ad Hoc Working Groups for the map options should reconvene, and address issues raised by the public.

Public Hearing No. 4

Because of the lengthy testimony – 114 public speakers – the Commissioners decided to wait to discuss the map options until their scheduled special meetings. The Ad Hoc Working Groups were to incorporate the public input from Public Hearing No. 4 into their analys3s.

The Ad Hoc Working Groups prepared one map option each, which they presented at the next special meeting. One of the map options involved consolidation of two of the earlier maps into one map option. These two map options became the basis for further refinements.

FINAL MAP SELECTION

The final map is described in Chapter A.3.

(a) Commissioners shall meet all of the qualifications set forth in Elections Code section 21532.

Section 4.06 Ethics Training. Each Commissioner shall complete AB 1234 Local Officials Ethics Training offered by the Fair Political Practices Commission within 60 days of taking office and shall provide proof of completion to the Commission's legal counsel. Section 4.07 Vacancy.

(a) A vacancy may arise upon any of the following occurrences:

(1) Death or the three (3)-month or longer incapacity of a Commissioner;

(2) Submission of written notice to the Co-Chairs stating a Commissioner's intent to resign;

(3) Removal of a Commissioner by a recorded affirmative vote of nine (9) Commissioners, due to:

i. Three consecutive unexcused absences or five total unexcused absences in a calendar year. An unexcused absence means an absence which is not approved by a Co-Chair;

If possible, the Commission should select a replacement, if at all, from the pool of remaining qualified candidates from the initial Commissioners' selection process prescribed by Section 21532.

Section 4.08 Communications.

(a) Email. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Commissioner shall use the Commission-provided email address (@crc.lacounty.gov) for all communications involving Commission business. Each Commissioner shall encourage the public to use the Commissioner's official email address in all correspondence with the Commissioner. Commissioners may use their personal email address for outgoing email related to Commission business only if the Commissioner also copies their official email address in all such correspondence. Each Commissioner shall promptly forward all email related to Commission business sent to their personal email address to their official Commission email address unless the incoming email copied the Commissioner's official email address in the first instance.

vote of nine (9) Commissioners. Except as provided in this paragraph, no Commissioner shall make any statement or take any action taken on behalf of or in the name of the Commission. This does not prevent Commissioners from disseminating information in the name of the Commission regarding the time, place, or agendas of upcoming Commission meetings or hearings.

(c) Communications Outside of Open Meetings or Hearings.

(1) Prohibition Regarding LA County Supervisors. Except during a public meeting, workshop or hearing, a Commissioner shall not intentionally communicate with a member of the Board, an agent for a member of the Board, or any of a Board member's immediate family members regarding redistricting of Los Angeles County supervisorial districts (other than the time, place, or agendas of upcoming Commission meetings or hearings). A Commissioner shall promptly summarize and report any such communication that arises unintentionally to the Clerk of the Commission.

(2) Prohibition Regarding All Other Parties. Except during a public meeting, workshop or hearing, a Commissioner shall not intentionally communicate with a member of the public, organization, or interest group regarding the specific placement of supervisorial district boundaries in Los Angeles County. A commissioner shall promptly summarize and report any such communication that arises unintentionally to the Clerk of the Commission. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as prohibiting a Commissioner from communicating outside of a public meeting, workshop or hearing with a member of the public, an organization, or an interest group regarding best practices, accessibility, education, and outreach.

(3) Reporting Requirement for Other Communications. Except during a public meeting, workshop, or hearing, if a Commissioner directly communicates with anyone other than another Commissioner, LA County CRC staff, legal counsel, consultants retained by the Commission or experts to learn about general redistricting principles, regarding a redistricting matter that might come before the Commission other than the specific placement of district boundaries (which is covered in subparagraph (2) above), the Commissioner shall promptly forward originals or copies of all involved written or electronic communications to the Clerk of the Commission. For unrecorded verbal or other communication, a Commissioner shall promptly prepare a written summary of the communication and transmit the summary to the Clerk.

(4) Full Commission Awareness of Communications. The Clerk of the Commission shall electronically distribute copies of, or links to, all reports or other materials the Clerk receives pursuant to paragraph (1)-(3) above to all Commissioners and post a copy of each communication or report on a Commission-approved website within one full business day of receipt.

(5) Log of Communications. The Clerk of the Commission shall keep and post on a Commission-approved website a log of all substantive communications regarding redistricting or administrative matters received by the Commission or Commissioners outside of public meetings or hearings. This log shall include at least the following: the name of the person or organization communicated with, date of communication, and a general description of where the communication or a summary thereof can be located on a Commission-approved website.

(d) Information Regarding Meetings/Hearings. Nothing in this Section (4.08) prevents Commissioners from disseminating information regarding the time, place, or agendas of upcoming Commission meetings or hearings, and Commissioners are not required to report or disclose such communications under subsections (1)-(3) above.

(e) Internet/Social Media. Commissioners should keep in mind the provisions of Section 4.04 and are encouraged to use caution when communicating about redistricting on any internet platform or social media website, including the use of any digital icons that express emotion.

(e) To win an election, a candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast in that election. If no candidate receives a majority, a last-place candidate shall be eliminated from the election (in case of a tie, elimination shall be by lot), the previous votes shall be erased, and Commissioners shall cast new votes.

(f) Officers may serve multiple and/or consecutive terms.

(g) Commissioners may elect a new officer after the term of an officer expires, or to complete the term of an officer who resigns or otherwise vacates their office.

APPENDIX C.2 – COMMISSIONER SELECTION PROCESS

This Executive Director report outlines the process for selecting the County of Los Angeles Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC) Commissioners. The LA County CRC did not become an official commission until all 14 Commissioners were selected by the State's required deadline of December 31, 2020.

OVERVIEW

The LA County CRC was established by State legislation (Senate Bill (SB) 958), effective January 1, 2017.[1,2] LA County CRC's role is to redraw Supervisorial District boundaries following the Federal census.

The Commission is required to reflect the County's diversity, including racial, ethnic, geographic, and gender diversity. The applicants are required to demonstrate they possess the following experience:

- Analytical skills relevant to the redistricting process and voting rights
- An ability to comprehend and apply the applicable State and Federal legal requirements
- Ability to be impartial
- An appreciation for the diverse demographics and geography of Los Angeles County

The political party preferences of the LA County CRC Commissioners are not required to be exactly the same as the proportion of political party preferences among the registered voters of Los Angeles County; however, they must be as proportionate as possible.

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection process involved three phases, involving different review groups to reinforce the LA County CRC's independence from the BOS:

- Phase 1 – Screening of applications by the County of Los Angeles Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) to identify the pool of 60 most qualified applicants

[1] SB 958, Lara; Stats. 2016, Ch. 781

[2] The law governing the LA County CRC and the once-a-decade selection of its members is codified in Division 21, Chapter 6.3 (commencing with Section 21530) of the State Elections Code.

- Phase 2 – Random selection of eight Commissioners from the RR/CC's pool of 60 most qualified applicants by the County of Los Angeles Auditor-Controller
- Phase 3 – Selection of the final six Commissioners from the remaining 52 most qualified applicants by the eight randomly selected Commissioners

Phase 1 – Applications and Development of the 60 Most Qualified Applicant Pool

RR/CC received 741 applications by September 8, 2020. The RR/CC reviewed the applications and narrowed the applicant pool to 533 qualified applicants, based on specific requirements of Los Angeles County residency, voter registration, and election participation. The RR/CC separated demographic information from the review of subjective questions to eliminate potential bias. The RR/CC then assigned RR/CC staff to independently review the applications.

RR/CC identified the pool of 60 most qualified applicants, averaging 12 applicants per Supervisorial District. The purpose of the 30-day review period was to allow the public to identify any applicants who might not be qualified, based on the Election Code qualification requirements. The RR/CC submitted these names to the Auditor-Controller after the 30-day public review period.

Attachment A-1 lists the RR/CC's 60 most qualified applicants.[3]

Phase 2 – Random Selection of Eight Commissioners

The Auditor-Controller conducted random drawings during the BOS' meeting on November 24, 2020, selecting 1 Commissioner from each of the 5 existing Supervisorial Districts and 3 Commissioners randomly drawn from RR/CC's remaining 55 most qualified applicants.

Phase 3 – Selection of Six Additional Commissioners

In accordance with Elections Code section 21550(g), the 8 randomly selected Commissioners reviewed the RR/CC's remaining 52 applicants with the goal of selecting 6 additional Commissioners. To accomplish this goal, the Commissioners met during four public special meetings between December 14, 2020, and December 28, 2020. Recordings of each of these LA County CRC meetings can be viewed at:

- December 14, 2020, meeting: https://youtu.be/IpwG3X1ad8U
- December 21, 2020, meeting: https://youtu.be/Nc3K_2g8y6k
- December 26, 2020, meeting: https://youtu.be/DVFWpSkyUME
- December 28, 2020, meeting: https://youtu.be/glSNsypnVMY

At each public special meeting, the Commissioners received public comments regarding the process, RR/CC's list of most qualified applicants, and future considerations.

December 14, 2020, Special Meeting

The Commissioners considered five options for evaluating the remaining 52 applicants. They opted to use a holistic approach in which they read applications and rated applicants in terms of the applicants' overall analytical skills relevant to redistricting/voting rights, State and Federal legal requirements, impartiality, and appreciation of LA County's diverse demographics and geography. They agreed to:

- Ensure applicants had at least two Commissioners review their applications; each Commissioner reviewed 12 to 13 applications randomly assigned to him/her/them.
- Provide latitude to Commissioners to evaluate more of the RR/CC's most qualified applicants if they wanted to

The Commissioners agreed to apply a 10-point scale, displayed in Table 1, that distinguished gradations of the holistic criterion among the remaining 52 applicants.

Table 1: 10-Point Rating Scale for First Round of Commissioners' Evaluations

December 21, 2020, Special Meeting

The Commissioners acknowledged the valued experiences of the remaining 52 applicants. On average, the Commissioners each reviewed 27 applications for a total of 215 application reviews. Applications had an average of 4 Commissioner reviews.

Overall, 12 applicants (23% of the subpool) scored ratings of 8.0 or above; another 11 applicants (21% of the subpool) were in the 7.0 to 7.9 ratings range, as displayed in Table 2.

Table 2: Distributing of Commissioners' Ratings

Commissioners' Ratings	Remaining 52 Applicants
	Number	Percent
8.0 or above	12	23%
7.0-7.9	11	21%
6.0-6.9	15	29%
5.0-5.9	5	10%
4.0 or below	9	17%
Total	52	100%

The Commissioners initially focused on the applicants rated 7.0 and above on the 10-point rating scale to see if they could meet the other criteria within this group.

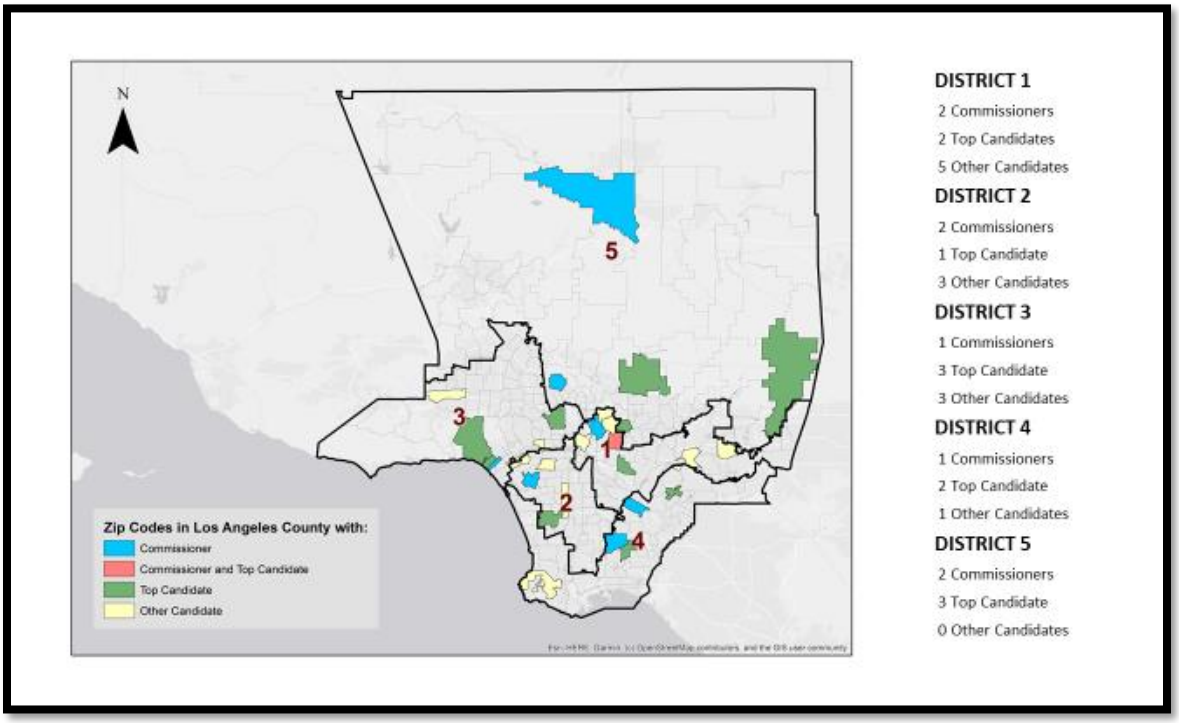

The LA County CRC application that each applicant submitted to RR/CC has a privacy waiver that allows the County to disclose the applicant's city and supervisorial district but does not permit release of their physical or mailing addresses. As a result, the LA County CRC Executive Director was able to obtain city or unincorporated area information for the 60 most qualified applicants for the December 21, 2020, meeting. The Attachment lists the location of the RR/CC's most qualified applicants (cities or unincorporated areas are in green).

Once the Commissioners reviewed these new data points, the Commissioners agreed to expand their discussions and deliberations of the remaining 52 qualified applicants to ensure the Los Angeles County political party affiliation and geographic and demographic diversity requirements were met. For example, some of the remaining 52 applicants rated 7.0 or higher resided in neighborhoods that were the same as or adjacent to the 8 Commissioners.

December 26, 2020, Special Meeting

The Commissioners analyzed a series of maps that LA County CRC staff developed that indicated the geographic location of the eight Commissioners and most qualified applicants under consideration.

This discussion led to the Commissioners refining their list of applicants and agreeing to each develop their own individual "Slate of 6" to share at the next meeting.

December 28, 2020, Special Meeting

The Commissioners shared their rationales for their Slates of 6. After further deliberations, a commissioner made a motion for a proposed Slate of 6, which was seconded and approved by a vote of seven to one among the Commissioners.

Table 3 lists the 14 Commissioners, listed alphabetically by last name.

SELECTED COMMISSIONERS' DEMOGRAPHICS

The Attachment presents additional information, including the Commissioners' political party affiliations, demographics, and geographic distribution.

Political Party Preference

The California Election Code requires that:

> "The commission shall consist of 14 members. The political party preferences of the commission members, as shown on the members' most recent affidavits of registration, shall be as proportional as possible to the total number of voters who are registered with each political party in the County of Los Angeles or who decline to state or do not indicate a party preference, as determined by registration at the most recent statewide election. However, the political party or no party preferences of the commission members are not required to be exactly the same as the proportion of political party and no party preferences among the registered voters of the county."[4]

As of January 5, 2021, RR/CC reports that Los Angeles County has 5.8-million registered voters.[5] Table 4 displays the political party affiliations of registered voters in Los Angeles County.

Table 4: Number of Registered Voters by Political Party Affiliation in Los Angeles County[6]

[4] Elections Code § 21532(c)

[5] Overall, 73% of the Los Angeles County population is over age 18 (n=7.3 million); thus, 79% of the eligible population are registered voters.

[6] Registrar-Recorder Voter Registration specific report, October 19, 2020: https://lavote.net/docs/RR/CC/election-info/LA_ROR_County_Summary_10192020.pdf

The Attachment lists the political party preferences (in purple) of the RR/CC's 60 most qualified applicants. Among the remaining 52 applicants, there was one Green Party member and none from the American Independent, Libertarian, or Peace & Freedom Parties.

The Commissioners discussed whether it would be unfair or unconstitutional to eliminate qualified applicants at this phase simply for being in a small party preference group. They then decided to follow the lead of the California Citizen Redistricting Commission and consider Not Democrat/Not Republican party preference. voters as a single group.[7] This "NDR" category includes all registered voters who are not registered as preferring either the Democratic or the Republican parties.

Table 5 displays the calculations the Commissioners used for considering political party affiliation makeup of the LA County CRC, considering three groups: Democrat, Republican, and NDR.

Table 5: Number of Registered Voters by Democratic, NDR, and Republican Political Party Affiliation in Los Angeles County

Republican	996,999	17.151%	17.2%
Totals	5,813,167	100.000%	100.0%

The Commissioners then focused on balancing the LA County CRC's political party affiliation based on this new breakdown and displayed in Table 6.

Reflection of LA County Diversity and Demographics

The law governing the Commission states that the Commission member:

> "…selection process is designed to produce a commission that is independent from the influence of the board and reasonably representative of the county's diversity."[8]

It requires that the first eight Commissioners appoint the final six Commissioners:

> "…based on relevant experience, analytical skills, and ability to be impartial, and to ensure that the commission reflects the county's diversity, including racial, ethnic, geographic, and gender diversity," without applying "formulas or specific ratios."[9]

To comply with the law, the eight Commissioners did not use such statistics to generate specific ratios or to develop or apply formulas. Commission staff prepared the next summary tables (Table 7 Through Table 10) after the final selection of Commission members.

Los Angeles County population demographics used for assessing this reflection in this report are based on the U.S. Census Bureau's most recent estimates: https://www.census.gov/quickfacts/fact/table/losangelescountycalifornia# (July 1, 2019).

The Attachment lists the demographic information (in blue).

Age Ranges

The Commissioners range in age from 31 to 73 years. In Los Angeles County, approximately 27% of the population is under age 18 and, therefore, not eligible to register to vote. Another 59% of the Los Angeles County population is between ages 18 and 64; 14% are age 65 or older.

Approximately 71% of the Commissioners are between age 30 and 64; 29% of the Commissioners are age 65 or older, as displayed in Table 7.

> At least one commission member shall reside in each of the five existing supervisorial districts of the board.

At least one Commissioner resides in each of the five Supervisorial Districts, as displayed in Table 10.

APPENDIX C.3 – FILLING A VACANCY PROCESS

This document supplements the "Commissioner Selection Process" report because of the resignation of former Commissioner Priya Sridharan on April 17, 2021, and her replacement by Commissioner Mary Kenney, effective May 19, 2021, on the County of Los Angeles Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC).

Please go to our website at https://redistricting.lacounty.gov/ for additional details:

- LA County CRC's purpose to redraw Supervisorial District boundaries following the Federal census and related information
- Commissioner Selection Process report available at: https://redistricting.lacounty.gov/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/CRC-Selection-Process-210127-FINAL-rev-2.pdf

PROCESS TO FILL VACANCY

The selection process involved the Co-Chairs Carolyn Williams and Dan Mayeda convening an Ad Hoc Working Group of three other Commissioners who volunteered: Commissioners Mark Mendoza, Saira Soto, and John Vento. Thus constituted, the Ad Hoc Working Group consisted of members who are registered Democrat, Republican, and Neither Democrat nor Republican (NDR). It also reflected a mixture of races/ethnicities and genders.

Because the vacancy created an increased imbalance in gender, the Ad Hoc Working Group focused on the remaining highly qualified applicants who were female. They each selected up to 5 top candidates, many of whom appeared on multiple lists. The Co-Chairs directed the Executive Director, Gayla Kraetsch Hartsough, to reach out to the tentative list of 7 top candidates who appeared on more than one Working Group member's list to confirm:

- Their continued interest and availability
- Their continued residency in Los Angeles County
- Their continued lack of any conflict of interest as per the Senate Bill requirements

Three of these candidates were eliminated from consideration because of potential conflicts of interest or residency changes.

This Ad Hoc Working Group engaged in a vigorous two-hour discussion to review the remaining candidates and ultimately reached consensus on their top candidate who they wished to put forward to the full Commission for approval: Mary Kenney. Co-Chair Williams reached out to Ms. Kenney to alert her that her name would be put forth at the May 12, 2021, regular meeting of the LA County CRC.

At the May 12, 2021, regular meeting, Co-Chair Mayeda outlined the process and Co-Chair Williams presented the qualifications and criteria that the Ad Hoc Working Group considered in recommending Mary Kenney to fill the Commissioner vacancy.

A motion was made and seconded. The motion was passed to appoint Mary Kenney as a Commissioner. She took her Oath of Office at a Special Meeting on May 19, 2021.

UPDATE ON COMMISSIONERS' DEMOGRAPHICS

With the addition of Commissioner Kenney, the demographics of the LA County CRC changed but continue to reflect the County's demographic profile.

Political Party Preference

The political party preferences of the LA County CRC Commissioners are not required to be exactly the same as the proportion of political party preferences among the registered voters of Los Angeles County; however, they must be as proportionate as possible.[10] With the resignation of Commissioner Priya Sridharan and replacement by Commissioner Mary Kenney, the LA County CRC's political party affiliations changed from 8 Democrats to 7 Democrats and from 2 Republicans to 3 Republicans, as displayed in Table 1. As Table 1 reveals, the final political party preferences in the Commission are as proportionate as reasonably possible to the registered voters in Los Angeles County.

[10] The California Elections Code § 21532(c) requires that: "The commission shall consist of 14 members. The political party preferences of the commission members, as shown on the members' most recent affidavits of registration, shall be as proportional as possible to the total number of voters who are registered with each political party in the County of Los Angeles or who decline to state or do not indicate a party preference, as determined by registration at the most recent statewide election. However, the political party or no party preferences of the commission members are not required to be exactly the same as the proportion of political party and no party preferences among the registered voters of the county."

Table 1: Los Angeles County Political Party Affiliations vis-à-vis 14 Commissioners

Political Party Affiliation	Percent of Registered Voters	Percentages Applied to 14	LA County CRC Commissioners
			Number	Percent
Democratic	52.449%	7.343	7	50%
NDR[11]	30.400%	4.256	4	29%
Republican	17.151%	2.401	3	21%
Totals	100.000%	14.000	14	100%

Reflection of LA County Diversity and Demographics

The Commission is required to reflect the County's diversity, including racial, ethnic, geographic, and gender diversity.[12] To comply with the law, the Commissioners did not use such statistics to generate specific ratios or to develop or apply formulas.[13]

Race/Ethnicity Representation

Table 2 displays the Commissioners' current racial/ethnic makeup with the change in Commissioners, compared to Los Angeles County. As Table 2 reveals, the final racial/ethnic makeup of the Commission is reasonably reflective of the County's diversity in terms of race and ethnicity.

Table 2: Comparison of Commissioner and Los Angeles County Racial/Ethnicity Demographics

Race/Ethnicity	# Commissioners	% Commissioners (rounded)	% of LA County
Hispanic/Latino/Latina/Latinx	6	43%	46%
Asian (incl. Pacific Islander)	2	14%	15%
White (Not of Hispanic Origin)	4	29%	25%
Black/African American	2	14%	9%
Other (incl. American Indian/Alaskan Native)		0%	5%

[11] Not Democrat/Not Republican (NDR) includes all registered voters who are not registered as preferring either the Democratic or the Republican parties.

[12] Elections Code § 21523(b) governing the Commission states that the Commission member: "…selection process is designed to produce a commission that is independent from the influence of the board and reasonably representative of the county's diversity."

Gender Representation

The gender profile of the 14 Commissioners remained unchanged: 8 male and 6 female Commissioners, as displayed in Table 3.

Table 3: Comparison of Commissioner and Los Angeles County Gender Demographics

Gender	# Commissioners	% Commissioners	% of LA County
Female	6	43%	50%
Male	8	57%	50%
Non-Binary	0

Supervisorial District Representation

Los Angeles County has 5 Supervisorial Districts, serving approximately 2 million individuals per District. If the 14 Commissioners were divided evenly, each District would have either 2 or 3 Commissioners. At least one of the 14 Commissioners resides in each of the five Supervisorial Districts, as required by law and displayed in Table 4.[14]

Table 4: Commissioners Residency, by Los Angeles County Supervisorial District

Supervisorial Districts	# Commissioners	% Commissioners	% of LA County
District 1	3	21%	20%
District 2	3	21%	20%
District 3	2	14%	20%
District 4	3	21%	20%
District 5	3	21%	20%

With the change in Commissioners, the number of Commissioners in District 4 changed from 2 to 3 and in District 5 from 4 to 3.

[14] Subdivision (c) states: At least one commission member shall reside in each of the five existing supervisorial districts of the board.

APPENDIX C.5 – OUTREACH PLAN

I – INTRODUCTION

The Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC) is charged with developing the 2021 Decennial Redistricting Plan. Redistricting is important to:

- Provide fair and effective representation for all the people of the County
- Enhance the opportunity of all voters to elect candidates of their choice
- Meet the requirements of applicable laws

The U.S. Census Bureau provides a snapshot of how many people there are and where they live. Every ten years, the United States attempts to count every person in the country in its Decennial Census, as mandated in the U.S. Constitution (Article I, Section 2). Because of COVID-19, the end date for the 2020 Decennial Census was extended to October 15, 2020.

Public Outreach Plan Purpose

The purpose of this Public Outreach Plan is to promote and urge participation by Los Angeles County residents in this important task through:

- A County Redistricting Website: www.redistricting.lacounty.gov
- Community outreach, including public hearings and workshops (Chapter II)
- A process for developing and submitting Redistricting Plans (Chapter III)
- A review process and public access to view submitted Redistricting Plans (Chapter III)

Chapter III also presents a Timetable for the public outreach and access initiative.

Overview

What is redistricting?

Every ten years, supervisorial districts must be redrawn so that each district is substantially equal in population. This process, called redistricting, is important in ensuring that each BOS Supervisor represents about the same number of constituents. In the County of Los Angeles, the LA County CRC is responsible for drawing these supervisorial districts. Redistricting is done using Census data, which is usually released around

March 31, 2021, but is expected to be delayed until June or July 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. For the County of Los Angeles, the redistricting process must be completed by December 15, 2021.

Why is redistricting important?

Redistricting determines which neighborhoods and communities are grouped together into a supervisorial district for purposes of electing a Board of Supervisor member. Our independent redistricting commission, made up of members of the public, are responsible for redrawing the next district map for our supervisorial districts. You have an opportunity to share how you think district boundaries should be drawn to best represent your community.

How is redistricting different this time?

In the past, the BOS appointed an advisory Boundary Redistricting Committee (BRC) to study proposed changes to the boundaries. The BOS could make revisions before adopting the final redistricted boundaries.

Today, the Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC) is independent of the BOS. In 2016, the California Legislature passed Senate Bill 158 requiring Los Angeles County to assemble an independent Citizens Redistricting Commission, following the Federal Decennial Census. The LA County CRC consists of 14 Commissioners. The LA County CRC is assisted in its work by staff, consultants, subject matter experts, and independent legal counsel.

How can the public participate safely in redistricting, given the COVID-19 pandemic?

The COVID-19 pandemic has affected everyone's lives, including how to effectively reach out to communities interested in redistricting.

The LA County CRC wants active public participation for input and dissemination of redistricting information. Individuals can sign up for meeting information at: www.redistricting.lacounty.gov

The public can attend and speak at virtual LA County CRC meetings and public hearings and submit maps with proposed Supervisorial District boundaries. The LA County CRC meetings and public hearings are also broadcasted live and recorded at: https://www.youtube.com/LACountyRedistricting/

How will LA County CRC work with trusted Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) to reach Los Angeles County's diverse communities?

The LA County CRC welcomes participation from individuals as well as organizations.

This Public Outreach Plan builds on lessons learned from the 2020 Census outreach during COVID-19. The LA County CRC outreach strategy is to build on County of Los Angeles departments, the 88 cities in the County, unincorporated areas, and other interested and trusted community-based organizations (CBOs).

The LA County CRC will provide toolkits in the County's 12 threshold languages, including:

- Ready-to-use talking points
- Electronic handouts and flyers
- Text to send messages via Twitter, Facebook, and other social media platforms

The LA County CRC will also reach out to local ethnic media outlets that routinely engage diverse communities.

COMMUNITY-BASED ORGANIZATIONS (CBOS) ARE TYPICALLY LOCAL NON-PROFIT GROUPS THAT WORK TO GENERATE IMPROVEMENTS WITHIN A COMMUNITY ON THE LOCAL LEVEL. CBOS MAY INCLUDE COMMUNITY, NONPROFIT, FAITH-BASED (CHURCHES AND RELIGIOUS GROUPS), LGBTQIA+, AND RACIAL/ETHNIC ORGANIZATIONS, AMONG OTHERS.

Where can Los Angeles County residents find information about LA County CRC?

Other LA County CRC information is available through:

- LA County CRC website: www.redistricting.lacounty.gov
- Videos recordings of LA County CRC meetings and public hearings at: https://www.youtube.com/LACountyRedistricting/
- Webinars of the 7 public hearings in the Spring 2021 and 2 public hearings in the Fall 2021
- Webinars on redistricting, mapping tools, and proposed redistricting map options

How will delays in the issuance of the 2020 Census data affect public outreach?

The deadline to complete the 2020 Census was extended. This extension directly affects redistricting efforts, particularly the availability of 2020 Census data. In turn, the delivery of the 2020 Census data will affect the amount of time available to analyze and develop redistricting maps – by the public and the Commissioners.

The LA County CRC Commissioners must approve the final Redistricting Plan and maps by December 15, 2021.

- The U.S. Census Bureau anticipates a release date of September 30, 2021, of the 2020 Census data.

- The State of California will then need 30 days to adjust the 2020 Census data to reflect actual residency of incarcerated individuals.

It is important that the LA County CRC outreach efforts begin this Spring to build momentum and increase involvement so that the public is ready to prepare and submit redistricting maps when the U.S. Bureau of the Census releases 2020 Census data.

For more information on LA County CRC and redistricting, go to: www.redistricting.lacounty.gov

II – PUBLIC ACCESS AND OUTREACH

Consistent with the commitment to promote public participation in the redistricting process, this Public Outreach Plan seeks to ensure the widest practicable participation and dissemination of pertinent redistricting information and materials.

LA County CRC Redistricting Website

The LA County CRC Redistricting Website will be the primary source to disseminate all redistricting information and materials, including online redistricting software for the public to develop and submit Redistricting Plans for LA County CRC consideration.

The LA County CRC redistricting website is: www.redistricting.lacounty.gov. Information posted includes:

- "Home Page," which provides an Introduction, sign-up for more information, and privacy/terms and addresses such questions as:
  - What is Redistricting?
  - Why is Redistricting important?
  - What criteria will be used for drawing district lines?
  - How can the public participate in Redistricting?
- "About Us," including the Selection Process, Commissioners, Bylaws and Values, and Commission Staff
- "Meetings," including:
  - 2021 Virtual Meetings
  - 2020 Meetings to Select Commissioners
  - Calendar for the Year

- "Community Outreach"
  - Public Outreach Plan
  - Spring Public Hearings
  - Fall Public Hearings
  - Press Releases
- "Making a Redistricting Map," including the current SD map and information about training and use of the mapping software
- "Want to Know More?" listing Legal Resources, Frequently Asked Questions, and Glossary of Terms

Users can access different foreign languages by using Google translator on the website.

The LA County CRC will initially have a soft launch of the website to announce its regular meetings, which will allow time to refine it. The hard launch of the website will occur in the Spring 2021 to promote the workshops and public hearings for widespread participation.

Other LA County CRC Communication Vehicles

In addition to the LA County CRC website, the public can contact LA County CRC by:

- Mail: Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission, P.O. Box 56447, Sherman Oaks, CA 91413
- Telephone: (818) 907-0397
- Email to the LA County CRC Executive Director: ghartsough@crc.lacounty.gov
- County of Los Angeles Executive Office: CommServ@bos.lacounty.gov for submission of written public comments

Building on Existing Organizational Networks

Given the rapid ramp up and the short timeframe for redistricting, the LA County CRC's best strategy is to work with agencies and organizations interested in redistricting that already have established networks and distribution channels.

To facilitate their involvement, the LA County CRC staff will:

- Build on the Census 2020, County departmental, CBO, business, and related networks
- Develop toolkits in multiple languages for promoting redistricting events

- Recruit a broad cross-section of organizations with distribution channels that can promote accessibility to the redistricting process and activities both through traditional channels and in languages beyond English

Toolkits

LA County CRC will develop toolkits in multiple languages for cities, agencies, and organizations to use to distribute redistricting information via their social networks (e.g., Twitter, Instagram, Facebook, WeChat), websites, pop-up events, and email.

Target Networks

The table lists the target networks, form of engagement, and contact resources. The Attachment lists many of these organizations as a starting point for public outreach. These organizations, among others, will be added through GovDelivery to ensure they receive timely information about LA County CRC meetings, workshops, public hearings, mapping opportunities, and other bulletins and updates.

These organizations will receive:

- Emailed notifications of LA County CRC agenda, meetings, public hearings, workshops, redistricting plan submission process, and other related information
- Toolkits in multiple languages to share with their databases and networks and post on their websites, Facebook pages, and other social media
- Invitation to the Outreach Workshops proposed for Spring 2021

Outreach Workshops

LA County CRC staff will organize two Outreach workshops this spring (probably March), prior to the outreach efforts of the first 7 public hearings.

- Outreach Workshop #1: Community-Based Organizations. Outreach Workshop #1 will focus on engaging CBOs. Given COVID-19, the contacts for some of these organizations may have changed and will need to be confirmed.
- Outreach Workshop #2: Cities, County Departments, and Other Governmental Agencies. Outreach Workshop #2 will involve the 88 cities, educational enterprises, County departments, and other governmental agencies so they are on board in supporting the LA County CRC's redistricting efforts.

The purpose of these two Outreach Workshops is to:

- Identify the organizations that are the "influencers"
- Solicit their input to refine the LA County CRC approach
- Solicit their involvement and support to help engage the diverse communities in Los Angeles County
- Explore how these organizations can support the public outreach efforts:
    - Coalition building
    - Digital, print, media outreach
    - Conducting redistricting mapping workshops
    - Building redistricting maps for LA County CRC consideration
    - Providing language translation support services
- Identify the organizations' reach in terms of communities of interest, Supervisorial Districts, racial/ethnic groups, and other demographic factors
- Pinpoint ways that residents who are not affiliated with an organization can locate organizations that align with their interests and that they might opt to work with
- Identify coverage gaps to pinpoint other organizations to recruit and involve in the redistricting activities

These gaps may be based on a variety of factors, such as:

- Age groups (e.g., young people, seniors, and older adults)
- Racial/ethnicity groups
- Geography (Supervisorial Districts or County regions (Note: The County has 8 Service Planning Areas (SPAs).))
- People with disabilities
- LGTBQ individuals and families
- Households with Limited English Proficiency (LEP)

- Addressing digital divide issues by enabling residents to work with trusted CBOs

Email Lists

To date, the LA County CRC Executive Director has compiled some emails lists for promoting the 7 public hearings in the Spring 2021 and subsequent LA County CRC activities, including the 2 public hearings in the Fall 2021:

Email Lists	Size
Current Distribution of LA County CRC Bulletins through GovDelivery	1,200
Los Angeles County 2020 Census	1,900
LA County CRC sign-ups	<100
Los Angeles City 88 Neighborhood Councils (DONE)
▪ Neighborhood Council Board members	1,800
2011 Border Redistricting Committee outreach	1,100
Media outlets	721

The LA County CRC will continue to use GovDelivery for distributing bulletins, flyers, updates, and notices via email. Commissioners may reinforce the communications by forwarding such LA County CRC information through their contacts and networks.

The assumptions are that:

- The database will grow as the 7 public hearings are launched this Spring 2021.
- If the participate levels in the 7 public hearings are low, the LA County CRC will consider other strategies to bolster involvement (e.g., stipends to CBOs to get the word out, increases to the media buy budget)
- The networks include a diverse cross-section of Los Angeles County, including cities, residents of cities and unincorporated areas, CBOs, special interest groups (e.g., voter rights, ethnic focus, community focus, handicapping conditions), business chambers, and others

Media Outlets and Media "Buys"

Approach to Media

The proposed approach to media for the LA County CRC involves a mix of traditional and non-traditional media to:

- Build awareness among Los Angeles County residents
- Drive residents to the website to learn about redistricting
- Motivate residents to attend public hearings and submit input into the redistricting maps
- Generate awareness about redistricting among residents, including residents who may be learning about redistricting for the first time
- Educate the community on the importance of providing fair and effective representation on the Board supervisors for the people residing in the County
- Leverage multi-cultural media to reach Los Angeles County's diverse populations

Rather than a scatter approach, the Public Outreach Plan focuses on a "zero in" approach within the community where our target audience works, lives, and plays. This approach allows the LA County CRC to increase messaging and expand our limited advertising budget.

Media Platforms Overview

Because of Los Angeles County's diverse demographics and fragmented media, the county's market is unique with different media consumption patterns and habits. Consumer patterns have also shifted during the pandemic. Residents are spending more time on their phones, computers, and tablets so digital promotion will be important. Similarly, residents are more apt to see promotional materials at grocery, convenience, and pharmacy stores versus malls and other popular venues of the past.

LA County CRC has budgeted $100,000 for media buys. Although that dollar amount may seem sizeable, it is not comparison to the actual cost of radio, TV, and social media. Therefore, a tactical approach for leveraging these dollars is vital. To leverage the available dollars, the LA County CRC will need to vary the advertising media mix depending on the needs.

Some of the media platforms that may or may not be included in the mix are described next.

Television

Television is the most trusted form of advertising, generating mass target audience reach. Television allows an organization to convey the message with sight, sound, and motion, which gives instant credibility. According to recent studies on media consumption habits of average Americans and despite the internet's steady rise in popularity during the last few years, television remains a dominant medium in most U.S. households. On average, the general population spends more than 3.5 hours per day in front of their television, making TV watching one of the most common modern leisure activities.

Radio

Radio is a frequency building medium when used in conjunction with visual mediums. Radio reinforces messaging and helps increase frequency levels. Besides the typical radio spots, digital (mobile/desktop), social media (Facebook and Instagram), and community affairs on-air interviews will be considered.

Outdoor Advertising

Outdoor advertising is a branding reinforcement delivery vehicle, which is highly geographically targetable and reinforces other media platform messages. Outdoor advertising reinforces the message when viewers are away from their homes during the course of daily activities and when combined with TV and radio, reaches a mobile audience, and can offer a layer of sight and sound.

Newspapers

Newspapers have a longer shelf-life medium. Local newspapers help add credibility and legitimacy to any brand or messaging. Newspaper supports outdoor and online platforms to provide further details about redistricting messaging. Some key values of newspaper are that the ads can be saved for future reference and discussion. Newspapers also provide a visual channel that increases message frequency and target reach among those residents not already reached by other media platforms. Newspapers can potentially reach stakeholders, city officials, and community influencers.

Social Media Networks

In addition to leveraging the social networks of the various CBOs, County departments, and cities, the LA County CRC may want to build its own social networks, such as: LA County CRC Facebook page, LA County CRC Instagram, or Hashtags (e.g., #redistrictinglacounty2021 or #redistrictinglacounty).

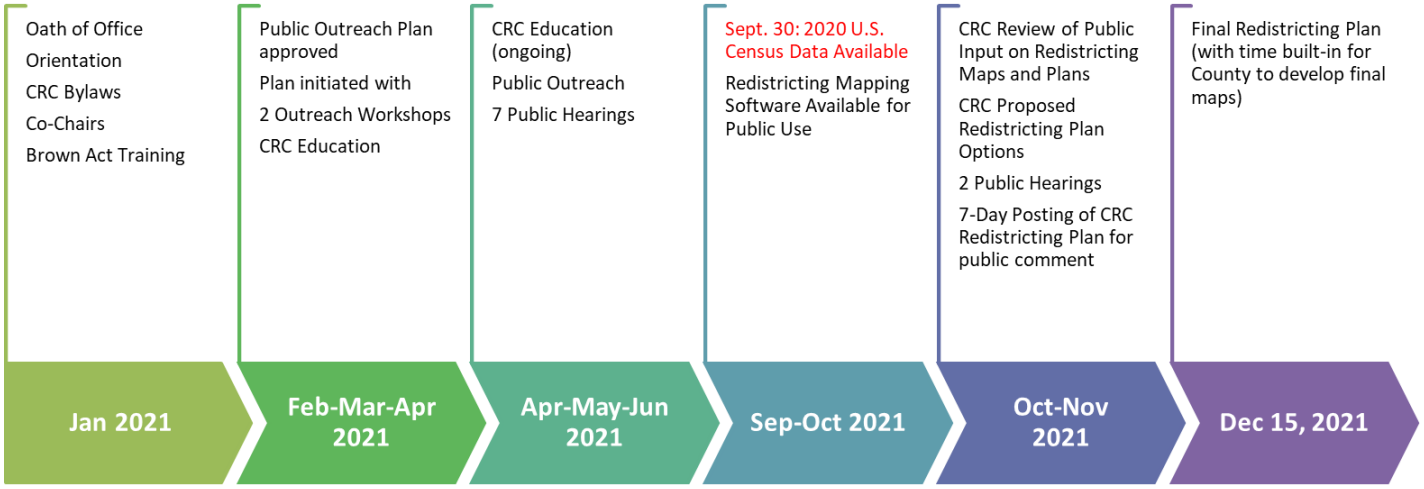

The LA County CRC could also explore other forums and platforms (e.g., Next Door, Zócalo Public Square) as a means to reach County residents through other vehicles.

III – PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT

Overview

Seven public hearings will occur before the LA County CRC begins any remapping of the Supervisorial Districts. Once the 2020 Census data and mapping software are available, the public can develop maps for submission and consideration by the LA County CRC. On the basis of this input, the LA County CRC will develop its proposed redistricting map(s) for further feedback. Two public hearings will occur prior to the LA County CRC's final adoption of a Los Angeles County 2021 Decennial Redistricting Plan by December 15, 2021.

A listing of all scheduled LA County CRC meetings and Public Hearings, as well as recordings and summaries of them, will be posted on the LA County CRC website at: www.redistricting.lacounty.gov

LA County CRC meetings and public hearings will be conducted virtually and broadcasted live on YouTube because of COVID-19 until further notice: https://www.youtube.com/LACountyRedistricting/ Because the public hearings will be virtual, we can conduct survey polls of attendees to identify how many attended, by Supervisorial District.

Threshold Languages

County of Los Angeles commissions request 72-hours notification for translation services for regular and special meetings.

The Election Code requires that the LA County CRC provide translation services within 24-hours notification for the 7 public hearings in the Spring 2021 and the 2 public hearings in the Fall 2021. The threshold is "a language for which the number of residents of the County of Los Angeles who are members of a language minority is greater than or equal to 3 percent of the total voting age residents of the county." As a result, the threshold languages in Los Angeles County are:

1. Armenian	7. Tagalog/Filipino
2. Chinese	8. Vietnamese
3. Cambodian/Khmer	9. Hindi
4. Farsi	10. Japanese
5. Korean	11. Thai
6. Spanish	12. Russian

In Los Angeles County, approximately 25% of the population is characterized as Limited English Proficiency (LEP). These 12 threshold languages represent 96% of Los Angeles County's LEP population. The remaining 4% of the LEP population speak more than 100 different languages and represent approximately 97,000 residents.

The Webinar platform allows the capability to provide links to interpreters who can simultaneously translate the public hearings: 80% volume for the interpreters and 20% volume for the speakers so individuals can listen to both if they like.

Similarly, if requested, the LA County CRC will retain American Sign Language (ASL) interpreters with magnified screens to provide simultaneous interpreting during the LA County CRC Zoom virtual meetings, workshops, and public hearings.

Timetable

With the latest update from the U.S. Bureau of the Census will not be releasing the 2020 Census data until September 30, 2021, the LA County CRC will have more time to hold the initial 7 public hearings, but a compressed timeline for the public to submit plans, the LA County CRC to review them, and the Commissioners to prepare their proposed LA County CRC Redistricting Mapping Plan.

Redistricting Map Submissions

Criteria for Redistricting Maps

District lines will be adopted using the following criteria in order of priority:

1. Each district shall be reasonably equal in total resident population to the other districts, except where deviation is required to comply with the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 or allowable by law.

2. Districts shall comply with the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965.
3. Districts shall be geographically contiguous.
4. The geographic integrity of city, local neighborhood, or community of interest shall be respected in a manner that minimizes its division.
5. To the extent practical, and where it does not conflict with numbers 1-4 above, districts shall be drawn to encourage geographic compactness.

Besides the above criteria, districts shall not be drawn for purposes of favoring or discriminating against an incumbent, political candidate, or political party.

Submission Time Frame

The LA County CRC will be reviewing submitted Redistricting Plans beginning in late August 2021.

- Redistricting Plans may be submitted electronically using the County-provided redistricting software or by other means.
    - The redistricting software will review plans to ensure they conform with the redistricting criteria, legal requirements, and quality checks. If they plans have an issue, the software will alert the user regarding the problem area(s) to address before submitting.
- Redistricting Plans submitted not using the County's redistricting software will require LA County CRC staff time to review to ensure the maps conform to the redistricting criteria and legal requirements. Proposers may resubmit Redistricting Plans that have been revised as a result of the LA County CRC analysis.

The LA County CRC will review the majority of the submitted redistricting maps during September 2021.

Review Process

- Any Redistricting Plans submitted will remain available for LA County CRC consideration.
- Redistricting Plans submitted to the LA County CRC are subject to the deliberations of the LA County CRC and may be revised or modified as the Commissioners deem appropriate.
- Proposers may request to rescind submitted Redistricting Plans; rescinded Redistricting Plans will be noted to the LA County CRC.
- Redistricting Plans must be submitted in advance of a scheduled LA County CRC meeting to be properly noticed, reviewed, and placed on the LA County CRC agenda. Redistricting Plans submitted at a meeting of the LA County CRC cannot be considered at the meeting.
- All Redistricting Plans submitted to the LA County CRC will be made available for public review after a reasonable time following submittal.

- Specific Redistricting Plans may be considered at LA County CRC meetings. Proposers may wish to attend the meetings and testify on their Redistricting Plans. Attendance by proposers, however, is not required.

IV – REDISTRICTING PLAN OPTIONS

On the basis of the public's input:

- The LA County CRC will then develop their proposed Redistricting Plan option(s).
- Two Public Hearings are scheduled for Fall 2021. The purpose of these Public Hearings will be for the purpose of public input on the LA County CRC's Redistricting Plan option(s).

Other Options for Redistricting Plan Submissions

In the event that an individual or an organization does not want to use the free redistricting mapping software, proposed Redistricting Plans may also be submitted:

By mail:
Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission
P.O. Box 56447
Sherman Oaks, CA 91413

By hand delivery (9:00 am – 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday):
KH Consulting Group (Attn.: LA County CRC)
1901 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 200

Metrics

The LA County CRC staff will track at a minimum:

- Numbers attending each Public Hearing, including distribution by Supervisorial District
- Frequency of requested interpreters, by language, for Public Hearings
- Number of redistricting maps submitted
- Email reach (tracked through GovDelivery) (e.g., size of outreach, based on emails in database and number of emails opened, bounced-back, etc.)

Other Community-Based Census 2020 Initiatives

The State of California provided special funding for CBOs to do the grassroots outreach. California Community Foundation (CCF) received the funding for Los Angeles County to coordinate the outreach.[20] The focus of the Census 2020 outreach effort was on the "Hard-to-Count" communities in Los Angeles County. The outreach effort evolved eight regions (not the 5 supervisorial districts) with different organizations as the "leads." A map of these eight regions and a list of the involved CCF CBOs are available at: https://wecountla.org/our-partners/

Region	Lead Organization
1. Metro LA	Advancement Project CA
2. Antelope Valley + Santa Clarita Valley	Antelope Valley Partners for Health
3. South LA + South Bay	Community Coalition
4. San Gabriel Valley	LA Voice
5. Long Beach	Long Beach Forward
6. San Fernando Valley	Pacoima Beautiful
7. Pomona Valley	Pomona Day Labor Center
8. Southeast LA	SELA Collaborative

Other CBOs Identified

The Commissioners have begun to identify gaps in the Census 2020 listing, including:

- Brotherhood Crusade
- Calvary Baptist Church of Hawthorne
- Central Lutheran Church – Van Nuys
- Christ Liberation Ministries
- Church One Long Beach
- City of Refuge LA Church
- Ezrach Foundation
- Faith and Community Empowerment (FACE LA)
- Faith Central Bible Church
- Faithful Central Bible Church
- Holman United Methodist Church

[20] Other funders of "We Count LA" included the Weingarten Foundation, James Irvine Foundation, Balmer Group, California Endowment, SMIDT Foundation, Libra Foundation, Mind and Gene Stein, California Wellness Foundation, State of California, City of Los Angeles, Roy and Patricia Disney Family Foundation, and California Community Foundation.

- Jobs Create Peace
- Los Angeles County American Jobs Centers of California (AJCC)
- Mt. Tabor Church
- Our Weekly Newspaper
- Progressive Christian United Church
- Progressive Community Church of Inglewood
- South Bureau Ministerial Alliance
- Southern Christian Leadership Conference
- Southern Christian Leadership Conference
- West Angeles Church of God in Christ Church

This list will grow as this Public Outreach Plan is implemented and word gets out about the upcoming workshops, public hearings, and opportunities to submit redistricting maps.

State-Level Coalitions

For the upcoming 2021 California redistricting process, the State of California has at least three coalitions forming. For example, CA Common Cause is partnering with other organizations to co-convene the Redistricting California Collaborative: click here.[21] Their initiative builds on their 2011 work and involves the relaunching of ReDrawCA.org to help residents understand and navigate California's redistricting process.

APPENDIX C.6 – SUMMARY OF COI HYPOTHESES

Executive Director Gayla Kraetsch Hartsough, Ph.D., prepared a report on the COI hypotheses developed by the Commissioner Teams. This report was discussed as part of Agenda Item 6a for Wednesday, October 6, 2021, at a special meeting.

INTRODUCTION

The LA County CRC is in charge of drawing the lines for the five supervisorial districts for the Board of Supervisors (BOS). At this point, the Commissioners are only developing hypotheses – speculations of what are commonly held Communities of Interest (COI). These COI hypotheses are based on input to date and may not reflect the full range of public sentiment.

The LA County CRC listened to public testimonies, reviewed submitted COI forms, and have received letters from cities, governmental entities, councils of governments, nonprofit organizations, and community-based organizations (CBOs) who represent large numbers of stakeholders. For example, the South Bay Council of Governments alone represents 16 cities and all of their residents.

The Commissioners also know that they have received limited or no input from some communities who may be interested in supervisorial redistricting in Los Angeles County. The LA County CRC wants them to know that the Commissioners want to hear from them. Therefore, these hypotheses will be subject to updates and changes, based on additional input from the public.

The COI hypotheses are an important starting point for the next mapping phase of the LA County CRC. Review of the COI hypotheses can be:

- Reviewed and commented on by the public (add/delete community names or adjust boundaries)
- Further tested to see if the public agrees
- Refined based on public input
- Drawn by ARCBridge on a map
- Used as possible building blocks for redistricting maps
- Used to guide further review of redistricting maps submitted

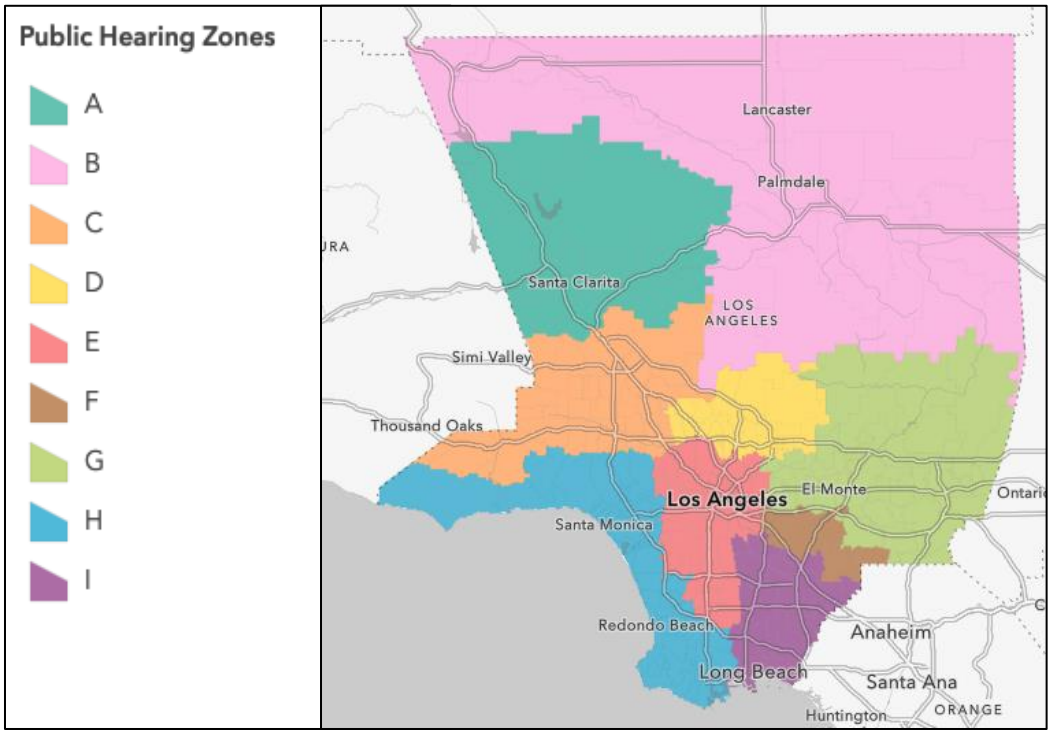

PUBLIC HEARING ZONES

Between June and September 2021, the LA County CRC held 12 public hearings, including on-site and hybrid public hearings, in each of the 5 SDs and in Spanish with translators for English-only speakers.

The La County CRC solicited input around geographic clusters, referred to as Zones, displayed in the Zone Map. These Zones in no way reflect how the final SDs may be drawn. The Zones were merely established for convenience so that the LA County CRC could group input from smaller geographic areas.

The public can identify their Zone by entering the names of cities, unincorporated areas, neighborhoods, or street by using the blue tab "FIND YOUR PUBLIC HEARING ZONES" on the LA County CRC website: https://redistricting.lacounty.gov/public-hearings/.

COI INPUT TO DATE

The LA County CRC website displays all the COI information received to date, by zone and zip codes: https://redistricting.lacounty.gov/public-hearings/

The orange bar "CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD THE ENTIRE CATALOG OF COMMUNITIES OF INTEREST (COI) INPUT" allows Commissioners and the public to download the catalog of all comments as an Excel spreadsheet for sorting and analysis purposes.

- Comments in white reflect public input between December 2020 and August 2021, including the first 10 public hearings.
- Some individuals made two or more public testimonies, frequently making the same points at each public hearing.
- Comments in grey were made in Spanish. Both the original Spanish and English interpretations are listed.
- Comments in blue were compiled from the California CRC public hearings by Commissioner Mary Kenney.
- Comments in lilac reflect public input between September 1, 2022, and September 21, 2021, including the second to last public hearing.
- Comments in green reflect public submitted between September 22, 2022, and September 29, 2021, including the last public hearing

North Country: AV and SCV

Zone	Community Name	Hypothesis	Team
B	North County/ AV	Keep North LA County together: Lancaster and Palmdale share overlapping services	1
B	North County/ AV	Divide the North County area into three north-south "stripes" (regions) per "Three Stripes Keeping Spheres of Influence (SOIs) Whole" plan prepared in Redistricting Online by Comm'r Holtzman (see provided shape map). Roughly, one stripe would include Santa Clarita, Stevenson Ranch and Newhall, and areas to the north; a second stripe would include Lancaster and Palmdale and their official "Spheres of Influence," extending south to the hills northeast of San Fernando and north of La Cañada Flintridge; and a third stripe would include areas to the east-southeast of the second, extending to the hills above Claremont.[28]	3
B	North County/ AV	Keep Lancaster, Palmdale, and entire North County area with Santa Clarita	3
B	North County/ AV	Keep Littlerock + Pearblossom + Sun Village + Southeast Antelope Valley together, as distinct from incorporated Palmdale, but not necessarily placed in a different district.	3
B	North County/ AV	Put into a North County region not only Santa Clarita, but also some of the western SF Valley areas including Sylmar, communities along the 118 (Granada Hills, Porter Ranch), and further south but West of Topanga Canyon Blvd (Chatsworth, West Hills, Hidden Hills, Calabasas, Agoura Hills, Westlake Village, Malibu)	3
A	North County/ AV, SCV, West SFV	Keep the North LA County Cities together: Lancaster, Palmdale, Santa Clarita, West SFV	1
A	North County/ SCV & AV	Keep the Santa Clarita Valley with the Antelope Valley and the rest of the North County. This includes Castaic, Castaic Lake, Lancaster, Palmdale, Agua Dulce, and Canyon Country, Santa Clarita, Stevenson Ranch, Acton, Hasley Canyon and surrounding unincorporated areas.	5
A	North County/SCV + SFV	If it is necessary to include more people than North County, add portions of the northern San Fernando Valley, maybe including Chatsworth, Granada Hills, Porter Ranch, and maybe even including Burbank and Glendale.	5
A	North County/SCV, Not SFV	If it is necessary to include more people than North County, do not include parts of the San Fernando Valley.	5

[28] This hypothesis would allow including each stripe in a separate supervisorial district, to ensure that North County is represented by more than one supervisor, as several commenters desire. See Illustration 1.

Sea Coastal Communities

Zone	Community Name	Hypothesis	Team

H	Sea/ South of LAX	South of LAX, West of I-405 and I-110. El Segundo, Torrance, Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, Palos Verdes Estates, Rancho Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills Estates, Rolling Hills.[35] South of LAX could be combined with South Bay Inland.	5
H	Sea/ Westside South	Santa Monica, Culver City, Mar Vista, West LA, Venice, Playa del Rey, Marina del Rey, Ballona Creek, LAX, Westchester.[36]	5

The Proposer will provide a final report documenting the process and the end result.

The final map will be delivered by December 15, 2021, and comply with the following requirements:

2. Districts shall comply with the VRA.
3. Districts shall be geographically contiguous requiring knowledge of Los Angeles County cities and unincorporated areas.
4. The geographic integrity of any city, local neighborhood, or local community of interest shall be respected in a manner that minimizes its division to the extent possible without violating the requirements of paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive.

   (A community of interest is a contiguous population that shares common social and economic interests that should be included within a single district for purposes of its effective and fair representation. Communities of interest shall not include relationships with political parties, incumbents, or political candidates.)

County of Los Angeles is providing the ESRI redistricting mapping software. The Proposer should:

- Provide all of its own equipment such as, but not limited to, computing and telephonic equipment
- Set its own schedule to complete the tasks and deliverables by the assigned deadlines

The Proposer retains the ability to provide contract services for other entities but shall not engage in any conflict of interest relating to the specific requirements for the LA County CRC redistricting process. The Proposer should not undertake any other contract work that might conflict with the ability to meet the LA County CRC's deadlines.

V.C – LA County CRC Contract and Invoicing Policy

On behalf of the LA County CRC, the contract will be made between the LA County CRC-selected Proposer and KH Consulting Group (KH) and KH's assigned LA County CRC Executive Director, Gayla Kraetsch Hartsough.

The LA County CRC will be named in the Proposer's contract with KH as the contract's intended beneficiary.

The Demographic and Mapping Consultant should submit monthly invoices, outlining the work performed, hours, and costs, to KH. The LA County CRC Co-Chairs may review the invoices before payment and may request additional documentation as a condition of payment.

KH will remit payment for the Demographic and Mapping Consultant's invoice once KH receives reimbursement from the County of Los Angeles.

APPENDIX C.9 – RACIALLY POLARIZED VOTING ANALYSIS

Los Angeles County Racially Polarized Voting Analysis for 2021 Redistricting

Bruce Adelson, Esq., and Jonathan N. Katz, Ph.D.

December 15, 2021

1 Introduction

This report presents results of a racially polarized voting analysis of elections for the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. We analysed all contested Board of Supervisors elections between 2012 and 2020, both the top-two primaries and general elections.

The election analysis reveals some statistical evidence of racially polarized voting (RPV). However, the RPV is not legally cognizable because cohesion is inconsistent and non-minority voters do not vote as a bloc to usually defeat minority preferred candidates.

The next section reviews the methods for estimating voting behavior from aggregate data. This is referred to as ecological inference in the statistics and social science literature. The next section then discusses the results of the analysis of the Board of Supervisor selections. The final section discusses the implications of this analysis.

2 Methods for Ecological Inference

The problem of inferring voting behavior from aggregate information is known as ecological inference. We are interested in estimating how groups of voters, say Latinos and Others (i.e., non-Latinos), voted in a given election when all we observe are the precinct-level returns and the demographic make-up of the precincts.

2.1 Homogenous Precincts and the Method of Bounds

A common starting point is to consider only homogeneous precincts. That is, we could examine the election results from precincts that are closest to racially/ethnically homogeneous in character. For example, if a precinct were completely homogeneous, say with a population that was 100% Latino, then we know what fraction of Latinos that voted for a given candidate in the precinct: it is just the share the given candidate got in the precinct. While this might be a useful starting point, as a statistical procedure it is problematic since it throws out most of the data unless most of the precincts are homogeneous.

However, we can use the intuition from the homogeneous precincts to place bounds on the level of support each group gives a candidate. Consider the following equation, which is true by definition, that relates the vote share of given candidate to the voting behavior of Latinos and Others (i.e., non-Latinos):

$$V_i = \lambda_i^L X_i + \lambda_i^O (1 - X_i), \tag{1}$$

where V_i is the share of the vote a given candidate received in precinct i, X_i is the fraction of Latinos in the precinct and therefore $(1 - X_i)$ is the fraction of Other voters, assuming for the moment that there are only two groups in the electorate. λ_i^L is the fraction of Latinos voting for the given candidate and similarly λ_i^O is the fraction of Others voting for the given candidate. In other words, the equation states the fact that the total vote share for a candidate must equal the proportion of Latino voters who support them multiplied by the proportion of the electorate that is Latino plus the proportion of the Other voters who support the candidate multiplied by the proportion of the electorate which is Other.

In the case of only two groups — e.g., Latinos and Others – and only two candidates, then racially polarized voting occurs when λ_i^L and λ_i^O are on opposite sides of 0.5 — e.g., $\lambda_i^L > 0.5$ and $\lambda_i^O < 0.5$. That is, a majority of one group voting for one candidate and the majority of the other group voting for the opposite candidate. If this holds, then the larger the difference between support levels, the greater the level of polarization. Of course, since we are dealing with statistical estimates, this difference must be greater than the statistical uncertainty in the estimates.

Now consider homogeneous Latino precincts again. In these precincts, $X_i = 1$, so that the equation simplifies to $V_i = \lambda_i^L$ as we stated above. However, from these precincts we can not say anything about the voting behavior of Others because any proportion of Others voting for a given candidate is consistent with the observed vote shares in these precincts. We can generalize this idea using Equation 1. Consider, for example, a precinct where $X_i = 0.6$, that is sixty percent of voters are Latino (and, therefore, 40% are Other), and the candidates vote share, V_i, is 0.5.

Since 60% of the voters are Latino and the given candidate got 50% of the vote, then at most $\frac{5}{6}$ths of the Latino voters could have voted for the candidate. If it were higher than this bound, then the vote share in the precinct would have to be higher. On the other hand, even if all of the Others voted for the candidate, then at least $\frac{1}{6}$th of the Latinos would have had to vote for the candidate as well, otherwise the vote share would have been less than 0.5. Thus, we know that proportion of Latinos voting for the candidate, λ_i^L, must be greater than $1/6$ and less than $5/6$ and λ_i^O can take on any value between zero and one. We actually know more than this: we know that the feasible values for this district must lie on the line segment, called a constraint line, defined by the bounds $(\frac{1}{6}, 1)$ and $(\frac{5}{6}, 0)$. Using standard algebra by plugging in $X_i = 0.6$ and $V_i = 0.5$, we find that $\lambda_i^{OW} = -\frac{3}{2}\lambda_i^L + \frac{5}{4}$.

Duncan and Davis (1953) fully developed the method of bounds outlined above to analyze ecological data. Unfortunately, with a large number of precincts, it is difficult to make much direct use of these bounds since we need a way to combine them to understand typical behavior in the district. These bounds do, however, provide useful information as we will see below.

2.2 Ecological or Goodman's Regression

An alternative approach that examines all precincts simultaneously was developed by Goodman (1959) and is perhaps the most commonly used procedure. It is referred to in the literature as ecological regression or Goodman's regression. Like the method of bounds, it is based on the identity in Equation 1. Suppose that the fraction of support for a given candidate for both Others and Latinos was the same across all precincts in the district. A bit more formally, suppose that $\lambda_i^L = \lambda^L$ and $\lambda_i^O = \lambda^O$ for every precinct i. Then we could estimate these fractions by choosing the best fitting line to the precinct-level data. This is just a standard linear regression, the most commonly used statistical procedure in the social sciences. From these estimates we could then compare the voting behavior between groups.

It is important to note that ecological regression can produce widely inaccurate estimates of group voting behavior (King 1997). First, the assumption that the fraction of group support is constant across every precinct is highly implausible. Second, ecological regression does not use the bounds information either at the precinct level (discussed above) nor even the overall bounds that the average fraction of a group's support for a given candidate must be between zero and one. For example, ecological regression analysis can produce negative estimates for the fraction of a group supporting a particular candidate or values greater than 100%

2.3 Ecological Inference/EI

King (1997) has developed an alternative approach called Ecological Inference or EI. While the technical details are complex, its advantage is that it uses all available information to generate more accurate estimates of voting behavior from aggregate data. EI is basically a way to combine the regression approach of Goodman (1959) with the bounds from Duncan and Davis (1953). Further, it allows the estimates to vary (systematically) across precincts. The idea is we calculate the constraint lines for every precinct. We then choose as our estimate for a given precinct a point on its constraint line near the center of the intersection of all of the other lines. The actual point chosen is based on a standard statistical model. We can then use these precinct estimates to calculate quantities of interest such as the average support level across the district.

It is important to note that since King's method relies heavily on the bounds information, it works best when at least some of these bounds are informative — i.e., narrower than the entire range from 0 to 1. This will happen when more precincts have large proportions of each of the groups whose voting behavior we want to estimate. In other words, we will need some precincts that are relatively homogeneous for each ethnic group we want to study.

2.4 More than Two Groups or Two Candidates

The above discussion on the development of methods for ecological inference assumed that we only had two groups and two candidates (or vote choices). Accommodating more than two groups is rather straight-forward, although notation and intuition become more complicated, especially for the constraint lines. All that is required is adding the additional group fractions to Equation 1.

Allowing for more than two candidates or vote choices, however, is a bit more complicated. In the special case of only two choices, we only need to model the vote share going to one of them since we then automatically know the fraction going to the other candidate: this is just one minus the first vote share. If, for example, we add a third choice, then we need to model the vote share going to any two of the options and then we get third by subtracting the sum of the other two shares from one. Formally, we need to add an additional equation for each vote choice greater than two. Typically, there will always be more than two vote choices even when there are only two candidates because some individuals will choose not to vote in the election. We need to account for this abstention in order to make proper inferences. However, since what we care about is the share of voters supporting each of the candidates, we need to condition out these non-voters. This is not straight-forward, but can be done once we estimate the full set of options: don't vote or vote for one of the candidates on the ballot.

In the general case of more than two groups and more than two vote choices, racially polarized voting is also a more complicated concept. If we only have two choices, then we get voting cohesion among each group automatically since one of the choices must receive a majority of support from the members (ignoring the unlikely event of an exact tie in the election). However, when we have more than two choices, it is possible that no choice receives majority support of the group. In fact, given the estimation uncertainty, it may not be possible to infer which candidate is preferred by the members of the group.[1] Even if we find that the groups both have a strictly preferred candidates (i.e., they are cohesive), we still need to see if the distribution between the groups is statistically different to find racially polarized voting.[2]

I finally note that adding additional groups and vote choices to King's (1997) EI is not straight-forward. The generalization was first developed by King, Rosen, and Tanner (1999). Unfortunately, their approach was computationally inefficient and was later refined by Rosen, Jiang, King and Tanner (2001). I use the Rosen et al. (2001) approach in my analysis here.[3]

3 Results of the Analysis of Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors

The results of the EI analysis of all 13 contested elections for the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors between 2012 and 2020 are presented in the tables at the end of this report.

The race/ethnicity of voters was obtained by using U.S. Census name matching to the actual voter list for each election. This is generally preferred to using U.S. Census counts at the precinct level because we do not need to separately estimate the turnout rate of each group, which adds considerable statistical uncertainty to the estimates of voter behavior. However, it is not possible to separately identify Black voters using this name match method. Instead, Blacks are grouped into the non-Latino and non-Asian residual group, Others. Given that Blacks make up 9% of the Los Angeles County population, this gain in statistical efficiency is worth the cost of not separately estimating their voting behavior. Finally, as previously noted, the voters who did not cast a valid ballot for this race are conditioned out.

[1] Formally, we can not rule out the null hypothesis that the group equally split their votes across two or more choices.

[2] Formally, we need to reject the null hypothesis that the distribution of vote shares across groups is identical.

[3] All the computations discussed in this report were done in R (R Core Team 2012), a statistical computing language, using the eiPack (version 0.2–1) developed by Olivia Lau, Ryan T. Moore, and Michael Kellerman.

To read the tables, consider the results for the first election in the set, the 2020 General election for Supervisor for the 2nd District. The two candidates are Herb Wesson, Jr. and Holly Mitchell. The table shows that the estimated fraction of Latinos voting for Wesson is 45.5% and the parenthetical values underneath that provide the 95% confidence interval of the estimate is (44.5%, 46.6%). These measure our statistical uncertainty; and we can not rule out that true percent is within this interval with high probability. Similarly, it is estimated that 37.3% of Other (non-Latinos/non-Asians) voted for Wesson with a confidence interval of (36.6%, 38.0%). Similarly it is estimated that 54.5% of Latinos voted for Mitchell with a confidence interval of (53.4%, 55.5%) and 62.7% of Other voters with a confidence interval of (62.0%, 63.4%). In this election, a clear majority of all three groups of voters – Latinos, Asians, and Others – supported the same candidate, Mitchell, who won the elections. Given this, there is no evidence of racially polarized voting in this election.

Given the large number of precincts in Los Angeles county, many with relatively homogeneous population of voters, these estimates are precisely estimated. This can be seen in the rather narrow confidence intervals for all estimated vote proportions. However, the confidence intervals are systematically slightly larger for Asian voters because there are fewer precincts that are homogeneously Asian. However, they are still narrow enough that we are confident in our estimates of their voting behavior.

Since we have relatively precise estimates of group voting behavior in the Supervisorial elections, which is the focus of this redistricting, there is no compelling scientific reason to analyze non-Supervisorial elections (referred to as exogenous elections in redistricting litigation). Further, from a practical point of view, there are no other elected offices held in the county that are of similar type to the Board of Supervisors, which is for a non-partisan, legislative body. The academic literature is clear that voting behavior differs substantially between partisan and non-partisan elections (see, for example, Schaffner and Streb 2002, Wright 2008, Bernhard and Freeder 2020, or Lim and Snyder 2015). In particular, voters are more likely to use other information cues, such as incumbency status, in making their decisions. Further, they are more likely to abstain in non-partisan elections. Therefore, we did not statistically analyze any other elections for this report. However, we do discuss two recent elections in Los Angeles County that have been suggested are probative in the final section of the report.

Most of the elections analysed show no pattern of racially polarized voting, as we saw in the 2020 General Election for the 2nd District seat discussed above. The lone exception being the 2016 General election for the 5th District seat between Kathryn Barger and Darrell Park. Barger won the election with 57.90% of the vote. If we look at the estimated voting behavior by group, we see that Park was the majority preferred candidate of Latino voters with 63.0% of their vote with a confidence interval of (61.7%, 64.5%). However, Barger was the majority preferred candidate of both Asian and Other voters with 57.1% (54.3%, 59.9%) and 66.1% (65.5%, 66.6%) respectively, estimated vote share of the group. However, given that this is the only example we can find in the last decade, there is not systematic evidence that a majority Others voting in bloc to usually prevent Latinos or Asians from electing their candidates of choice.

Further, if we look at the 2016 Primary for this seat which featured 8 candidates, including both Brager and Park, we do not see evidence of racially polarized voting. For example, while Barger was the plurality preferred candidate of Asian and Other voters with approximately one third of their respective votes each, we would hardly call their voting behavior cohesive. Further, we see that Barger and Park were statistically tied as the plurality preferred candidate of Latino voters in this primary election. This casts doubt even on the general election result between the top two finishers, Barger and Park, really being racially polarized.

The other notable elections among this set are the 2020 Primary for the 2nd District and the 2016 Primary for the 4th. In the 2nd District race, we see that Jeong was clearly the preferred candidate of Asian voters with an estimated 64.4% of them voting for him with a confidence interval of (61.3%, 66.8%). However, neither Latinos nor Other voters were cohesive in their vote preference given that no candidate in this election even gets close to a majority of their support. Therefore, there is no statistical significant evidence of racially polarized voting.

In the 2016 Primary for the 4th district, Pacheco was the plurality, but not majority, preferred candidate for Latino voters getting about 45.0% of their vote with a confidence interval of (44.4%, 45.6%). Further, about 36.8% of Latino voters chose Hahn, the ultimate winner of the election, with a confidence interval of (35.9%, 37.6%). This lack of cohesion by Latinos means that this race also does not show evidence of statistically significant racially polarized voting.

Overall, we find that there is no legally cognizable racially polarized voting in elections for Los Angeles Board of Supervisors because cohesion is inconsistent and White/Other voters do not vote as a bloc to usually defeat minority preferred candidates.

4 Implications for Redistricting for the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors

In redistricting, compliance with the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (VRA) is one of the non-negotiable tasks for the Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA CRC). To enable and inform such compliance, the LA CRC tasked us, its Voting Rights consultants, to analyze relevant election results, as the Voting Rights Act and federal courts require, to determine if voting in County Board of Supervisors (BOS) elections is racially polarized.

The U.S. Supreme Court, in its key decision of Thornburg v. Gingles, 478 U.S. 30 (1986), decided that one of the most important factors in a VRA analysis of redistricting plans is "the extent to which voting in the elections of the state or political subdivision is racially polarized." We determine after analyzing more than one dozen Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors elections from 2012-2020 that legally significant racially polarized voting does not exist in such elections since White (i.e., Other) voters do not vote as a bloc to usually defeat minority candidates of choice. Thornburg v. Gingles, 478 U.S. 30 (1986).

Furthermore, the Voting Rights Act does not choose winners among minority groups or favor one minority over another. A preferred candidate of a minority group may win and defeat the preferred candidate of another minority group. In addition, the candidate of choice of two of three (Latinos, Blacks, and Asians) minority groups may similarly prevail as the candidate of choice in an election.

In determining the presence of legally significant racially polarized voting, the courts overwhelmingly recognize the significant value of elections involving candidates of different races. The non-partisan Los Angeles County local elections analyzed and reviewed for our report virtually all feature candidates of multiple races. "Elections between white and minority candidates are the most probative in determining the existence of legally significant white bloc voting." Old Person v. Cooney, 230 F.3d 1113, 1123-24 (9th Cir. 2000). Single race elections are not typically entitled to the same evidentiary weight as those elections involving minority candidates. U.S. v. City of Euclid, 580 F.Supp.2d 584 (N.D. Ohio 2008) and Rural West Tenn. African-Am. Affairs Council v. Sundquist, 209 F.3d 835, 840 (6th Cir.2000).

Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 prohibits, among other things, any electoral practice or procedure that minimizes or cancels out the voting strength of members of racial or language minority groups in the voting population. This phenomenon is known as vote dilution. Redistricting plans cannot crack or pack a geographically concentrated minority community across districts or within a district in a manner that dilutes their voting strength.

In Thornburg v. Gingles, 478 U.S. 30 (1986), the Supreme Court set out the framework for challenges to such practices or procedures. In Brnovich v. Democratic National Committee, 141 S. Ct. 2321, 2337 (2021), the Supreme Court described Gingles as "our seminal § 2 vote dilution case" and recognized that "[o]ur many subsequent vote-dilution cases have largely followed the path that Gingles charted."

Analysis begins by considering whether three Gingles preconditions exist.

1. The minority group must be sufficiently large and geographically compact to constitute a majority of the voting age population in a single-member district.
2. The minority group must be politically cohesive.
3. The majority must vote sufficiently as a bloc to enabled it usually to defeat the minority group's preferred candidate (emphasis added).

Our analysis and report focus on Los Angeles County BOS elections also known as "endogenous elections" with minority and white candidates running for the same as the most probative in assessing whether white bloc voting exists to satisfy the third Gingles precondition. BOS elections are non-partisan. In examining election results and behavior in Los Angeles County over the past decade, we also assessed the 2018 County Sheriff and 2019 County District Attorney elections from secondary sources, both of which are also non-partisan as are the BOS elections. In both elections, minority and White candidates were on the ballot for sheriff and district attorney. In both elections, the minority candidates of choice won, Alex Vlllanueva (Latino) and George Gascon (Latino).

In Villaneuva's election, he beat a longtime White incumbent, "marking a stunning upset for a seat that hasn't seen an incumbent lose in more than a century" (Los Angeles Times, 11/8/18).

In 2019, George Gascon defeated incumbent Jackie Lacey (Black) for County District Attorney. Gascon was the candidate of choice of minority voters. Lacey had been the first Black person and the first woman to hold the office (see KCRW, 9/17/20 and Los Angeles Times, 11/6/20).

A Los Angeles Times analysis of the Gascon victory over Lacey general election results shows how Gascon assembled a winning coalition. His political path to victory came from uniting the progressive opposition in the densely populated core of the county, while winning over areas where Lacey once enjoyed strong support.

A block-by-block map of the neighborhood precincts provides the most detailed view available of the election It shows that Gascon gained support all across the L.A. Basin, racking up the biggest margins in East and South Los Angeles. Majority-Latino neighborhoods remained opposed to Lacey's reelection, with Gascon claiming most of those precincts Perhaps the biggest upset came from areas where Black people make up the largest share of the population. In a drastic shift from the primary, Gascon won the vast majority of plurality-Black precincts, 58% to 42%. In the City of Los Angeles, wealthier precincts still gave many of their votes to Lacey. Gascon performed strongly in lower-income areas (Los Angeles Times, 11/6/20: "How George Gascon unseated L.A. County Dist. Atty. Jackie Lacey")

As we know, the race of the candidate does not necessarily determine whether or not they are the minority candidate of choice. Legally significant RPV did not exist in these two elections because the minority candidates of choice won, thus exemplifying that Whites did not bloc vote to prevent their elections.

Thus, these elections align with our analysis of BOS elections, that White bloc voting does not prevent minorities from usually electing their BOS candidates of choice, the standard set by the U.S. Supreme Court in Thornburg v. Gingles.

In addition, Gingles does not even apply to the two above elections because of the candidates' electoral success. Electoral success confirms there is no white bloc voting and no legally significant RPV.

The existence of RPV in any given election is not the dispositive consideration. Instead, the key is minority candidates of choice winning elections, as they did in 2018 and 2019 Sheriff and DA and as candidates have for BOS. Candidate of choice victories confirm that there is no legally significant RPV in non-partisan elections for Los Angeles County local offices over the past decade.

Opinion of the 2021 Redistricting Plan for the County of Los Angeles Board of Supervisors' Compliance with the Voting Rights Act

Holly O. Whatley
General Counsel, Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission
Colantuono, Highsmith & Whatley, PC
790 E. Colorado Blvd., Suite 850
Pasadena, CA 91101-2109

Dear Ms. Whatley:

The Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission (LA County CRC) has asked for our opinion of the 2021 Redistricting Plan for the County of Los Angeles Board of Supervisors' compliance with the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

In summary, the final map does not appear to have the purpose or effect of illegally diluting minority voting strength. Reflecting significant Latino population growth over the past decade, the map creates three Latino majority-minority districts by total population, with two such districts (Districts 1 and 4) majority-minority in Citizen Voting Age Population (CVAP). No other County minority group is large enough and geographically compact enough to constitute a majority in a single district. A majority-minority district is defined as a district where the minority population is a numerical majority (50% plus one or more) of the population in the district. Easley v. Cromartie, 532 U.S. 234 (2001).

Latinos are the largest minority group in Los Angeles County. According to the 2020 Census, adjusted for the in-state incarcerated population (Elec. Code § 21003), Los Angeles County has an adjusted total population of 10,047,926. Of this total, 47.99% are Latino, 25.54% are Non-Hispanic White, 15.81% are Asian, and 8.19% are Black. The adjusted Census data reveals that there are 4,821,703 Latinos in Los Angeles County or 47.99% of the total population, of whom 3,579,695 (44.78%) are of voting age.

To compare 2010 and 2020 trends, unadjusted Census data are used for comparisons because the statutory requirement to adjust population for in-state incarcerated persons did not apply to 2010 Census data. The Latino population, unadjusted, increased by 116,953 people (2.43 % increase) since the 2010 Census. Latino VAP increased five times more than the total Latino population, with an unadjusted VAP population increase of 363,395 or 10.20%.

Latinos make up nearly 50% of the County's total population. According to the American Community Survey, Latino CVAP in Los Angeles County is 39.4%. The two majority CVAP (40% of County Board of Supervisor districts) Latino districts also correspond to Latinos' total County-wide CVAP of nearly 40%, reflecting the nature of the County's population, as of the 2020 Census.

The only other single race minority group with a population increase since 2010 is Asians, who now number 148,790 more people than in 2010 (10.09% increase) and 162,104 more people of voting age (12.87% increase), according to the unadjusted 2020 Census. There are 1,588,092 (15.81%) Asian people in Los Angeles County as the adjusted 2020 Census data reveal. By contrast, the non-Hispanic White population decreased since 2010 in both total unadjusted population (-6.39%) and VAP (-4.15%), whereas the non-Hispanic Black population saw a decrease in total unadjusted population (-7.15%) and a decrease in VAP (-1.23%).

For purposes of this opinion, 2020 total population and VAP Census data are unadjusted or adjusted (per (Elec. Code § 21003) as indicated. CVAP data are from ACS's five-year estimates.

In its redistricting efforts, the LA County CRC was aware of Census data and population changes in Los Angeles County. The LA County CRC emphasized recognizing and preserving communities of interest (COI) while balancing COIs with other redistricting criteria, including Census data and an understanding of who lives in Los Angeles County.

The specific definition of COIs can be amorphous and indefinite. However, COIs can be reliably defined as a neighborhood or community that would benefit from being maintained in a single district because of shared interests, views, or characteristics.

Communities of interest can be identified by referring to many data points, including the decennial Census, American Community Survey, demographic studies, related surveys, and social and economic characteristics that community members describe. Relevant social and economic characteristics can include income levels, educational backgrounds, traditional and longstanding housing patterns, cultural and language characteristics, employment and economic patterns, and health and environmental conditions. The LA County CRC evaluated such data points in drafting the final map and in complying with its stated redistricting criteria, including but not limited to the Voting Rights Act.

Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 prohibits any electoral practice or procedure that minimizes or cancels out the voting strength of members of racial or language minority groups in the voting population. This phenomenon is known as vote dilution. Redistricting plans cannot crack (reduce or divide) or pack (overconcentrate) a geographically discrete minority community across districts or within a district in a manner that dilutes minority voting strength.

In Thornburg v. Gingles, 478 U.S. 30 (1986), the Supreme Court set out the framework for challenges to such dilutive redistricting practices or procedures. In Brnovich v. Democratic National Committee, 141 S. Ct. 2321, 2337 (2021), the Supreme Court described Gingles as "our seminal § 2 vote dilution case" and recognized that "[o]ur many subsequent vote dilution cases have largely followed the path that Gingles charted."

Analysis begins by considering whether the three Gingles preconditions exist. First, the minority group must be sufficiently large and geographically compact to constitute a majority of the voting age population or a minority coalition with other similarly situated groups in a single-member district. Second, the minority group must be politically cohesive in supporting the same candidates. Third, the majority must vote sufficiently as a bloc to enable it usually to defeat the minority group's preferred candidate.

While the second Gingles precondition asks only whether minority voters generally vote as a cohesive group, the third precondition assesses whether "a bloc-voting [white] majority can routinely outvote the minority, thereby impair[ing] the ability of a protected class to elect candidates of its choice." Johnson v. De Grandy, 512 U.S. 997, 1007, 114 S.Ct. 2647, 129 L.Ed.2d 775 (1994). Critically, the salient inquiry under the third Gingles precondition is not whether white candidates do or do not usually defeat minority candidates, but whether minority-preferred candidates, whatever their race, usually lose.

Gingles describes a review of the totality of the circumstances that requires a "searching practical evaluation of the past and present reality" of a jurisdiction's electoral system that is "intensely local," "fact-intensive," and "functional" in nature. 478 U.S. at 45-46, 62-63, 79. The Commission's Racially Polarized Voting (RPV) consultant and Voting Rights Act counsel prepared "Los Angeles County Racially Polarized Voting Analysis for 2021 Redistricting" (the Analysis), which is used herein to inform our opinions.

When evaluating how to create districts with large minority populations, the Commission may not "reach out" to grab a minority community simply to add minority population to a given district. The U.S. Supreme Court has been very clear that such "reach outs" raise suspicions of a racial gerrymander, a redistricting decision based predominantly on race that violates the U.S. Constitution's Fourteenth Amendment and its equal protection guarantee.

For example, the Supreme Court struck down a North Carolina redistricting because the design of a "serpentine" district was nothing if not race-centric, and could not be justified as a reasonable attempt to comply with the VRA. Shaw v. Reno (Shaw II), 517 U.S. 899, 116 S.Ct. 1894, 135 L.Ed.2d 207.

The Supreme Court has clearly stated that a redistricting plan will not be held invalid simply because the "redistricting is performed with consciousness of race" or because a jurisdiction intentionally creates a majority-minority district. Indeed, Race is always part of the redistricting process. United States v. Hays, 515 U.S. 737, 745 (1995), Easley v. Cromartie, 532

U.S. 234, 253-54 (2001) (quoting Bush v. Vera, 517 U.S. 952, 958 (1996). Race cannot predominate the process.

A plaintiff challenging a majority-minority district for improperly using race to draw the district must show at a minimum that the legislature subordinated traditional race-neutral districting principles to racial considerations. Race must not simply have been a motivation for the drawing of a majority-minority district, but the predominant factor motivating the legislature's districting decision. Plaintiffs must show that a facially neutral law is unexplainable on grounds other than race. Easley v. Cromartie, 532 U.S. 234, 253-54 (2001) and Bush v. Vera, 517 U.S. 952, 958 (1996).

Among the "race-neutral districting principles" are "compactness, contiguity, [and] respect for political subdivisions or communities defined by actual shared interests." Miller v. Johnson, 515 U.S. 900, 916 (1995) and Shaw v. Reno, 509 U.S. at 647).

The most legally relevant elections in VRA election and racially polarized voting analysis are "endogenous elections" with minority and white candidates running for the same offices (Los Angeles County Board of Supervisor district elections). Endogenous elections are the most probative in assessing whether white bloc voting exists to usually prevent minorities from electing their preferred candidates.

County of Los Angeles Board of Supervisor (BOS) elections are non-partisan elections to a County legislative body. Exogenous elections are mostly partisan, such as those for governor, attorney general, and U.S. Senator.

The academic literature in statistical analysis of election results consistently observes that voting behavior differs substantially between partisan and nonpartisan elections (See: Schaffner and Streb 2002, Wright 2008, Bernhard and Freeder 2020, or Lim and Snyder 2015). In non-partisan elections, voters are more likely to use non-partisan election specific information cues, such as incumbency status, in making their decisions than they typically do in partisan elections. In addition, the academic literature holds that voters are likelier to abstain in non-partisan elections than they are for partisan races.

For this opinion, we focus on the BOS non-partisan endogenous election results as the most relevant and probative of voter behavior and minority voters' history of electing their preferred candidates to the BOS as well as two other non-partisan elections, both elected at-large County-wide, the County Sheriff and County District Attorney (DA).

As the analysis attests, minority voters have enjoyed regular success in electing their preferred BOS candidates, Sheriff, and DA over the past decade since the implementation of the last BOS redistricting plan. In our analysis, we analyzed all contested BOS elections (endogenous elections) between 2012 and 2020, both the top two primaries and general elections.

The election analysis reveals some statistical evidence of RPV. However, the RPV is not legally cognizable because cohesion is inconsistent and nonminority voters do not vote as a bloc to usually defeat minority preferred candidates. In addition, minority voters elected their preferred candidates for Sheriff and DA in 2018 and 2019 respectively.

In pertinent part, the analysis states:

> In determining the presence of legally significant racially polarized voting, the courts overwhelmingly recognize the significant value of elections involving candidates of different races. The non-partisan Los Angeles County local elections analyzed and reviewed for our report virtually all 6 feature candidates of multiple races. "Elections between white and minority candidates are the most probative in determining the existence of legally significant white bloc voting." Old Person v. Cooney, 230 F.3d 1113, 112324 (9th Cir. 2000). Single race elections are not typically entitled to the same evidentiary weight as those elections involving minority candidates. U.S. v. City of Euclid, 580 F.Supp.2d 584 (N.D. Ohio 2008) and Rural West Tenn. African Am. Affairs Council v. Sundquist, 209 F.3d 835, 840 (6th Cir.2000).
> Since we have relatively precise estimates of group voting behavior in the Supervisorial elections, which is the focus of this redistricting, there is no compelling scientific reason to analyze non-Supervisorial elections (referred to as exogenous elections in redistricting litigation). Further, from a practical point of view, there are no other elected offices held in the county that are of similar type to the Board of Supervisors, which is for a non-partisan, legislative body…
> Most of the elections analyzed show no pattern of racially polarized voting... Overall, we find that there is no legally cognizable racially polarized voting in elections for Los Angeles Board of Supervisors because cohesion is inconsistent and White/Other voters do not vote as a bloc to usually defeat minority preferred candidates…
> In examining election results and behavior in Los Angeles County over the past decade, we also assessed the 2018 County Sheriff and 2019 County District Attorney elections from secondary sources, both of which are also nonpartisan as are the BOS elections. In both elections, minority and White candidates were on the ballot for sheriff and district attorney. In both elections, the minority candidates of choice won, Alex Villanueva (Latino) and George Gascon (White). In Villanueva's election, he beat a longtime White incumbent, "marking a stunning upset for a seat that hasn't seen an incumbent lose in more than a century" (Los Angeles Times, 11/8/18). In 2019, George Gascon defeated incumbent Jackie Lacey (Black) for County District Attorney. Gascon was the candidate of choice of minority voters. Lacey had been the first Black person and the first woman to hold the office (see KCRW, 9/17/20 and Los Angeles Times, 11/6/20)…

As we know, the race of the candidate does not necessarily determine whether or not they are the minority candidate of choice.

Legally significant RPV did not exist in these two elections because the minority candidates of choice won, thus exemplifying that Whites did not bloc vote to prevent their elections. Thus, these elections align with our analysis of BOS elections, that White bloc voting does not prevent minorities from usually electing their BOS candidates of choice, the standard set by the U.S. Supreme Court in Thornburg v. Gingles.

In addition, Gingles does not even apply to the two above elections because of the candidates' electoral success. Electoral success confirms there is no white bloc voting and no legally significant RPV.

The existence of RPV in any given election is not the dispositive consideration. Instead, the key is minority candidates of choice winning elections, as they did in 2018 and 2019 Sheriff and DA and as candidates have for BOS. Candidate of choice victories confirm that there is no legally significant RPV in nonpartisan elections for Los Angeles County local offices over the past decade.

Creating majority-minority districts arbitrarily, for the erroneous, unsupported presumption of the minority population needed to elect preferred candidates without analytical supporting data and evidence, is uniformly considered to be constitutionally infirm, especially here given the RPV analysis showing minority electoral success since 2012, as the Supreme Court repeatedly held during last decade's redistricting cycle. See: Bethune-Hill v. Virginia State Board of Elections (Docket #15-680, 2017), Cooper v. Harris, 137 S. Ct. 1455, 197 L.Ed.2d 837 (2017), and Alabama Legislative Black Caucus v. Alabama, 135 S. Ct. 1257 (2015).

Indeed, in the absence of consistent white bloc voting and the presence of minority electoral success, majority-minority districts can only be legally justified by examining the actual population of the County and the inclusion of compact, historic, geographically discrete minority communities and communities of interest in districts to adhere to "traditional districting principles such as maintaining communities of interest and traditional boundaries." League of United Latin Am. Citizens v. Perry , 548 U.S. 399, 433, 126 S.Ct. 2594, 165 L.Ed.2d 609 (2006). Keeping such compact minority communities together is permissible while also respecting the U.S. Constitution's Fourteenth Amendment one person, one vote and equal protection requirements.

In addition, the Supreme Court's redistricting jurisprudence provides further support for applying race-neutral, traditional redistricting criteria, such as preserving communities of interest. The Court has regularly held that "[a]ny number of consistently applied legislative policies" can be used in redistricting and can justify population deviations such as making districts compact, respecting municipal boundaries, or preserving the cores of prior districts Reynolds v. Sims, 377 U.S. 533 (1964). Mahan v. Howell, 410 U.S. 315 (1973), Brown v. Thomson, 462 U.S. 835 (1983), and Voinovich v. Quilter, 507 U.S. 146 (1993), Karcher v. Daggett, 462 U.S. 725 (1983) and Harris v. Arizona Independent Redistricting Commission, 136 S. Ct. 1301, 194 L. Ed. 2d 497 (2016).

Creating new majority-minority districts reflecting minority group population growth can also be legally sustainable. Abbott v. Perez, 138 S. Ct. 2305 (2018) and see the lawsuit filed by the U.S. Department of Justice in in USA v. State of Texas, Civil Action No. 3:21-cv-29, filed December 6, 2021.

To avoid racial predomination, the LA County CRC maintained geographically compact, concentrated, traditional minority communities. Uniting them through geography, shared culture, language, and community rather than race-based criteria and assumptions is a traditionally accepted practice where the LA County CRC avoided what the Supreme Court disapproved of here:

> … a reapportionment plan that includes in one district individuals who belong to the same race, but who are otherwise widely separated by geographical and political boundaries, and who may have little in common with one another but the color of their skin, bears an uncomfortable resemblance to political apartheid. Shaw v. Reno – Id

> … to draw …a district connecting concentrations of Georgia's dispersed minority population would require us to subordinate Georgia's traditional districting policies and consider race predominantly, to the exclusion of both constitutional norms and common sense. Miller v. Johnson, 515 U.S. 900 (1995)

The Voting Rights Act does not choose winners among minority groups or favor one minority over another. A preferred candidate of a minority group may win and defeat the preferred candidate of another minority group. In addition, the candidate of choice of two of three (Latinos, Blacks, and Asians) minority groups may similarly prevail as the candidate of choice in an election.

District 1 is majority Latino in total population, VAP, and CVAP: 58.16%, 54.80%, 51.51%. This District is reflective of the LA County CRC's COI focused approach to redistricting. In District 1, several traditional, geographically related, compact, minority communities are preserved and included in District 1. For example, Boyle Heights (Latino population of 73,112 (93%) out of total population of 79,020) is kept whole. Several other traditional, compact predominantly Latino communities on the east side of the City of Los Angeles and east of the City of Los Angeles itself, including unincorporated East Los Angeles (Latino total population of 113,434 (95%) out of total population of 119,284), El Sereno (Latino total population of 29,869 (78%) out of total population of 38,310) and Lincoln Heights (Latino total population of 19,730 (67%) out of total population of 29,526) are included in this District.

Multiple historic, compact, geographically connected Asian communities are included whole in this District: Chinatown, Little Tokyo, Filipino Town (HiFi), and West San Gabriel Valley, which includes Monterey Park and Alhambra -- all are kept whole in this District. This area also includes what is sometimes referred to as new Chinatown which has a significant Vietnamese population. Most of historic Thai Town is included in District 1.

Such a COI, traditional community and neighborhood focus complies with U.S. Supreme Court precedent. For example, the recognition of nonracial communities of interest reflects the principle that a State may not "assum[e] from a group of voters' race that they 'think alike, share the same political interests, and will prefer the same candidates at the polls.'" LULAC v. Perry, 548 U.S. 399 (2006) and Shaw v. Reno, 509 U. S. 630, 647 (1993). Such community-based, race neutral redistricting also avoids setting arbitrary percentages of minority voters to be assigned to any given district. Such racial considerations are disfavored by the Supreme Court. Cooper v. Harris, 137 S. Ct. 1455, 197 L.Ed.2d 837 (2017)

District 2 is a central, urban, majority-minority coalition district reflective of the area's compact, traditional communities of interest. This District is comprised of CVAP in the following percentages: Latino 37.97%, Non-Hispanic White 20.30%, Asian 11.19%, and Black 28.91%. District 2 features the largest Black population of all five supervisor districts and retains and keeps whole the District's historic core of traditional Black communities, in response to public comments. These communities include: Crenshaw, Baldwin Hills, View Park, Ladera Heights, West Adams, Jefferson Park, Inglewood, Hawthorne, and South Los Angeles including Watts and Compton. Koreatown and Gardena, which has a large, compact Japanese population, are also included in District 2.

The unincorporated area of Florence-Firestone is included in District 2. According to the 2020 Census, Florence-Firestone has total population of 62,456, of whom 56,566 (91%) are Latino. Unincorporated Florence-Firestone is today predominantly Latino, although some public commenters contend that this area has been a historically Black community. However, public comments also reveal that recent migration patterns have changed its demographic composition to what it is today.

There were public comments that opposed extending District 2 to encompass several beachfront communities. Opponents claimed that doing so would dilute Black voting strength in this District where Blacks have traditionally elected their candidates of choice.

We do not agree. The District 2 Black population changes are legally insignificant, given the findings of the analysis, and do not dilute the voices of Black voters. In addition, in the absence of white bloc voting and given minorities', including Black voters, success in electing candidates of choice to non-partisan offices (BOS, Sheriff, and DA) throughout the past decade, Blacks have had and continue to have under the final map the ability to elect preferred BOS candidates.

District 3 is a majority White district in western and northwestern Los Angeles County. The minority CVAP populations follows: Latino 28.68%, Black 5.39%, and Asian 12.18%. Total minority CVAP among the three largest single race minority groups is 46.25%.

District 4 is a majority Latino district in total population, VAP, and CVAP: 59.01%, 55.96% and 50.01%. Asian and Black CVAP in this District exceeds 21%. District 4 has 13.72% Asian CVAP.

District 4 also includes traditional, compact Asian communities of Long Beach, with a large Cambodian community, and Torrance, with a traditional Japanese community, is kept whole in District 4.

As discussed herein, the Commission prioritized race neutral redistricting priorities, such as keeping communities of interest together, uniting and preserving historic, and traditional neighborhoods and compact minority communities.

This District also brings together historic, traditional, and compact Latino communities in Southeast Los Angeles, including but not limited to: Huntington Park, South Gate, Bell, and Bell Garden. Pico Rivera (91% Latino), and Commerce (94% Latino), two traditional, compact Latino communities, were added to District 4 from District 1. The gateway cities of Whittier, Santa Fe Springs, and La Mirada are kept whole in this District in response to public comments and also geographic and COI compactness considerations.

District 5 is mainly a North County, plurality White district whose minority CVAP populations consist of: Latino 26.7%, Black 7.48%, and Asian 14.32% for a total CVAP of the County's three largest single race minority groups of 48.5%.

In California and in other states that comprise the jurisdiction of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, coalition districts may be used to evaluate compliance with Voting Rights Act Section 2 through the Gingles factors. Romero v. City of Pomona, 883 F.2d 1418 (9th Cir. 1989) and Badillo v. City of Stockton, Cal., 956 F.2d 884 (9th Cir. 1992).

The LA County CRC legally had the option to create coalition districts, consisting of Latino, Black, and Asian people, as seen herein. However, Gingles appears not to apply to the final map because of minority voters' success in electing BOS candidates of choice and the absence of white bloc voting to prevent minorities from usually electing their referred candidates. As we opined in the Analysis: "Overall, we find that there is no legally cognizable racially polarized voting racially polarized voting in elections for Los Angeles Board of Supervisors because cohesion is inconsistent and White/Other voters do not vote as a bloc to usually defeat minority preferred candidates."

One Person, One Vote

"Substantial equality of population" in state or county-level redistricting has come to mean that a legislative plan with an "overall range" of less than ten percent may survive an equal protection attack, unless there is proof of intentional discrimination within that range. Gaffney v. Cummings, 412 U.S. 735 (1973), White v. Regester, 412 U.S. 755 (1973), and Reynolds v. Sims, 377 U.S. 533 (1964)

However, redistricting plans within the “ten percent” standard are not immune from attack. The attacking plaintiffs must present compelling evidence that the plan ignores legitimate reasons for population disparities (such as VRA and Fourteenth Amendment compliance) and creates the deviations solely for the benefit of certain persons to the constitutional detriment of others.

In the last redistricting cycle, the Supreme Court spoke clearly about population deviations and the extreme deference given to redistricting bodies’ decisions regarding population in their redistricting.

> The Constitution, however, does not demand mathematical perfection. In determining what is "practicable," we have recognized that the Constitution permits deviation when it is justified by "legitimate considerations incident to the effectuation of a rational state policy." Id ., at 579, 84 S.Ct. 1362. In related contexts, we have made clear that in addition to the "traditional districting principles such as compactness [and] contiguity," Shaw v. Reno, 509 U.S. 630, 647, 113 S.Ct. 2816, 125 L.Ed.2d 511 (1993), those legitimate considerations can include a state interest in maintaining the integrity of political subdivisions, Mahan v. Howell, 410 U.S. 315, 328, 93 S.Ct. 979, 35 L.Ed.2d 320 (1973), or the competitive balance among political parties, Gaffney v. Cummings, 412 U.S. 735, 752, 93 S.Ct. 2321, 37 L.Ed.2d 298 (1973).
> We have further made clear that “minor deviations from mathematical equality” do not, by themselves, “make out a prima facie case of invidious discrimination under the Fourteenth Amendment so as to require justification by the State.”
> We have defined as "minor deviations" those in "an apportionment plan with a maximum population deviation under 10%." Brown, 462 U.S., at 842, 103 S.Ct. 2690. And we have refused to require States to justify deviations of 9.9%, White v. Regester, 412 U.S. 755, 764, 93 S.Ct. 2332, 37 L.Ed.2d 314 (1973), and 8%, Gafney, 412 U.S., at 751, 93 S.Ct. 2321…
> In sum, …those attacking a state-approved plan must show that it is more probable than not that a deviation of less than 10% reflects the predominance of illegitimate reapportionment factors rather than the "legitimate considerations" to which we have referred in Harris v. Ariz. Indep. Redistricting Comm'n 136 S. Ct. 1301 (2016) Reynolds and later cases.
> …see also Vieth v. Jubelirer, 541 U.S. 267, 284, 124 S.Ct. 1769, 158 L.Ed.2d 546 (2004) (plurality opinion) (listing examples of traditional redistricting criteria, including "compliance with requirements of the [Voting Rights Act]").
> Given the inherent difficulty of measuring and comparing factors that may legitimately account for small deviations from strict mathematical equality, we believe that attacks on deviations under 10% will succeed only rarely, in unusual cases. And we are not surprised that the appellants have failed to meet their burden here. Emphasis Added

The final map has a 9.32% deviation, which is under the Supreme Court's 10% figure. There is no evidence to suggest, prove, or indicate that the Commission's deviation was caused by going beyond traditional redistricting criteria and other "legitimate [local] interests." There is nothing in the LA County CRC's record to meet the Court's Harris standard of indicating problematic decision-making to justify a one person, one vote challenge to the final map being one of the "unusual cases" that "rarely" succeed in proving a one person, one vote violation.

Conclusion

In their final map, the Commission preserved and united historic, geographically discrete majority-minority communities and communities of interest to adhere to "traditional districting principles such as maintaining communities of interest and traditional boundaries." League of United Latin Am. Citizens v. Perry, 548 U.S. 399, 433, 126 S.Ct. 2594, 165 L.Ed.2d 609 (2006).

The final map does not appear to have the purpose or effect of diluting minority voting strength or discriminating against people, based on race, color, or membership in a language minority group.

Reflecting significant Latino total and voting age population growth over the past decade, the map creates three Latino majority-minority districts by total population, with two such districts (Districts 1 and 4) majority-minority in CVAP. No other County minority group is large enough and geographically compact enough to constitute a majority in a single district.

Latinos make up nearly 50% of the County's total population. According to the American Community Survey, Latino CVAP in Los Angeles County is 38%. The two majority CVAP (40% of County Board of Supervisor districts) Latino districts correspond to Latinos' total County wide CVAP of nearly 40%, reflecting the nature of the County's population as of the 2020 Census.

The only other single race minority group with a population increase since 2010 is Asians, who now number 148,790 more people than in 2010 (10.09% increase) and 162,104 more people of voting age (12.87%), according to the unadjusted 2020 Census. There are 1,588,092 (15.81%) Asian people in Los Angeles County as the adjusted 2020 Census data reveal. By contrast, the non-Hispanic White and Black unadjusted populations decreased in both total population and VAP.

In its redistricting efforts, the LA County CRC was aware of Census data and population changes in Los Angeles County. The Commissioners emphasized recognizing and preserving communities of interest while balancing COIs with other redistricting criteria, including Census data and an understanding of who lives in Los Angeles County.

Finally, the final map's 9.32% deviation complies with the Fourteenth Amendment's one person, one vote requirement. There is no evidence to suggest, prove, or indicate that the Commission's deviation was caused by going beyond traditional redistricting criteria and other "legitimate [local] interests," such as complying with the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

We are always available to answer any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Bruce L. Adelson, Esq.

Los Angeles County Citizens Redistricting Commission Voting Rights Act Counsel
